REEDER ON A FOUL.

There was twenty-five dollars' worth of boxing for one dollar for the happy sports at the Metropolitan club last night. Jerry Marshall, of Australia, well known about this city, and Jimmy Reeder, from Altoona, Pa., were billed for twenty rounds, and Patsy Gavin as referee, but Marshall fouled his man in the middle of the ninth round.

The bout was a pretty one from start to foul, everything being even with the exception that Marshall got in the larger number of blows. The blows were landed on Reeder's face and neck, but they were of small account, as Reeder can take hard punishment in that direction and demonstrated that Marshall had a hard proposition on that line of battle. Marshall did all the pushing, while Reeder did more scientific work and aimed for body blows, which were effective, and if followed up, he would probably have got his man.

Marshall proved himself to be a very hard man, and would make himself a formidable foe to most boxers of his class. There were several fouls made on the part of Marshall during the seventh, eighth and ninth rounds, but the most glaring one was that of the ninth, when Marshall rushed his man to the ropes, and they clinched, Marshall holding his man by the throat and giving him several blows below the belt and one in the face. Of course this was contrary to the rules of the club, and instructions were so given the contestants at the ring side. This of course, wound up the mill in favor of Reeder.

First round—Both lead and a clinch. The start was lively, but too much clinching. Marshall landed a hot one in the face. Reeder landed a mean one, and then the round ended.

Second round—Marshall forces Reeder to corner, following with a clinch. Reeder lands a hot one on the right jaw. Another clinch, and then Marshall lands a heavy one.

Third round—Marshall lands heavily, knocking Reeder to the ropes. Another clinch and a cry of foul. Too much clinching. Marshall has the best of it, landing heavily and often.

Fourth round—Marshall lands, but the clinching keeps on. Reeder lands heavily. The round closes in favor of Reeder.

Fifth round—Marshall rushes Reeder to the ropes and lands hard several times. Both men are doing clever fighting, but both somewhat winded. Marshall getting in strong blows.

Sixth round—Marshall lands, followed by a hot one from Reeder. The round closes with Marshall doing heavy work, but Reeder showing up good.

Seventh round—In this round there was much pretty work, closing in favor of Reeder.

Eighth round—Marshall rushes Reeder to the ropes, but gets little work in. Marshall rushes, making several fierce uppercuts, closing the round.

Sarsaparilla Sense.

Any sarsaparilla is sarsaparilla. True. So any tea is tea. So any flour is flour. But grades differ. You want the best. It's so with sarsaparilla. There are grades. You want the best. If you understood sarsaparilla as well as you do tea and flour it would be easy to determine. But you don't. How should you? When you are going to buy a commodity whose value you don't know, you pick out an old established house to trade with, and trust their experience and reputation. Do so when buying sarsaparilla.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been on the market 50 years. Your grandfather used Ayer's. It is a reputable medicine. There are many Sarsaparillas—but only one Ayer's. It cures.

A girl in black velvet bloomers scorching through the South Side yesterday afternoon, attracting great attention. She was unburned and travel-stained, and evidently had come from a distance.

A broken guy wire at Thirty-fifth and Jacob streets last night about 7:30 created consternation among a number of pedestrians and wheelmen, and also caused a slight delay to the street cars until repaired. Sam Smorkey, said to hail from Steubenville, and subject to fits and also to great thirst, fell a victim to the latter yesterday afternoon, and after being landed in Captain Brandt's chateau, took a fit. Dr. Spargo was called and gave the necessary attention.

Alex. McCombs, of Washington, Pa., was inebriated on the fair grounds yesterday and became very hilarious as the balloon was about to ascend. Officer Bauers caged him just before the ascension. The same officer also arrested George Hurley, a disorderly. To-morrow evening Black Prince lodge No. 19, Knights of Pythias, will have four candidates in the second rank. The lodge invites members of the orders who are in the city this week to meet with it. The castle hall is located at the corner of Chapline and Twenty-seventh streets, South Side.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad. Last midnight a distinguished party, consisting of ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, of Elkins, ex-Governor A. B. Fleming and Col. C. L. Smith, of Fairmont, and Hon. John T. McGraw, of Grafton, arrived in the city in Mr. Davis' private car, and registered at the McLaughlin house. Senator S. B. Elkins was to have accompanied the party, but was unable to come at the last moment. When seen at the hotel after their arrival, the gentlemen stated that they were merely here to visit the state fair, and that their presence had no other significance. As they are prominent coal operators, miners had it that their visit had some connection with the coal strike, but this is not true.

Governor Fleming, in speaking of the strike in the Fairmont region, said that there was no change in the situation. "Everything is running along smoothly," said he, "and as it looks like this week will witness a settlement of the difficulty between the operators and miners in the Pittsburgh district, I suppose matters will settle down all around in a few days."

J. W. Kelly, of Parkersburg, is a Windsor register. Mr. P. F. Earnest, of Board Tree, is here attending the fair. Dr. A. M. Anderson, of New Cumberland, is at the McLaughlin. Mr. and Mrs. Lou Roberts, of Wellsburg, are visiting in the city. Miss Emma Goldbaugh is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joe Lang, in Ironton, Ohio.

