

THE THURSTON Meeting on the South Side To-Morrow Night will be Big. THE VICE-PRESIDENTS NAMED

Yesterday by the County Committee—Mr. Morris Horkheimer will preside at this meeting—all the arrangements are completed—There will be a big turn out of clubs—News of the Political Clubs—Governor Atkinson and Mr. Burdette speak in the East End.

The meeting on the La Belle pottery grounds, corner of Thirty-first and Jacob streets, South Side, to-morrow evening, which will be addressed by the brilliant Nebraska senator, John M. Thurston, will undoubtedly be one of the largest meetings of this campaign. Interest has been aroused in all of the neighboring communities, including the over-the-river towns, which will be represented by large delegations.

The street demonstration that will precede the meeting, will be participated in by nearly every Republican club in the city. The clubs will assemble at the corner of Chapline and Twelfth streets at 7:15 p. m.

The officials are as follows: Chief Marshal—Dr. H. B. Baguley. Chief of Staff—Dr. L. N. Reifer.

- Aids: Hal Spindel, Dr. R. J. Reed, Wm. McCormick, Jerry Crawford, Harry Whitaker, Joseph C. Brady, Thomas Prince, Wm. R. McWhorter, H. F. Behrens, Jr., H. M. Thatcher, H. Hildebrand, H. C. Strang, A. S. List, Kilbourne List, J. A. Lancaster, W. F. Schaefer, Charles Bachman, Dr. Wm. Petrie, Wm. Schwetfeger, Dr. D. Thompson, Charles Selbert, James Callahan, Dr. D. H. Best, R. S. McHenry, Dr. M. A. McHenry, George Zwickler, Wm. H. Cassell, H. C. Whelan, H. C. Helmer, W. L. Frisell, H. Baer.

The Elkins Cadets will lead the line, followed by the Tariff Champions. They will come to the other clubs, who will be assigned positions as they arrive. The line of march will be as follows: From corner of Twelfth and Chapline streets to Market, to Tenth, to Main, to Twelfth, to Market, to Twentieth, to Chapline, to Thirty-first, to Jacob, where the meeting will be held.

The county committee met yesterday afternoon and named the organization for the Thurston meeting, as follows:

- Chairman—Morris Horkheimer. Vice President—E. Seybold. Mayor B. F. Caldwell. James P. Maxwell, George W. Cornell, Wm. McK. Day, Charles S. Brilles, Fred Shaub, W. A. West, John Walcott, Conrad Davis, Aug. Marshner, Thomas Carr, E. Seybold, Wm. F. Grabe, H. Dannenberg, Jr., Jacob Detweiler, H. C. Strang, C. Kalbitzer, George Bowers, Jr., John Frew, Adolph Knapp, Dr. D. H. Taylor, G. H. Medick, Capt. Thomas Davison, Edward Moore, Capt. W. H. Travis, Henry Meyer, Henry Kern, Wm. L. Rogers, G. M. Gurdock, John W. Schultz, E. P. Wheat, George S. Johnson, A. F. Ebeling, Warren Raymond, David Evans, Dr. B. H. Silladay, William H. Helder, William Keenic, Samuel Johnson, George H. Helder, C. D. Thompson, T. C. Moffat, Albert Conrad, Wm. H. Helder, Stephen Deviney, H. F. Behrens, Andrew Hare, Chas. F. Bachman, George Helder, P. M. Rhodes, J. A. Jefferson, Otto Tyson, Edward Bauer, Wm. P. McKelvey, Myron Hubbard, Herman Zwickler, Adam Hawkfield, W. H. Hearne, H. J. Devere, Ralph Whitehead, Dr. F. Ford, Samuel Kraus, Dr. John C. Hupp, C. H. Watkins, Jr., James McAdams, J. A. Frazier, George Schenck, Joseph A. Paris, Sam Brubaker.

The stand where the speaking will occur will be built near the pottery building. There is ample space for the assembly of a great throng of people. Three arc lights will be placed on the stand, giving plenty of illumination.

ATKINSON AND BURDETTE

Were the Speakers at the Clay-Union Club's Meeting Last Night—Both Made Masterly Addresses.

The Republicans of Clay and Union districts organized a club last night at Bischoff's hall, on Eighteenth street, and over 150 names were signed to the roll. The club proceeded at once to elect officers, the result of which was as follows: President—James A. Dunning. Secretary—Thomas McGrath. Treasurer—Raymond Bauer.

Vice Presidents—W. H. Haller, P. B. Dobbins, Otto Cappel, Richard Robertson, Thomas G. Britt, Hermann Hess.

