

WAS HIS BUSY DAY.

Many Men on Many Missions Call on Major McKinley.

THE REPUBLICANS OF MICHIGAN

Are Solidly United for General Alger for a Cabinet Place.

WHAT SENATOR BURROWS SAYS

In regard to his conference with the President-elect Lyman Gage mentioned in connection with the Treasury portfolio--Hanna's Senatorial Boom will be inaugurated at the Ohio Legislative Banquet to-night--Judge McKenna, of California, can't see his way clear to a Cabinet position.

CANTON, O., Jan. 21.--Senator Burrows was seen at the Fort Wayne depot this afternoon. He saw that the conference between Major McKinley and himself was entirely satisfactory, although nothing definite had been reached. When asked as to his mission to Canton, following so quickly on his visit last week, Senator Burrows said he had nothing to conceal in that direction. "I am here in Gen. Alger's interest, and this formed a part of our conversation, Michigan--that is the Republicans of Michigan--are solidly united for Gen. Alger, and the state has but one candidate for the cabinet."

"Will Gen. Alger be in the cabinet?" was all he hoped so, yet I cannot tell, for no definite conclusion was reached. However, I will emphasize my words--the conference with Major McKinley was very satisfactory."

"Would the reported unfriendliness between Senator Sherman and Gen. Alger influence the latter's going into the cabinet?"

"Whatever differences have heretofore existed between Gen. Alger and Senator Sherman do not exist at present; therefore this would in no wise influence Gen. Alger's entrance into the official family."

Gen. Pierce, congressman-elect from St. Louis, when seen at his rooms at the hotel, said he was not in Canton on any special mission, and had come only to pay his respects to the President-elect. "I did not come to present the claims of any one for a cabinet position. I believe Major McKinley should be allowed to choose his own official family," Mr. Pierce left at 2 o'clock for his home in St. Louis.

Congressional delegate Nathan O. Murphy, of Phoenix, Ariz., arrived on the same train with Senator Burrows. He said to an Associated Press representative that he was in Canton to see Major McKinley on personal business, but declined to say of what nature.

The 8:44 Valley train brought four ex-confederate soldiers to Canton. They are prominent citizens of Virginia and came to have a talk with the President-elect. The party consisted of Messrs. A. P. Funkhouser, Gen. John T. Bolter and Gen. G. W. Hendrick, of Harrisonburg, and Col. John A. Gibson, of Lexington, Va. They were met by a committee of G. A. R. men. From one of the committee it was learned that the object of their visit to Major McKinley was to talk over the names of several men to represent the south in the cabinet. They made their call on Major McKinley at 2 o'clock.

Although there is no authority for the statement that any friend of President-elect McKinley has gone to Chicago to confer with Lyman J. Gage, in reference to his taking the treasury portfolio, it is believed here that there have been Chicagoans in Canton advocating Mr. Gage's qualifications and claims for representation in the cabinet. Neither national committeeman Charles J. Dawes, Judge Groscup or Treasurer M. A. Walton, of the Security Trust Co., would confirm or deny the rumors about Mr. Gage and the treasury portfolio. Judge Groscup is here, Messrs. Dawes and Walton have returned to Chicago.

Judge Groscup, of Chicago, of the U. S. Circuit Court, who visited Major McKinley to-day, said to the Associated Press reporter that his visit had been very pleasant and satisfactory. He had come, not as an office-seeker for himself or for any one else, but to talk over the Illinois situation with the President-elect. He had nothing to say of men, and when asked about Illinois cabinet prospects, replied that he could only say that when Major McKinley announces his cabinet, Illinois will be entirely satisfied.

HANNA'S BOOM

For the senate will be started at the Legislative Banquet.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 21.--There were many callers at Chairman Hanna's office to-day and he was busily engaged in holding conferences with his visitors throughout the morning. Mr. Hanna will leave the city to-morrow morning for Columbus, where he goes to attend the Ohio legislative reunion and banquet to-morrow evening, at which Governor Bushnell, Senator-elect Foraker and all of the prominent Republicans of the state will be in attendance. Accompanying Mr. Hanna on his journey to Columbus will be State Senator Garfield, Major Charles F. Dick, Major Haskell and a number of other prominent Republicans.

