

JUDGE HERVEY.

The Brilliant Brooke County Lawyer was Nominated

BY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Of the First Judicial District After a Battle of Ballots (that lasted several) Hours, Judge Paul, of this City, Had Been Nominated Previously by Acclamation.

Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock the convention of the Republicans of the First Judicial District was held in the chamber of Part I of the circuit court, in this city.

The convention performed a graceful act when it nominated by acclamation Judge Joseph R. Paul, of this city. As the gentlemen who placed him before the convention and seconded the nomination said, Judge Paul had achieved distinction on the bench and deserved a re-nomination.

Judge Campbell was not a candidate for a re-nomination, and the votes cast for him yesterday were cast without his knowledge or consent.

The nomination was contested by Mr. B. F. Meighen, of Marshall; William Erskine, of Ohio, and H. C. Hervey, of Brooke. The latter won after an exciting battle that ended shortly before midnight.

Mr. Hervey, the nominee of the convention, is the acknowledged leader of the Brooke county bar. Four years ago he made a brilliant canvass for election as state senator, but was defeated in an off year for the Republicans by Mr. Tarr, of Brooke.

The speaker eloquently pleaded for the nomination of his candidate.

Hancock was silent.

When Hancock county was called Mr. Marshall said Hancock had nothing to say at that time.

Marshall was next called, and Mr. Josiah Sinclair, of Denwood, addressed the convention in behalf of Mr. B. F. Meighen, of Moundsville. All the qualifications for the office are possessed by Marshall's candidate, said Mr. Sinclair.

Since admitted to practice law in 1855, he has enjoyed a large practice in Marshall and adjoining counties.

Mr. W. M. Dunlap, of Ohio county, was next heard and nominated Mr. William Erskine, of Ohio. County lines should not be considered, fitness for the office should sway the convention.

A ballot was then ordered. Hancock delayed voting and Mr. Hubbard objected to this "playing for position."

Mr. Bradley, of Hancock, retorted sharply. Mr. McDonald, a Cameron delegate in the Marshall delegation, objected to the announcement of Marshall's solid vote for Meighen.

On the eighteenth ballot all the votes had been cast as on the previous one, but before the secretary was ready to read the result, Mr. Erskine and Hancock began changing to Campbell and the ballot as finally announced resulted as follows:

of the Marshall delegation that had refused to support Meighen and again it looked as though the Ohio county lawyer would be nominated, but when the footings were made, he was short a fraction over one vote. The ballot in detail:

Sixteenth ballot—Meighen, 743; Hervey, 2616; Erskine, 5232; Campbell, 9.

Seventeenth ballot—Meighen, 2732; Hervey, 1967; Erskine, 51; Campbell, 7.

Would Not Adjourn. After the seventeenth ballot had been taken the Herveyites moved to adjourn until morning, but the storm of opposition which greeted the suggestion showed that the convention had no disposition to do anything of the kind.

There was very little change in the total votes of any of the candidates, and Ohio county's vote was steadily given for Erskine and 17 for Hervey.

A Stampede to Campbell. On the eighteenth ballot all the votes had been cast as on the previous one, but before the secretary was ready to read the result, Mr. Erskine and Hancock began changing to Campbell and the ballot as finally announced resulted as follows:

The nineteenth ballot decided the fight and it was an exciting one from beginning to end. The secretary began calling the counties and Brooke made the first break by casting seven votes for Judge Campbell and Hancock gave him seven.

Before adjourning, the chairman appointed the following committee to notify Judge Paul and Mr. Hervey of their nomination: Messrs. Oliver Marshall, of Hancock; H. H. Cotton, of Brooke; W. P. Hubbard, of Ohio, and Josiah Sinclair, of Marshall.

The result of the convention met with popular approval all over the city and even those delegates who had voted for some of the other candidates were well pleased that so well equipped a gentleman should be placed on the ticket.

There are no sore heads, and although the conference became quite heated at times the fight was made in a friendly spirit. The ballot before Brooke changed to her favorite son, Mr. Hervey, was as follows:

The Brooke county delegation, to whose untiring and effective work Mr. Hervey owes his success in yesterday's convention, was made up of the following gentlemen: Chairman, H. H. Cotton; secretary, Charles McCamie; George W. McCleary, J. F. Criss, Samuel Jacob, T. H. Marks, W. M. Werlein, R. G. Scott, Messrs. McCleary and Cotton were particularly active.

Electric Bitters. Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver torpid, the stomach sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt.

THEORIES of cure may be discussed at length by physicians, but the sufferers want quick relief, and One Minute Cough Cure will give it to them. A safe, reliable, and efficacious remedy that produces immediate results.

RESCUED.

On Lake Erie's Shores—The Captain's Wife Tells the Story—It Will Interest Many People.

From the Buffalo Evening News: If you were to call at 27 Front avenue you would find a pleasant elderly lady, Mrs. Captain Hensley by name, whose husband has hailed the lakes for many a year, and when in port makes his home in Buffalo, N. Y.

Her own words can better describe her rescue and one can easily understand her present happy condition when they realize what she has gone through.

"About five months ago I had an attack of sickness which lasted for a week and since that time I have been subject at intervals to similar attacks, some of which were longer in duration. It is hard for me to describe how I suffered.

The pain would commence in my head, after which it would seem to pass down my body and settle in my back, my sides ached, my back ached, and I had a feeling of great distress in my bowels.

The increased pain which seemed to come from lying down, would be almost unbearable, my face and stomach would bloat up and I could hardly stand on my feet, dizziness made it almost impossible; this feeling was always with me even after the violence of the attack passed over.

The increased pain which seemed to come from lying down, would be almost unbearable, my face and stomach would bloat up and I could hardly stand on my feet, dizziness made it almost impossible; this feeling was always with me even after the violence of the attack passed over.