J. W. Yates and Sidney H. Sommerwell, of Grafton, are registered at the Windsor. Mrs. Abe Montgomery, of Wellsburg, is visiting the family of Ralph Whitehead, on the Island. Dr. L. S. Riggs and family, who have been summering at Board Tree, W. Va., have returned to the city.

Va., are visiting relatives and friends in the city. R. R. Smith, P. P. Bernheim, J. C. Henderson and J. W. Waldron are Welch citizens stopping at the McLaughlin. J. T. Platenburg, the original editor of the Hancock County Courier, and wife were guests of the Howell yesterday. Wm. Riggs, of Koosoth, W. Va., accompanied by his two sons, are visiting Dr. L. S. Riggs, on South Chapline street. A number of Mannington people registered at the Stamm yesterday. Among them were: Mrs. Charles Town, Mrs. Mary Painter, J. R. Burr, J. Ross DeWitt.

The other day a New Yorker started across Broad way in the heyday of ambitious, vigorous youth. A puff of wind blew an insignificant, almost invisible atom of dust in one of his eyes. It blinded him. He clasped his hands over his eyes and staggered on, only to be run down and killed by a cable car. That man's death was due to an insignificant trifle, an atom of dust that was barely visible under the microscope. It is thus with health. Men find that they are suffering from a trifling disorder of the digestion. It doesn't amount to anything, they think, and time is precious to them, and are run down in the heyday of ambitious youth by death.

Neglected indigestion is the first cause of all manner of wasting diseases and all forms of nervous disorders. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all disorders of the digestion. It invigorates the liver, imparts a keen, hearty appetite and causes the life-giving elements of the food to be perfectly assimilated. It purifies the blood and builds healthy tissue. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder, and nerve tonic. It cures consumption, wasting diseases and all disorders of the nerves.

"I was a sufferer five or six years from indigestion," writes R. F. Holmes, of Gaffney, Spartanburg Co., S. C., "also from sore stomach and constant headache. I then used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and a pleasant relief which in a few days gave me permanent relief."

Miss McClelland, of Cambridge, Ohio, returned to-day after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Crayton, of the Garden Spot. Captain William H. Sims, of Clarksburg, the veteran steamboatman, now on the road for Schaefer & Drchhorst, of this city, is in Wheeling this week.

AMUSEMENTS. The veriscope exhibition of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight at Wheeling Park Casino, last night, drew a very large crowd, which like that of the previous evening, were pleased beyond the most ardent anticipation. The pictures present the famous Carson City battle upon the canvas so realistically that the spectators were away out in the Nevada pavilion, and it was St. Patrick's Day again. And last night's audience, by the way, had a goodly attendance of the fair sex, their plaudits mingling with those of the sterner sex. No one in Wheeling can afford to witness this wonderful exhibition. The price is low, and the 7:30 o'clock motor runs direct to the Casino.

"Old Glory." This famous success of Brady and Corbett's, with its patriotic theme, attracted a good sized crowd to the Grand last night and repeated its success of the opening night. The plot shows the evil machinations of political leaders and Chili, against an American citizen, and the "stars" in Uncle Sam's employ play a very important part in the rescue of the American from the hands of those who are plotting his destruction. There are many opportunities for cheering, and the crowds which have witnessed the production here have not been slow to take advantage of them. The special scenery is a show in itself, and the company has been especially selected for the purpose of giving a performance which is equal to that witnessed in the large cities last year. The engagement will conclude with the matinee and evening performances to-day.

The Wesley Entertainment. The preparations for the Wesley entertainment are going on very satisfactorily. A full rehearsal of the Holy Club scene was held Monday night, and last evening the club met at Prof. Arbenz's conservatory, where the music, under Prof. Arbenz's skillful direction, was rehearsed. The club includes some of Wheeling's best male voices. Mr. Bentley Jones takes the role of John Wesley. Mr. L. E. Brewster will take Rev. Dr. Moore's place as Charles Wesley, as Dr. Moore's time is fully taken up with conference work. He regrets his inability to act as the great hymn list. The Holy Club members are: A. Doane, James Harvey Devore, Lee Dobbs, A. C. Nolte, John Reeder, J. E. Dobbis, George A. Serig, R. Truxell, H. W. Eitz, Grant Jones, William Nesbitt, Mr. Garden, W. Jones and W. Carnahan. The leaders of the processions are Miss Addie Wincher and Mr. Chas. Israel.

MARTIN'S FERRY. Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River. Messrs. Thayer and Robert Heslop, of North Fifth street, are expecting a visit from their father, R. G. Heslop, and sister, Mrs. Lehigh, who will arrive this afternoon from Mason City, W. Va. Also two other brothers, John Heslop, from Point Pleasant, and Chas. Heslop, from Columbus.

After the business meeting of the Epworth League last night the social department of the league sprung quite a surprise by serving elegant refreshments to all the members. The contract for furnishing mixed coal for the power house the coming winter was awarded to Robert Applegarth at his bid of $3 a hundred.

Emerson Campbell, G. C. Sedgwick and Chas. Sedgwick left last evening for the woods of Jefferson county on a hunting expedition. Vernon Young, of Dillonvale, is in the drug store of Sedgwick & Campbell, while Mr. Campbell is off on a vacation. A grand ball will be given next Friday evening in Scheeher's hall for the benefit of Charles Hencher.