Mr. Hanna stated to an Associated Press representative to-day that it was not probable that he would make an address at the banquet. His friends, however, say that he will undoubtedly be prevailed upon to make a brief speech. It was reported here to-day that previous to the banquet at Columbus to-morrow evening a meeting of Mr. Hanna's friends and political allies will be held in the city at which the chairman's real political boom will be inaugurated. This report could not be verified at Mr. Hanna's office to-day, but well-versed politicians say that such a meeting will be held.

JUDGE MCKENNA'S POSITION.

Difficulties in the War of His Appointment to a Cabinet Portfolio.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.--United States Circuit Court Judge Joseph McKenna has just arrived from Canton, Ohio, where he went to visit President-elect McKinley. It was this visit, very suddenly made, that disclosed the fact that Judge McKenna will in all probability be offered a cabinet portfolio by the President-elect.

Judge McKenna left San Francisco on a special train to-day, and is expected to arrive in Canton, Ohio, on Monday.

remained twelve hours and returned to San Francisco, the entire trip consuming just ten days. The return of Judge McKenna was as sudden and unheard of as his departure. Though fatigued from the long journey across the continent, Judge McKenna had much to say of the purpose of his flying trip and the prospect of California becoming a member of the next cabinet. He was very cautious in his statements, however. He admitted, nevertheless, that the cabinet question, particularly in relation to himself, called him to Canton. While he qualified all his remarks in relation to his acceptance of a proposed portfolio he is very certain that California will have a representative in the official family of the President.

He said: "I consider that too much significance has been attached to my visit. Many changes may occur. There is perfect freedom on the part of Major McKinley to do as he may wish, and perfect freedom on my part. It is difficult to state the exact situation. "There are some difficulties in the way of my acceptance of the portfolio. I explained that very fully, and they are not yet definitely settled. Neither the vacancy on the supreme bench nor my present position is in any way involved in the question of my acceptance of a place in the cabinet. There are other difficulties in the way of my appointment to a cabinet position."

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.--The Press this morning says: There is good reason to believe that if the Empire state is to be represented at all in the McKinley cabinet, Gen. Horace Porter will receive the appointment. He has been recommended by prominent Republicans, including Cornelius N. Bliss, to whom a cabinet place was offered, and it is understood that either the war or navy appointment would be acceptable to them.

MAY BE PORTER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.--The Press this morning says: There is good reason to believe that if the Empire state is to be represented at all in the McKinley cabinet, Gen. Horace Porter will receive the appointment. He has been recommended by prominent Republicans, including Cornelius N. Bliss, to whom a cabinet place was offered, and it is understood that either the war or navy appointment would be acceptable to them.

CARNEGIE OPTIMISTIC

In regard to the business future of the country.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 21.--Andrew Carnegie is the guest of Johnstown this evening and his reception on the arrival of the special train from Pittsburgh was the cordial and hearty tribute of honor by a grateful people. The reception was prompted by the fact that Mr. Carnegie rebuilt the public library here after the flood and was the largest individual contributor to the relief fund. At 8 o'clock Mr. Carnegie, as the guest of the board of trade, was greeted by an immense audience at the opera house. Mayor Wagoner and Hon. John M. Rose, president of the board of trade, delivered the address of welcome.

In the course of Mr. Carnegie's address in response, he said: "The business of this country, for the last few years, has been a low ebb. Never, perhaps, in our day, has there been such continued depression. Taking capital as a whole, invested in manufacturing in the United States, I doubt if it has earned one dollar of profit for three years past; that is to say, the losses have balanced any possible gains. It is my opinion that our recovery is postponed, because a large number of our people began an agitation some years ago threatening the maintenance of the standard of value which has hitherto been maintained in this country."

Mr. Carnegie then reiterated his well-known opinions on the relation of labor and capital, and said that rich and poor, employer and employee should be equally interested in the maintenance of the same standard, whether gold or silver, because the employer of labor is prosperous only when labor is prosperous and in great demand. "Therefore, my friends, believe me, the man who above all others longs for and labors for general prosperity, is the employer of labor."

