FROM TUESDAY TO FRIDAY. The South Side Republican Mass Meeting Has Been Changed. The Republican meeting which was to have been held to-night at Westwood's hall under the auspices of the B. B. Drovers club, has been changed until Friday evening, on account of the hall having been previously engaged for to-night. This will give the club more time to work it up and to make arrangements for what will no doubt prove to be one of the largest and most successful meetings of the campaign.

COUNTY BUSINESS

Transacted by the County Board of Commissioners.

A JUSTICE'S BILL FOR COSTS

Turned Down by the Committee—The Board's Action Seemingly to Strike a Popular Chord—The Register's Unusually High Bill for Printing the Delinquent Tax List—It is $300 Higher than was Ever Before Charged in This County—Other Business Transacted.

One of the most important meetings held by the board of county commissioners for a long time, was that held yesterday morning, and the result of its action on two matters at least will be watched with interest by the public. It was the regular monthly meeting and was attended by every member except President Dobbins in whose absence Commissioner Irwin, of Webster, presided. The routine business was gone through with in the usual manner and a number of matters of minor importance considered.

The important part of the meeting was the refusal to order paid a large number of bills from Justice Gillespy's court, which aggregated over $600. The bills were drawn on the misdemeanor fund, a large amount of the sum named being for constable fees, etc.

There was no argument or talk about it when the matter came before the commissioners; it had been settled in the committee that the bill was unjust, and the report of the committee was sustained unanimously. What effect the action will have on the justices is a question. There is no question about the bills in many cases being unjust. Many of them come from rickles made on houses of ill fame and in some cases three and four charges are made against one person and no matter how much the county loses, the constable and justice expect a fee for each case. In a number of instances it is said the cases never came to trial and in others the bills are made out by responsible parties who in the opinion of the board should pay them.

The matter was discussed at length by the committee before it acted finally and it decided upon the course mentioned above as the best way to break up the practice of some justices in "pulling" houses of ill fame and gambling resorts merely for the revenue there is in it for themselves without even a consideration of justice. Another important matter acted upon by the board was the refusal to pay the Register's bill for $750 for printing this year's list of delinquent tax payers. The bill heretofore has always been between $250 and $450 and the board could not see its way clear to pay the enormous increase. The bids for the publication of these names were received from the Register and the News only, the former being $750 and the latter $775. The Intelligencer was not asked to put in a bid.

Clerk Moffat's report showed the bills of the various committees as follows: Road and bridge, $2,490 15; Court house and jail, $43 85; Poor house and farm, $21 82; Contingent poor fund, $24 48; Finance, $1,704 89.

The amount remaining to the credit of the different districts on account of local road tax is: Liberty district, $1,421 20; Highland district, $70 05; Philadelphia district, $311 97; Ritchie, $28 45.

The report of the finance committee credited the sheriff with county orders returned amounting to $11,678 56. The superintendent of the poor house and farm reported cash receipts in the last month $728. The inmates at the institution for the month were as follows: White males, fifty-four; white females, seventeen; colored males, five; total, seventy-six. Three deaths occurred during the month. The poor house and farm committee asked that it be empowered to advertise for bids for an addition to the hospital wing of the infirmary. It is proposed to build a three-story building, 35x45 feet.

The report of the committee appointed by Judge Campbell to examine the jail, was referred to the court house and jail committee. County Physician Dr. W. P. McGrall rendered his report for the fiscal year ending May 30. Number of office visits during the year, 131; visits, 1,191; persons receiving medical aid, 267; number of new cases, 146; lunacy examinations during the year, twenty; postmortem examinations, two; births, six; deaths ten.

The county librarian reported having 5,524 volumes in his possession. W. Frankfort, of Philadelphia district, claims damages to the amount of $50 to $75 for the loss incurred by the changing of road. His claim was referred to the committee on bridges.

The prosecuting attorney was instructed to make out a deed for the transfer of the Bethany toll house property to George W. Woods in consideration of $1,100, the figure fixed by the appraisers. Sheriff Franzheim returned the delinquent tax list for the year ending May 20. It was referred to the finance committee.

The annual tax ordinance was considered and the levy was fixed at fifty cents on $100 valuation, and road tax at twenty-five cents on $100 valuation. No change was made in the old rate. The contract for painting the court rooms was awarded to Ross T. Chew, his bid being $100.

Bargains advertisement with illustrations of a man looking through an opera glass and a woman looking through a hand mirror. Text: Judging by the way some merchants advertise their bargains, they must look at them with an opera glass. In reality, with the suspicions of the public leveled at them, they appear thus: Our prices stand the cool investigation of the naked eye of every fair buyer and the goods we handle are the best.
