

OPENS TO-NIGHT.

The City Hospital Bazaar Assured of Success.

THE ARRANGEMENTS ELABORATE

For the Bazaar Have Been Made, and the People are Sure to Respond—The Committee Has "Praised the Buttons" and the Public "Will Do the Rest"—Description of the Various Departments of the Bazaar—The Season's Booth Novel Idea.

Arion hall was crowded with many active workers yesterday and amid the numerous carpenters who were at work building the frame work for the booths, were the ladies of the committee of arrangements all industriously engaged in decorating, trimming and designing the decorations for the great City Hospital bazaar, which opens to-night.

Of course, there was confusion and bustle all over the building—and not much of an idea could be formed of what the hall will look like when the hour arrives for the doors to open, but enough could be seen to guarantee that the bazaar will be one of the greatest ever given in Wheeling.

The supper will be served in the dining room on the second floor, where tables will be set and decorated in various colors. The costumes of the young ladies will harmonize with the decorations of the table over which they preside. The various tables will be in charge of the following ladies: Table No. 1, pink decorations—Mrs. George House, Mrs. Howard Hazlett, Mrs. R. M. Baird, Mrs. Z. F. Gibson, Miss Mary Vance, Miss Anna Irwin, Miss Zoe McClure, Mrs. George Ebeling.

Table No. 2, pink decorations—Mrs. Henry Spayer, Mrs. Henry Baer, Mrs. Henry Sonneborn, Mrs. Nettie Hirsch, Mrs. Ralph Kilne, Mrs. A. W. Rice, Mrs. Louis Horkheimer.

Table No. 3, blue decorations—Mrs. M. C. Johnson, Mrs. F. H. Williams, Mrs. W. D. Johnson, Mrs. Thomas Carr, Mrs. Milligan, Mrs. L. Hoze, Mrs. Ben Hill-dreth, Mrs. W. W. Giechris.

Table No. 4, scarlet decorations—Mrs. J. W. Grubb, Mrs. E. C. Ewing, Mrs. Julia Gardner, Miss Madge Johnson, Miss Gussie Wright, Mrs. Dr. Aschman, Mrs. Charles Tancy, Miss Jennie Good, Miss Dickey.

Table No. 5, green decorations—Mrs. T. C. Moffat, Mrs. W. B. Peterson, Mrs. G. B. Caldwell, Mrs. S. Norton, Mrs. Joseph Gibbs.

Upstairs the first feature is the ice cream booth, which will be situated at the head of the stairs, and will be under the supervision of Mrs. J. F. Merriman, assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. Louis Franzell, Mrs. Robert Dargel, Mrs. H. McClure, Mrs. Ott Carothers, Mrs. E. B. Johnson, Mrs. J. J. Johnson, Mrs. Marie McClure, Mrs. Alex. Campbell, Mrs. Matilda Burke, Mrs. Charles Thies.

In the hall proper, "Spring" will occupy the stage, and ample blossoms cover the scenery in profusion and the May pole will be a feature about which happy, merry, romping children will play. In the "Spring" booth will be Mrs. George Wise, Mrs. L. E. Sandis, Mrs. Harry Sandis, Mrs. F. J. Johnson, Mrs. W. J. W. Cowden, Miss Kate Hazlett, Miss Martha List, Miss Lillie Vance, Miss Martha Clark and Miss Speer.

The "Winter" booth is the first on the right hand side of the stage, and, of course, snow and ice will characterize it and the costumes worn by the ladies in charge, who are Mrs. John Moffat, Mrs. Alfred Paul, Mrs. W. W. Irwin, Mrs. George Parks, Miss Sara Cecil, Mrs. Fannie List, Miss Flora Stifel, Miss Marie Datzel.

"Summer" is on the same side and pink and red decorations will reign supreme. This will be under the supervision of Mrs. Morris Horkheimer, Mrs. S. J. Frudlinberg, Miss Mollie Baer, Miss Hattie Reed, Miss Birdie Wolfe, Miss Mary Heyman, Miss Nettie Kraus, Miss Sara Gutman, Miss Ella Stiefel, Miss Flora Kraus.

"Autumn" is represented by a booth covered with corn stalks and corn, all arranged in a most picturesque manner. In the interior is an old fashioned fire place and many rustic chairs in which will be seated the attendants in suitable make-ups. They are Mr. William Tierman, Mrs. James Cummins, Mrs. William Heiler, Mrs. H. H. Harrison, Mrs. A. P. Thomas, Mrs. J. J. Holloway, Miss Lillian Cummins, Miss Jennie Pryor, Miss S. Bates.

The candy booth and smoking booth will be built this morning and will be situated near the door on either side of the hall.

The committee of arrangements consists of Mrs. W. F. Butler, Mrs. L. J. Bayha, Miss Jennie Bailey, Mrs. James Cummins, Mrs. Robert Dargel, Mrs. Louis Franzell, Mrs. Howard Hazlett, Mrs. R. H. List, Miss H. M. List, Mrs. J. F. Merriman, Mrs. J. A. Metcalf, Mrs. C. T. Moffat, Mrs. Alfred Paul, Mrs. Julius Pollock, Mrs. W. B. Peterson, Mrs. Howard Simpson, Mrs. William Stifel, Mrs. William Tierman, and Miss Mary Vance.

The doors will open to-night at supper time and a large crowd may be expected throughout the evening. The kitchen will be in charge of Mrs. Bayha, Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. J. B. Rhodes, Mrs. J. R. Paul, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. G. Lamb, Mrs. R. H. List, Miss Sue Metcalf, Mrs. William Stifel, Miss Gertrude Lamb, Mrs. J. A. Metcalf, Mrs. Cecil Robinson.

