AN OBJECT LESSON

Which Convinced a Democrat of the Fallacy of Free Silver.

WELL KNOWN BRIDGEPORT MAN

Now Wears a McKinley Button and Tells Why He Does It—A Trip to Canada and What Came of It—Mr. Cowden Makes Assignments of Speakers—Organization of the Six-Footers—What the Clubs are Doing—General Political News.

The Evening Times, of Martin's Ferry, Ohio, publishes the following interesting note concerning a well known Bridgeport citizen's change of views on the currency question after a visit to Canada:

"August Brettenstein and family, of Bridgeport, returned last evening from an extended trip through Canada. Gus has all his life been a red hot Democrat, and even when the party declared for free silver gold and what is called Democratic, he still adhered to the party of his youth. But a great change has come over Gus. On his trip through Canada he found that for the first time in his history our silver money was not as good as gold and was only taken at a discount, all on account of the threatened legislation in regard to our standard of money. Gus says he wants nothing to do with the party that would debase our money and make it subject to a discount every time he crosses the boundary line. He knows better by facts, and will hereafter be found supporting what the Popocrats choose to call the Wall street gold bugs."

Mr. Kilson, of the state Republican committee headquarters, and who had charge of the Republican booth at the state fair, states to the Intelligencer that Mr. Brettenstein was one of the numerous callers at the booth yesterday and confirmed the above statement from the Martin's Ferry paper. On being presented with a McKinley button Mr. Brettenstein accepted the gift and expressed his determination to work earnestly for the ticket and the principles represented by the candidates.

In his conversation at the booth Mr. Brettenstein, who is a butcher and large owner of real estate in the vicinity of Bridgeport, stated that when he visited Canada he took several kinds of money with him, including about 1400 in gold, all of which he had in exchange for silver, he had no difficulty in getting rid of without discount. He said that the possibility of the success of the free silver party at the polls in November was a great menace to our present and future prosperity, and during his journey through the eastern states he found the money question the all absorbing topic of discussion among business men and all classes generally.

While Mr. Brettenstein was in Canada he noticed that in Montreal the street car companies had signs posted conspicuously in their cars, containing the following inscription:

"American silver dollars will not be received by this company after August 15, 1896."

This shows that in Canada they are not taking the risk of the election going for Bryan and the possibility of the immediate depreciation of our silver money. In Toronto, of the same province, when Mr. Brettenstein purchased silver half dollars of the United States issue for forty cents. Our gold and paper money representing gold, passes dollar for dollar in Canada.

Mr. Simon Keim, a brother-in-law of Mr. Brettenstein, and a life-long Democrat, has taken a position for sound money and there are many others in that community who are awaiting a favorable opportunity to declare themselves.

Assistant Secretary Cowden, of the state committee, has been busy the past week assigning speakers to various counties throughout the state. During the balance of this month the state will be thronged with speakers, and the palm orators, as will be seen by the list of speakers and their assignments, which are as follows:

Judge A. W. Tenny, of Brooklyn, who campaigned through this state with Blaine in 1876, will speak at Morgantown September 25; Fairmont, 29; Sutton, 30; Buckhannon, October 1; Clarksburg, 2; Parkersburg, 3.
Hon. John Jarrett, of Pittsburgh, will speak at Piedmont September 21; Elk Garden, 22; Thomas, 23; Elkins, 24; Belington, 25; Monongah, 26.
Congressman John Dalzell, of Pittsburgh, at Bramwell September 25; Huntington, 26.
Hon. Y. B. Doolivar, of Iowa, at Keyser September 19.
Hon. David Healy, of New York, and Hon. P. B. Laird, of Brooklyn, at Lantzville, Brooke county, September 14; Elm Grove, 15; some place in Marshall county 16 and 17; Hundred, 18, and Metcher, 19.
Hon. Sam C. Burdette, at Monongah September 14; Shinnston, 15; Bolmont, 17; Sistersville, 18, and Parkersburg, 19.
Capt. B. B. Dovenor's assignments are as follows: New Cumberland September 15; Clarksburg, 16; Wehburg, 17; Troy, Gilmer county, 19, afternoon; Alum Bridge, 19, evening; Churchville, Lewis afternoon; Berlin, 23, afternoon; Homer, 23, evening; Collins, 24, afternoon; Jane Lew, 25, night; Big Isaac, Elbridge county, 26, afternoon; Salers, Harrison county, 28, night; Centre Point, 29, afternoon; West Union, 30, afternoon; Sommer's Store, October 1, afternoon; Leopold, October 1, night; New Milton, 2, afternoon; West Milford, 2, night; Roman's Mills, 2, afternoon; Bridgeport, W. Va., 2, night.

The Republican county committee has rented the hall in the Odd Fellows' building for the use of clubs in the campaign, and all clubs desiring to meet there should notify Chairman Hall at once, so that the evenings assigned to the various clubs will not conflict.