"Why is it that business has not revived as was expected, after the result of the national election was declared? Well, I think people expected too much, or too early a recovery. The season of the year for recovery is a later spring open, and we could scarcely expect sufficient momentum in January to overcome the inertia of the mass which lay immovable, but the conditions are all most favorable; and business as a whole is upon a sound foundation. There is no inflation in anything; prices are all low. To supplement this, we have gained more than $300,000,000 last year in our foreign trade--a most remarkable circumstance. Unless some surprise is sprung upon the country, nothing can hold it back from a period of genuine prosperity. I am optimistic to a degree in regard to the future."

MESSAGE FROM THE SEA.

Mark Founders in a Gale--Story Found in a Bottle.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Jan. 21.--A bottle has been picked up on the south beach, seven miles below here, which contains a message stating that the bark Ludrus had foundered at sea on January 15. The message was written on several small sheets of paper and was signed by Capt. Gonzales. It was a log of the vessel from the time she left port until she foundered.

According to the message the Ludrus left Boston January 2, in command of Capt. Gonzales and manned by a crew of twelve men. On January 12, the vessel sprang a leak, but the carpenter managed to partially stop the influx of water. On January 14, however, the water began to pour into the hold in great volume. The pumps were mangled and the men worked day and night, but at noon on January 15, it was apparent the vessel was doomed. The captain and crew then took to the boats, and had hardly got clear of the vessel when she went down. The message concludes: "We have little food and water on board, and I believe we are in session of hundreds of people who had gathered on the beach, but were powerless to render assistance."

LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN IN SESSION.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 21.--A union meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, embracing New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Indiana, Ohio, and Ohio, was called to order here this morning with first grand master Harrahan, of Peoria, in the chair. The meeting, which will be in session to-day and to-morrow, is held behind closed doors. One of the most important questions to be taken up at this meeting is that of the proposed federation of railroad employees organizations into one body. This subject will undoubtedly cause a warm debate. The Ohio delegates are making a united effort to have the national convention of the order in Cleveland, and in this they will likely be successful. The next biennial convention will be held in Toronto in 1899.

NINE SAILORS DROWNED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.--The three-masted schooner, Nabum Chapin, of Rockland, Me., coal laden from Baltimore for Boston, went ashore near Quogue, L. I., at an early hour this morning and her entire crew, consisting of nine men were lost in sight of hundreds of people who had gathered on the beach, but were powerless to render assistance.

PROMINENT LUMBERMAN DROPS DEAD.

TERRA ALTA, W. Va., Jan. 21.--Samuel B. Shaver, lumberman and farmer, and well known in the county, dropped dead in Squire John Hill's office at one o'clock to-day, of heart disease. Four months ago he had both legs broken in a runaway accident and had only been out about one month.

WEST VIRGINIANS IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.--Senator Ekins to-day introduced memorials from citizens of Brooke and Mercer counties, respectively, in behalf of West Virginia independence.

GOVERNOR ATKINSON AND NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN SCOTT LEFT FOR HOME THIS EVENING.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.--Governor Atkinson and National Committeeman Scott left for home this evening. Congressman Dayton left also for a business trip to Randolph county.

HON. GEORGE C. STURGES, OF MORANTOWN, WAS HERE TO-DAY, BUT IS NOW WELL ON HIS WAY TO PITTSBURGH.

Hon. George C. Sturges, of Morantown, was here to-day, but is now well on his way to Pittsburgh. He yielded up to the information of importance claimants that he came all the way from "the backwoods" to get the news.

ONE REPUBLICAN

Votes Against the Seating of the Contesting Senator

FROM THE THIRTEENTH DISTRICT

And He Makes the Strongest Plea for Shaffer that Could be Made Out of the Case. Majority Report of the Elections Committee Adopted, and Getzendanner Sworn In--The Contest Aply Managed by Senator Farr--Shaffer Makes a Dramatic Appeal in His Own Behalf--Republicans Discussing the Revision of the Constitution.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 21.--This was a very interesting day in the senate, and at 1 o'clock H. C. Getzendanner was sworn in as a senator from the Thirteenth senatorial district. Senator Farr, of Doddridge, a member of the elections committee, made a masterly legal argument in favor of seating Getzendanner. Senator Young, Republican, of Upshur, argued the case in favor of Shaffer, the sitting Democratic senator, and made as strong a case as could be made for him. He said he regretted to have to go against his party, but he must follow conscience before party.

