QUITE A STIR

Created in Bimetallic Club Meeting by the Appearance of

AN INTELLIGENCER REPORTER

Last Evening—One Member Arose and Objected with Such Force that the Scribe Made Haste to Retire from the August Gathering—Preparing for the Celebration of Jackson Day Next Friday—The Arrangements Detailed.

An Intelligencer scribe very innocently wandered into the camp of the enemy—political enemy, only—last night and he was glad to get out of the scrape alive.

The Bimetallic League (free silver bimetalism) of Wheeling, was holding a meeting for the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted for at the league election next Friday evening and to make arrangements for a celebration of Jackson day on the same evening.

The Intelligencer man started up the aisle to get from the secretary, the accommodating Mr. Thoner, some "points" on the business transacted. A gentleman who was afflicted with an "item," which he wanted to unload, detained the scribe, and an excited member who happened to see the reporter, came to the conclusion that something that boded no good for the Bimetallic League and the cause of free silver was brewing. So, when the newspaper man walked to the secretary's desk, the aforesaid excited individual arose and delivered himself thusly:

"Mr. President—I want to object to the presence here of any Republican reporters."

That was really so funny that the crowd laughed to a man, but the man who was doing the talking couldn't see that he was the object of the ridicule and evidently imagined that he was getting the glad hand. But he gets another guess.

Of course the reporter didn't have a concealed bomb in his person and was entirely innocent of any intention to hurt the Bimetallic League infant. Everybody but the excited individual in question knew this, so his outburst was received for exactly what it was worth—about a hundred degrees below the zero mark.

The league placed the following ticket in the field which will be voted on at the first annual election to be held at the quarters of the league, in the Lange block, next Friday evening:

President—Charles Brandfass, F. H. Lange, R. A. McCabe, M. F. Tighe.

Secretary—Thomas F. Thoner.

Treasurer—Thomas O'Brien, sr., Robert Simpson.

Vice Presidents—Washington district, First ward, John Bachtler, W. A. Wilson; Fulton, Henry Stein, Henry Roth; Madison district, Island, R. S. Kinche-loc, A. A. Franzheim, G. W. Robinson; Second ward, C. G. Davis, J. W. Crawford, Arch Goodhue; Clay district, Henry Nau, Henry Robrecht, Robert Simpson, J. A. Howard, F. O. Reymann; Union district, James McKinley, T. M. Darrah, Fred Happy, J. J. Farrell; Centre district, W. A. Stoetzer, R. T. Devries, Jr., B. M. Eoff; Webster district, H. W. Gartley, W. W. Irwin, J. A. Weisgerber; Ritchie district, W. C. Handlan, Thomas Wolington, Jr., J. B. Handlan; Triadelphia district, G. W. Woods, L. W. Blayner, Noah Zane, I. F. Jones, M. Madden, J. W. Ewing; Liberty district, Frank Cox, Samuel Faris; Richland district, W. J. Bates, Sherrard Moore, Harry Gardner.

The following election officials were chosen:

Judges—Thomas M. Darrah and George W. Robinson.

Clerks—J. T. Goodwin and W. L. McLaughlin.

It was the intention of the league to celebrate Jackson day—next Friday—at a banquet, but the celebration has simmered down to a meeting of the league on that evening, which will be addressed by a number of speakers not yet named. There will be no banquet.

D. O. K. K. Meeting To-night.

Dahna Temple, No. 64, Dramatic Order Knights of Khorasan, has been called to meet to-night at the Pythian Castle for the purpose of transacting regular business and to consider applications for membership.

Presented by about a quarter of a hundred Pythians, who are anxious to learn the mysteries of the Arabic side degree. A journey across the sands will be made next week, at which time pilgrims from Sistersville, St. Mary's, New Martinsville, Wellsburg, Moundsville and other nearby towns will be here to "ride the camel." A swell banquet will follow the journey and other attractive features added, including probably a street parade.

A Clever Robbery.

Yesterday evening between 5 and 6 o'clock, Mrs. C. M. Wells, of the Island, had her purse emptied of its contents, amounting to about $6, at her residence on Florida street. A well dressed youth about seventeen years of age, applied for food. His request was granted and the domestic who served him his supper in the kitchen, did not leave the room during his presence, yet when he had gone the purse that laid in the window before he came was there yet, but minus its cash. He was a cool thief or he would have taken the purse. The loss was reported to the police, but no arrest has been made as yet.

PHILHARMONIC QUARTET

Gave Its Tenth Concert Last Evening, Greatly Enjoyed.

Bad weather seems to be the nemesis of the Philharmonic Quartet. A cold audience and a cold room are enough to discourage, but when the strings, too, become affected by the discourager, it is a wonder that any set of musicians, no matter how devoted to their art, could do as well as the quartet did last night, for the third number of this programme, Ungarische Lant No. 2, with its two movements is the best work yet done.

A Hayden Quartette, as an opening number, seems the usual starting point, and perhaps this is well, as Hayden is the inventor of the "quartette style." When these works first appeared they were sneered at by the pedagogues of the day, but by and by more respect was shown them by their earlier antagonists, for it was seen that the quartette was not only susceptible of depth of sentiment and grandness of treatment, but that educationally it was of the highest service. Haydn stamped a character on the quartette that has never been departed from, and may be looked upon as the parent of all the serious and so-called classical music that has been composed since.

The third number, spoken of above, showed the quartette at its best and was the gem. A pleasing selection for two violins and piano followed and the evening's entertainment ended with the famous Quartette No. 12 by Mozart. This same quartette had been heard at a former concert, but not by this ensemble, and when it is said that it suffered none last night by being in other hands, much is said. The "Menuetto," especially the trio part of this movement, and the majority of the finger movement, were magnificently played to an unresponsive audience from whom the performers might almost demand some show of appreciation for the privileges they enjoy.

Mr. Clyde H. Trippett, son of Rev. C. J. Trippett, a former pastor of Zane street church, but now located in Hartford City, arrived in the city yesterday, from the latter place, and leaves to-day for Morgantown, to resume his studies at the state university.

Didn't Want It Known.

A lady and gentleman from Cameron went to Moundsville last evening secured a marriage license and were married. They did not want it made public for a week, it is said, but the Intelligencer reporter learned of the ceremony being performed and the particulars are given. The groom is Mr. Joseph Harter, a widower, and the bride is Mrs. Sarah Jones, a widow. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Krieger, of Williamstown, who came up to Moundsville especially to act. He is the former pastor of the Methodist church at Cameron. The wedding took place at the home of Mrs. C. Zumbro in Moundsville.

PERSONS afflicted with chilblains, a troublesome to many, will find a pleasant and permanent cure in Salvator Oil. 25 cents.