Committee of Arrangements—William H. Haller, William Hornish, S. G. Smith, Harry Hoeking, Charles Meder, Cella Merck. At the conclusion of the election of officers, the crowd was addressed by Hon. Sam Burdette, of Charleston, and Hon. G. W. Atkinson, Republican candidate for governor, both of whom held the attention of the audience for several hours. The meeting was a most successful one in every particular. About 500 enthusiastic voters were present and listened to the addresses of the distinguished speakers with marked attention. The meeting was called to order by the president of the club, Capt. James A. Dunning, who in a brief speech introduced as the first speaker Mr. Sam Burdette, of Charleston, that gentleman as he arose was greeted by hearty applause. When it had subsided he began by paying a very high compliment to Hon. G. W. Atkinson, the Republican candidate for governor, whom, he said, he had known for years and was glad to say he never knew anything that was not to his credit. He said that although Ohio county claimed him as her favorite son also, he was born in that county and he was glad to inform the voters of Ohio county that old Kanawha county would roll up its greatest majority for McKinley, Atkinson and protection in November. The speaker's allusions to the popular governor was loudly applauded, and cheers for Atkinson were kept up for several minutes. Mr. Burdette then took up the issues of the campaign and in his own eloquent style dissected the Popocratic platform to the queen's taste. He spoke of the Popocrats and their convention held in Chicago and read opinions from the Democratic press on the action of the convention in repudiating the old time doctrines of the party. He called attention to the number of prominent Democratic leaders who had repudiated the repudiators and said it was even too rank for William L. Wilson, the former leading light of the party, to stand, and he had to go to Europe. The speaker referred to the condition of the country before the Democrats got hold of the government and what it was one year after Cleveland and a Democratic Congress assumed charge of the affairs. The Democrats knew they could not hope for success under the banner of free trade, so they took up another fad in the hope of deceiving the people, but the people were not to be fooled. The "crime of 1873" came in for considerable attention, and Mr. Burdette showed his audience that the alleged crime was not so horrible as the Popocratic friends tried to make out. He read extracts from speeches delivered in the United States senate in favor of the ministration have changed their minds and the majority of them everywhere will vote this year for McKinley and protection. They had an enthusiastic meeting last night at the B. B. Davenport Club room and elect their officers as follows: A. G. Huff, president; J. Kuenski and F. Jigenski, vice presidents; Frank Lenandvick, secretary; J. Jansenski, treasurer; M. Andro, banner carrier; M. Vikinski, marshal, and G. Timenovski, door-keeper. They will meet there every two weeks until election.

The Elkins Cadets will hold an important business meeting this evening, to arrange for the Thurston meeting escort; also, to make arrangements for a trip to Canton. Measurements will be taken for uniforms at this meeting and it is important that every one who desires to join the club should do so at once.

Hon. Sam C. Burdette.

"Crime" by Senators Stewart and Jones, who are now among the leaders in the free silver movement, but then that was before they became interested as owners of silver mines. While riding on a train the other day the speaker said he had read the speech of Col. Arnett, in which he said before the crime of '73 had been committed silver and gold were on a parity and that the very currency bill was passed silver was sold at 101. And then Mr. Burdette asked how one metal could be on a parity with the other when one was lower than the other. (Laughter.)

It was at this juncture that the speaker sprung a sensation on the audience in the shape of a letter which had been handed to him by Mr. Fred T. Rothwell, president of a very large coal company, organized and doing business in Kanawha county, from one of the largest iron manufacturing establishments in Virginia, in regard to a renewal of contracts for the coming year. The letter reads as follows:

GENERAL OFFICE, FURNACES AND MINES, THE LOW MOOR IRON COMPANY OF VIRGINIA. H. C. MERRY, General Manager. LOW MOOR, Va., Aug. 23, 1896. Fred T. Rothwell, Pres., Nuttalsburg, W. Va.

DEAR SIR—The question of our coal supply was thoroughly discussed at the recent meeting of the board of directors of this company, and it was decided that owing to the present depressed condition of the iron business and the uncertainty that hangs over the immediate future, we would do nothing in the way of building the furnaces at Covington, or starting the furnace at this place, until after the election. If McKinley is elected and business brightens, we will be glad to take the matter up with you again.

(Signed) H. C. MERRY, General Manager.

The reading of the above drew forth thunderous applause, and as there were forty coal miners present, it gave them food for thought, and all of them agreed that it was but a sample of the many communications received by mine operators and manufacturers of all classes every day.

Mr. Burdette closed his speech in a brilliant and eloquent appeal to the workmen to stand by the party of protection and honest money, and the applause which was given him finished showed how well the crowd enjoyed his masterful argument.

