THE ASSEMBLY

Of Epworthians at Bethesda Opens for the Summer Today.

THE PROGRAMME IS THE BEST

Ever Outlined for This Popular Resort. It includes the Names of Many Distinguished Men, including Dr. Talmage, Dr. Nourse, Dr. Feland and Others. Many Improvements Have Been Made at Epworth Park—Wheeling Has a Large Delegation There.

The sixth annual Chautauquan session of the Epworth Park Assembly, at Bethesda, opens this evening. Addresses will be made by President Judkins, of Barnesville; Superintendent of Instruction D. C. Osborne, of Barnesville; W. S. Rowe, Rev. O. W. Holmes, of Bellaire; Rev. J. R. Keya and others. To-morrow's programme is as follows: 8:30 a. m.—Devotions. 9:30 a. m.—Organization of Classes. 10:30 a. m.—Epworth Parliament. "The Possibilities of the Epworth League," Rev. Alfred Walls. "The League and Revival Work," Rev. W. H. Haverfield. 1:30 p. m.—Oratory and Elocution, Miss Blanche Potter. 2:30 p. m.—Epworth Parliament (Continued). Lecture—"The Literary Work of the League," Rev. O. W. Holmes, D. D. "Sparks from the Epworth Anvil," five-minute voluntary addresses. 4:30 p. m.—Chorus Class, Prof. Clement H. Shaw. 7:00 p. m.—Lecture, "Japan," with 100 grand stereoscopic views, Frank H. Roberson.

The sixth year of the assembly, it is confidently believed, will be accepted as the best in every respect. The programme is more varied; the talent employed is of the highest order, and everything that the most liberal expenditure of means could suggest has been done for the success of the present year. The Epworth Assembly has solved the question of how to combine recreation and religion; the sportive and the spiritual; the colloquial and the reverent; the conventional and the free; the hazy study with the happiest abandonment. The increased patronage of last season has seemed to warrant the larger expenditures of the present season. Hundreds of dollars have been invested in permanent improvements on the grounds, and in extending the area of the park. A thorough system of drainage has been effected; water works have been established; fountains have been erected, and the discomfort of flying dust will be a thing unknown at Epworth park.

The management is well aware that people who come to Epworth Assembly cannot live altogether on lectures and concerts and entertainments, no matter how high they may aspire into the regions of the intellectual. In a word, they recognize that with ordinary people a good stomach is the accompaniment of an active brain. The hotel has been enlarged in dining-room and dormitory, and completely furnished throughout, and will be found equal in culinary excellence to any hotel of like character.

Among the men and women who will appear at Epworth are the Tyrobas Troubadours, Dr. A. W. Lamar, who made such a hit at the Moundsville prohibition assembly; Prof. William H. Dana, in several lectures; J. Edmond V. Cooke, in recitals; Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, of whom it is unnecessary to speak; Rev. M. M. Parkhurst, in charge of the department of Bible study; Miss Blanche Potter, oratory, elocution and physical culture; Miss Minerva Cochran, soloist; Rhineberger Ladies' Quartette; Rev. Z. T. Sweeney, Rev. Robert Nourse, Dr. Samuel Phelps Leland and many others.

KILLED ON THE RIVER.

Ephraim Haines' death at Louisville—To be Buried Here.

Nathan Haines, of Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., was in Martin's Ferry yesterday and brought with him a telegram dated Madison, Ind., August 3, stating that his son, Ephraim Haines, was dead. Mr. Haines had received a letter dated Louisville, Ky., last Friday, saying they were on their way up the river and in this letter nothing was said about sickness. The boat is the saw mill boat Clipper and is owned by Nathan Haines and his son Ephraim. The deceased had charge of the boat while on this trip and it is supposed that he was killed on the boat or drowned. No particulars were given. The telegram simply stated that Ephraim was dead and asking what should be done with the remains. The body is expected to arrive at Martin's Ferry to-day, and the interment will be there.

The deceased was about thirty-five years old. He was married to Miss Estella Jones, of Martin's Ferry, about three years ago, who is at her home at the present time. The deceased was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge of Point Pleasant and was well known hereabouts. The Martin's Ferry Knights of Pythias will have charge of the funeral.

For space in sleeping cars apply to J. G. Tomlinson, agent Pennsylvania lines.

THE whole system is drained and undetermined, unbroken, unobscured and open. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve speedily heals them. It is the best pile cure known. Charles R. Goetze, corner Twelfth and Market streets; Bowie & Co., Bridgeport; Peabody & Son, Benwood.

Atlantic City Excursion.