Senator Cole, of Lewis, speaking in favor of the committee's report, made one of the clearest arguments ever heard in the senate. He showed that Shaffer, by neglecting to make a return notice, had left himself nothing to stand on. Mr. Shaffer made a dramatic appeal for himself, talked well, but talked all around the real question. When the vote was taken the four Democrats and Senator Young voted for Shaffer, and all the Republicans, nineteen, present, voted to seat Getzendanner. It is understood that Mr. Shaffer will make his unseating ground for claim to the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Second district.

Delegate Hughes, of Tyler, wishes it distinctly understood that he opposes the bill to change the vote by which a county seat may be removed. Somehow the impression has gone out that Mr. Hughes is championing the bill.

To-night the Republican caucus discussed further the various propositions to revise the constitution. No definite conclusion was reached. The caucus will meet again next Monday night.

The senate judiciary committee will report favorably the bill to allow a foreign corporation to increase its land holdings. The bill as it will be recommended to the senate will allow a tanning company to hold 15,000 acres of land for each tannery or extract bark factory it may have in the state.

STATE DENTAL SOCIETY.

Election of Officers--Wheeling Selected as the Next Place of Meeting.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE INTELLIGENCER. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 21.--The closing session of the State Dental Society was held this evening. A paper by Dr. Harrison, of Wheeling, was read by Dr. Storer. Papers by Drs. Cummins, of Wellsburg, and Tener, of Wheeling, were also read. Wheeling was selected as the place for the next meeting, the first week in October, 1897. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President, Dr. Tener, of Wheeling; vice president, Dr. Hammill, of Martinsburg; secretary, Dr. Parrish, of Parkersburg; treasurer, Dr. Cummins, of Wellsburg.

A banquet was served at 11 p. m. to the members and a number of their legislative friends. The meeting was a success in every respect. Ten new members were admitted and everything points to a most successful future for the association.

GAMBLING RAILED HIM.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE INTELLIGENCER. PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 21.--G. M. Cover, who up till last week was the local agent for the United States Express Company, was arrested to-day, charged with embezzlement. He was arrested at the instigation of the Fidelity company that was on his bond. He is short seven hundred dollars in his accounts. His ruin is the result of a passion for gambling. He has instituted suits against well-known gamblers for the recovery of the money he lost to them. Cover is in jail.

WESTON ELECTION CONTEST CASES.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE INTELLIGENCER. WESTON, W. Va., Jan. 21.--In the election contest cases here to-day, the time was mostly spent in suspecting ballots, and in the introduction of strong evidence confirming former testimony. Some evidence was also taken respecting the illegality of a number of votes cast for the Democratic candidates. The general interest in the case has not abated.

HEARIAL OF EDWARD SHARPE.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE INTELLIGENCER. BUCKHANNON, W. Va., Jan. 21.--The body of Edward Sharpe, son of Rev. Mr. Sharpe, who died in Phoenix, Arizona, arrived here this noon, accompanied by a committee from Judge No. 2, Knights of Pythias, of Wheeling. Sharpe had consumption, and went west with the hope of recovery, but died last week. He is to be buried to-morrow at 10 o'clock, services being held at his home this evening at 8 o'clock.

TEACHER DROPS DEAD.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE INTELLIGENCER. GLENVILLE, W. Va., Jan. 19.--Grant Jeffries, one of the most prominent young school teachers of this county, dropped dead suddenly last Monday, while teaching the Rich Bottom school. He had only been complaining about twenty minutes prior to his death. He was a popular ex-student of the Glenville normal school and a young man of much promise.

"OUR WOOL" FROM RUSSIA.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.--Much of the wool which is exported in large quantities from Russia to the United States entering principally at New York and Philadelphia is being largely adulterated with "sour wool" gathered from the clippings of sheep skins and made into clothing.