At the state Republican headquarters at 1205 Chapline street, a quantity of literature treating of the money issue, printed in the German language, is ready for free distribution. All those desiring documents can have them on application, either by mail or in person. Any one sending literature bearing on any issue of the campaign, in either English or German print, can obtain it by application. Those in charge of the committee rooms welcome such applications and an accommodating course of them is present to attend to the wants of all visitors.

What bids fair to be the most attractive campaign marching club in Wheeling was organized permanently last night at the city building, and when they are uniformed and turned out for the first time the people will be astonished. The club referred to is the six-foot Republicans of Ohio county, who met last night and adopted their permanent officers and adopted their uniforms. Temporary Chairman Frank Gilbreath called the meeting to order and Temporary Secretary J. D. Hall read the minutes of the last meeting. Upon motion, it was decided to elect the H. C. Richards Six-footers of Wheeling.

The following permanent officers were then elected: President, Frank Gilbreath; secretary, John D. Hall; treasurer, William McCannan; captain, David Lewis; first lieutenant, L. E. second lieutenant, William Taylor; third lieutenant, A. C. Acker; first sergeant, Phil Jones.

The meeting was addressed by Messrs. H. C. Richards, Richard Robertson and Addison Lewis, and much enthusiasm was displayed.

The uniform adopted consists of a tall shako, military full dress coat and white duck trousers. Each man will carry a sword. Any one sending two members have already signed the roll and when they are equipped and drilled will make a striking appearance.

The club will meet at the city building again Monday evening for drill and to award the contract for furnishing the uniforms. All persons desirous of joining the club should be present at this meeting.

The Big McKinley Meeting.

From special advices from Santon, O., the big McKinley meeting on the 18th will be a mighty affair. There will be one of the largest gatherings of great speakers ever at a political meeting. Among those already secured are Senator Cullom, of Illinois; Senator Thurston, of Nebraska; Senator McCrorey, of Minnesota; ex-Governor Hastings, of Pennsylvania, and Governor Bushnell, of Ohio. Several others of the most famous speakers in the party are being arranged for and will be announced as secured. The meeting will be an outdoor meeting, at 2:30 p. m., Friday, the 18th. The Wheeling & Lake Erie railway have completed arrangements for a special low rate excursion for this occasion, starting from Wheeling and running direct to Canton without any changes whatsoever. The rate has been put at a low figure, within the means of all, and no doubt a large number will avail themselves of this opportunity to attend this great meeting and see Major McKinley.

PRINTED THE FIRST COPY

Of the Wheeling Intelligencer—Death of Zacharias Beatty, Formerly of Wheeling, at Galesburg, Illinois.

The Intelligencer has reached this city in the death of Mr. Zacharias Beatty, formerly of Wheeling, in Galesburg, Illinois, where he has resided for many years. On the occasion of a visit to the World's Fair he contracted a cold which resulted in a chronic ailment that caused his death last Tuesday.

Mr. Beatty will be remembered by some of the very old residents of Wheeling. He was born in Guernsey county, Ohio, the name of which was given by Mr. Beatty's parents, who came to America from the island of Guernsey. Early in life he adopted journalism as his life work, and was on many papers of the west. For some time he has been editor of the Galesburg (Illa.) Republican-Register. A sketch in that paper says:

"In 1852 Mr. Beatty found himself again in Wheeling and printed the first number of the Wheeling Intelligencer, of which he became proprietor and editor. He became disgusted, however, because nothing could be done without consulting the question of slavery. This was the more singular as there were not over a dozen slaves in the county; and yet the people were as much influenced by slavery as though all of the labor was slave."

AMUSEMENTS.

The evening of hypnotism at the Opera House last night drew a rather small audience, but everybody in the house enjoyed himself. The subjects Prof. Day had on the stage were more numerous than on any other evening of the engagement, and as a result the fun was fast and furious for two hours. The races on imaginary bicycles and horses were side-splitting and the interest of Wheeling and the drop into Lake Erie were most realistic. Mrs. Day, wife of the hypnotist, was placed under the influence and sang "I'm Boli," in a Trilby. The professor desired to hypnotize a Wheeling lady, but this was found to be impossible. The engagement concludes this evening. A feature will be a minstrel performance, which should furnish plenty of amusement.

The Waldm Speciality Company will appear at the Grand Opera House this afternoon and will close a most successful week's engagement to-night. The show is a great one and has been delighting large audiences all week. The acts introduced are all new and of the most striking character, and every performer does his or her work well. The Olfans' three headed and three legged nondescript act is one of the funniest ever seen in Wheeling, and it keeps the audience in a roar of merriment. The cats, dogs, and monkeys so cleverly trained by Mdlle. Carlini are great, and furnish no end of amusement to the crowd. The other specialties are all fine and the house to-day should be packed to see the best speciality company ever seen in Wheeling.

The celebrated Flints come to the Grand Opera House next week and their reputation as hypnotists and pack the theatre at every performance. Their power in that line has startled the whole world, and their work in New York only a few weeks ago will serve to draw large crowds and attract the interest of Wheelingites generally. Hubert Flint stands at the head of the procession in that art. Manager Feinler will not increase the price of admission for this engagement.