The other committees are as follows: Reception committee—Mrs. Mary Deleplain, Mrs. R. H. Skoone, Mrs. W. A. Wilson, Mrs. J. J. Jones, Mrs. C. W. Booklander.

Smoking room—Miss Jeanette Bailey, Mrs. Walter Rinehart, Mrs. A. A. Franzell, Miss Annie Datzel, Miss Ethel Bailey, Miss Gertrude List, Miss Gertrude Fisher.

Candy Booth—Miss Martha Hare, Miss Jennie Copp, Miss Jennie Bloomfield, Miss Mary Dickey.

Charitable—Mrs. A. F. Husted, Mrs. Charles List, Mrs. H. Simpson, Mrs. George Vardy.

Old Folks' Concert—Miss Dee Pollock and Mrs. Frank Hupp.

The refreshment committee will be assisted by the following young ladies: Lucie Ranney, Gene Waterhouse, Laura Datzel, Edna McCourtney, Jennie Johnson, Alice Bates, Fannie Wheat, Fannie Post, Martha Ott, Beale Barkeley, Kate Paul.

For "Good" Citizenship. Much enthusiasm seems to prevail among the young people of the various church societies of the city in regard to the movement that is now in progress for the advancement of temperance and "good" citizenship. Notice was given in the Intelligencer last Thursday morning of a meeting held the evening before in the Y. M. C. A. building, and another meeting will be held in the lecture hall of the same building this evening at 7:30 o'clock. A number of prominent speakers are on the programme for address.

"Slaves of Gold," which comes to the Grand Opera House Thursday, Friday and Saturday, while the play is strong, has interested audiences in startling situations and thrilling effects. It is one of the heroine in order to save her father's life, bursts through a solid glass wall window, and leaps to a branch of a tree, swings thirty feet through space to the burning of the great water tank and the battle for life in the flood between her and a villain. One of the most interesting scenes ever played on a stage is the apple orchard scene with the blossoms in full bloom. The company is headed by Arnold Reeves, a young actor of merit, who is surrounded by a strong company. Reserved seats on sale at the Grand Opera House box office.

A COWARDLY MASSACRE

Of Negro Workmen by a Mob of Arkansas White Men.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 7.—A special to the Democrat from Malvern, Ark., says: What may be regarded as reliable information has just reached here that on last Tuesday afternoon at a point about midway between Camden and Boarden on the line of the cotton belt railroad, occurred one of the most heinous and unprovoked massacres of negroes that has ever blackened the record of that locality.

At the place mentioned, a gang of section men, composed principally of negroes with a white foreman, were engaged in their labor of improving the roadbed, when a gang of unknown persons made their appearance upon the scene and without warning, began to immediately fire into the crowd of helpless and unsuspecting negroes, which resulted in the death of five of them. The foreman claims that he did not recognize any of the assassins. Many believe that he knows who they are, but on account of probability of personal danger to himself, he is afraid to give out any information that would lead to their arrest. The section where these last murders occurred is occupied almost entirely by the saw mills and is filled with white characters.

CREATED A SENSATION.

Mrs. Harford Objects to a Memorial to a Deceased Brewer.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 7.—Mrs. Helen Dickinson Harford, of Oregon, national organizer of the W. C. T. U., has created a sensation while filling the pulpit of the Dundee Methodist Episcopal church, in this city, by denouncing in unmeasured terms, the acceptance by the city of a memorial, to be erected in the center of the city, to the memory of Fred Heim, the brewer, latterly deceased.

The Heim brothers, who succeeded their brother in business, had drawn plans for an imposing structure to be erected to the deceased memory and successfully tendered it to the city officials. In the course of her sermon, Mrs. Harford arraigned the city fathers for their action, alluding to the memorial as a "monument of infamy" and appealed to her congregation to prevent its erection.

TERRIBLE WRECK

On the B. & O. Southwestern—Two Men Killed and Several Injured.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 7.—A disastrous wreck occurred about 8 o'clock this morning about three-quarters of a mile west of Storrs Station on the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern railway, in which two persons were killed and a number injured.

The trains colliding were No. 22, an accommodation, coming in from Cochran, Indiana, and a special made up of a passenger coach and two private cars. The special was carrying all the general officers of the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern road, who were starting out to make a thorough inspection of the road. The engineer and conductor of the special had orders to follow fifteen minutes behind a preceding regular train, and to keep out of the way of train No. 22, which had the right of way.

The engine and conductor both forgot the order concerning that train and pulled out.

When three-quarters of a mile west of Storrs the trains came together. There was a fog which prevented seeing clearly, so neither engineer suspected a collision, until the shock came. Engineer John Price and Fireman Homer Dixon, of the special, were instantly killed. General Traffic Manager George F. Handolph was severely injured, collar bone broken; General Passenger Agent J. M. Chesbrough was thrown through the glass of a door and his face severely cut; L. Zepernick, assistant engineer, riding on train No. 22, was badly bruised. Fred. Moore, chief clerk to the chief engineer of the B. & O., sprained shoulder. Charles E. Whitins, engineer, Lawrenceburg, Indiana, injured; Charles Chapman, brakeman on special, bruised; R. S. Johnson, superintendent telegraph, bruised; Tom Jones, engineer of No. 22, badly hurt; H. H. Sexton, conductor of No. 22; P. Harvey, baggage-master, severely bruised; Mrs. Alex. Patterson, Aurora, Ind., severely hurt.