Thursday, August 6, $10 round trip from Wheeling via Pennsylvania Lines. All rail route, Wheeling to the Sea. For time of trains, sleeping car accommodations, etc., apply to J. G. Tomlinson, or John Daille, Pennsylvania lines ticket agents, Wheeling.

SINCE 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera. Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages, this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proven it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints.

IF you have ever seen a little child in the agony of summer complaint, you can realize the danger of the trouble and appreciate the value of instantaneous relief afforded by DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure. For dysentery and diarrhoea, it is a reliable remedy, and could not afford to be dispensed as a cure unless it were a cure. Charles R. Goetze, corner Twelfth and Market streets; Bowie & Co., Bridgeport; Peabody & Son, Benwood.

SHE DID NOT KNOW HIM.

The Alleged Massachusetts Wife of Adam Miller Fails to Identify Him as Her Husband and an Interesting Case Ends.

On the 21st of last May a Pole, Adam Miller, married a pretty young girl of his own nationality named Elaina Posky, and there was quite a reception to the young couple by their many Polish friends in this city. A short time after, however, rumors were rife among their class that Miller was a bigamist and that he had a wife living in Massachusetts. How this report got out no one seems to know, but it is understood that relatives of the bride saw a description of a wife deserter in a Polish paper and as it answered that of Miller, it was soon the topic of conversation in Polish society circles. The result was that on July 23, Miller was arrested on a warrant sworn out before Squire Phillips by Frank Mingley, who, by the way, is the step-father of the bride. Miller has been in jail ever since and yesterday afternoon the hearing took place.

In the meantime the alleged wife, living in Newton Falls, Mass., was telegraphed for and yesterday she was the star witness in the case. The Justice's office was well filled with the natives of Poland, Messrs. Dryden and Robinson were the attorneys for the defendant, who "wore a worried look" as Lieutenant Ingram brought him in. An interpreter was necessary and Mrs. Josef Labek, the alleged deserted wife, was taken to the stand. She was asked if she recognized the prisoner and answered that she did not, and in her own language informed the court that she didn't remember ever having seen him before. The squire took her word for it and the case was dismissed. The bride is satisfied that she is the only Mrs. Miller, and her step-father is sorry that he spoke, so the case ended.

MARSHALL TEACHERS

Continue the Sessions of Their Institute. The Day's Work.

The Marshall county teachers' institute at Moundsville yesterday morning was opened by singing "Nearer, my God, to Thee," followed by prayer by Prof. A. L. Wade, of Morgantown. Another hymn was sung, after which Prof. Wade, who was instructor of the institute twenty years ago, was introduced and addressed the institute, stating that a vast improvement had taken place in institute work in those years.

The roll call indicated 202 teachers were present. Prof. Douthat taught the first class of the morning in language by showing various ways of letter writing. A lively discussion on the subject followed which took the time until recess. Following recess, Prof. Schaeffer explained fully in an address the subject of primary arithmetic. After a song, adjournment was taken for dinner. The weather of the afternoon was exceedingly warm and the teachers were slow in assembling. Waltman T. Barbe, of the state university, arrived. He spoke enthusiastically in the interest of West Virginia's educational institutions from their earliest history and of the work accomplished. At this juncture very appropriately came in the song, "The Star Spangled Banner." "History of Education" from its beginning in ancient Greece was handled by Prof. Schaeffer. He spoke of the establishment of the first library by Julius Caesar. Prof. J. T. King talked on his favorite theme, "Civil Government." The manner of conducting class recitations was in charge of Prof. B. F. Jones, of Bellaire. In the evening Prof. Douthat lectured to a large audience.

AT MOZART PARK

Dockstader's Minstrels in Drawing Large Audiences—A Change of Programme.

The programme to be rendered by Dockstader's minstrels at Mozart park to-night will be changed entirely from that of the performances given heretofore. New jokes will be "sprung" and new songs will be sung by the popular blackface artists who make up the company.

Last night a large crowd was present and enjoyed the entertainment immensely. The first part is one of the best ever given in Wheeling and is clean cut and free from any objectionable features. The olio is a challenge one and many splendid specialties are introduced. The afterpiece is a very funny one and introduces the entire company.

The pavilion is arranged with seats in an elegant manner and everybody can see all that is going on. Special stage settings are used in the performance and nothing is left undone to make the performance thoroughly enjoyable throughout. Only three more performances will be given, the engagement ending Friday night.

To Cleanse the System

Effectually yet gently, when constive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently overcome habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds, or fevers, use Syrup of Figs.