Governor Atkinson Speaks. At the conclusion of Mr. Burdette's address, President Dunning, of the club, introduced Hon. G. W. Atkinson, the next governor of West Virginia, who was received with enthusiastic cheers as he arose to address the audience. He said he did not intend to keep the crowd together much later, but as he had been requested to make a few remarks he would do so after the style of the exhorter who follows the preacher at a meeting. His remarks were of a scattering nature, and he proceeded and spoke for about three quarters of an hour, and in that time made one of the best speeches of his life. He met every issue fairly and squarely, and every person present at that night's meeting, knows just where he stands on every one of them.

He spoke of the interest the people are taking in this campaign. Men who have never before attended political meetings or listened to arguments, are out this year at every meeting. The people are aroused. They know that the country's integrity is at stake, and the prosperity of the nation as well. The issue, and the only issue, will be the Republican ticket, and every one of them has found it a rank failure, and still the Democratic party wants to force it on the voters of the United States as an issue. Mr. Atkinson closed with an appeal to the workmen to stand by their guns and defeat the effort to "demonize" labor. He was frequently interrupted with applause, and at the close of his address the chairman announced that the Clay-Union club would meet every Monday night at Bischoff's hall and invited everybody to attend. The club will meet at the Odd Fellows' hall to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of participating in the big Thurston escort.

POYS BETTER WAGES.

In comparing gold standard countries and free silver nations, he showed that in every country in the world having a gold standard, the wages of its working classes were two and three times higher than those paid in countries having the silver standard. The free silver idea has been tried by almost every nation in the world and every one of them has found it a rank failure, and still the Democratic party wants to force it on the voters of the United States as an issue. Mr. Atkinson closed with an appeal to the workmen to stand by their guns and defeat the effort to "demonize" labor. He was frequently interrupted with applause, and at the close of his address the chairman announced that the Clay-Union club would meet every Monday night at Bischoff's hall and invited everybody to attend. The club will meet at the Odd Fellows' hall to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of participating in the big Thurston escort.

THE POLITICAL SPHERE.

News of the Clubs—Preparing for the Big Thurston Meeting.

The Poles of this city have organized themselves into a political body to support the McKinley ticket. They have organized a Republican club, its members, under the name of Kosciuszko. They have voted all the times before the Democratic ticket, but hard times under Grover Cleveland's administration have changed their minds and the majority of them everywhere will vote this year for McKinley and protection. They had an enthusiastic meeting last night at the B. B. Davenport Club room and elect their officers as follows: A. G. Huff, president; J. Kuenski and F. Jigenski, vice presidents; Frank Lenandvick, secretary; J. Jansenski, treasurer; M. Andro, banner carrier; M. Vikinski, marshal, and G. Timenovski, door-keeper. They will meet there every two weeks until election.

The Elkins Cadets will hold an important business meeting this evening, to arrange for the Thurston meeting escort; also, to make arrangements for a trip to Canton. Measurements will be taken for uniforms at this meeting and it is important that every one who desires to join the club should do so at once.

The uniforms for the Tariff Champions will arrive to-morrow at noon and all who desire them for the turnout can secure them at the Hub. The whole outfit will cost but $1.95.

JORDAN AND McLURE

Are the Democratic Nominees in the First Judicial District—Marshall Had Two Candidates.

The Democratic conferees of the First judicial district, met yesterday afternoon in the Peabody building for the purpose of selecting candidates for judge of the circuit court. Mr. John J. Jacob, of Liberty district, was chosen chairman and Mr. J. D. Crawford, of this city, secretary. The first business was the placing in nomination of names for judges. Ohio county named Louis S. Jordan, ex-judge of the criminal court, who was seconded by Brooke county, and was chosen as one of the candidates by acclamation. For the second place, Marshall county came up with two candidates, J. B. McLure and C. R. Oldham. One ballot was all that was required to nominate Mr. McLure receiving 24 2-5 votes and Oldham 23 3-5.

The following executive committee was chosen: Hon. J. B. Sommeville, of Ohio; J. D. Barrett, Marshall; J. C. Palmer, Brooke, and F. W. Stewart, of Hancock. There were no resolutions and it is a notable fact that the gentlemen nominated above are all favorable to sound money and against the free silver platform adopted by the Chicago convention.

If you have ever seen a little child in the agony of summer complaint, you can realize the danger of the trouble and appreciate the value of instant relief always afforded by DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure. For dysentery and diarrhoea it is a reliable remedy. We could not afford to recommend this as a cure unless it were a cure. Charles R. That Tired Feeling

Makes you seem "all broken up," without life, ambition, energy or appetite. It is often the forerunner of serious illness, or the accompaniment of nervous troubles. It is a positive proof of thin, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life and energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. The necessity of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling is therefore apparent to every one, and the good it will do you is equally beyond question. Remember
