Knights of St. John. The Knights of St. John and St. George have completed their arrangements with the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railway for the transportation to Detroit, Mich., Monday, June 27th, of the West Virginia Knights, and all who may wish to go with them. Traveling Passenger Agent O. R. Wood, who will personally conduct the party, is busy working out the details of one of the finest trips of the season. The tickets will have a liberal limit lasting two or three days after the convention closes, affording people ample time to visit Mt. Clemens, St. Clair Flats, Belle Lake Park and the many other attractions. The public are cordially invited to join this special excursion and all can rest assured that nothing will be left undone for the pleasure and comfort of all.

THE ORATORIO Society's Concert at the Opera House Last Night. DREW A DELIGHTED AUDIENCE. THE ROJOISTS WERE APPLAUDED FOR THEIR MAGNIFICENT WORK, AS WAS THE SOCIETY PROPER FOR ITS FINE SHOWING UNDER THE DIRECTION OF PROF. MYERS—MRS. WILLIAMS, IN PARTICULAR, MET WITH AN ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION.

The second season's closing concert of the Oratorio Society in the Opera House last evening was a success. The audience was not as large as the attraction ought to have called out, but considering all conditions it was thoroughly complimentary, and the public fully appreciated the good work done. The first part of the evening was given over to selections by the singers engaged for the solo work in the Oratorio, and made a pleasing diversion. Mr. Dermitt, baritone, sang Schumann's "Two Grenadiers" with much expression, and Mr. Fellows artistically rendered a double number, Toschi's "Maitnath" and Macbeth's "Come, Fill Me with Brimming Bowl." Both gentlemen had been pleasantly heard in the city before, and sustained their reputations in this, while later in the evening they added much to the former impression by some especially fine work in the various solo and quartet numbers falling to their lot in the "Life of Man."

Miss Mary Louisa Clark, America's greatest contralto, had been heard in Wheeling in the Oratorio, and her magnificent voice has always been the subject of the most flattering comment, but her efforts last night were even beyond expectation. Each of the three selections, "The Woe Despaired," "The Song of the Flock" and "Hoeanna and Hosanna Song," was a distinct gem. Her work was thoroughly artistic and effective, and the beautiful smoothness of her superb voice fairly enthralled the audience. Mr. Buckley's explanation of the work in this capacity did not go unnoticed by the lovers of good music.

The society proper deserves especial praise for what was accomplished by it in the short time allotted for the study of this work, and for something worthy of note could be singled out from each separate chorus, the one which truly deserves all the praise that can be spoken was the one entitled "And I Speak in Righteousness," with Mrs. Williams as soloist. Mr. Meyers, director, saw fit to cut the work because of the length of the first part of the programme, but its beauty was not marred. The Opera House Orchestra and Miss E. Schradler, accompanist of "The Life of Man," supported excellently, the whole performance reflecting the greatest credit upon those taking part in it, and particularly to the credit due to Mr. Paris R. Meyers, whose untiring and unselfish endeavor in behalf of the society and the musical advancement of this section of the country is becoming recognizable through these results. The interesting anticipation of last night's concert was realized, and next winter's study, "The Messiah," will be heartily entered into by the members and encouraged by its public presentation by musical Wheeling.

PRETTYMAN IS DEAD. And as a result the two Eberies were arrested last night and placed in the County Jail. A Post-mortem Examination Will be Held To-day. Last night about 9 o'clock, Asa Prettyman died at his home, on Twenty-ninth street, South Side, as a result of injuries inflicted in last Monday's fight between him and Frank Eberie, sr., and Frank Eberie, jr., out Caldwell's run, where the Eberies were at work digging a ditch when Prettyman came along in a drunken condition and started trouble. The result was a pitched battle, and it is alleged that a wound inflicted by the elder Eberie throwing a stone at Prettyman caused the latter's death last night. Immediately upon learning of Prettyman's death, the police took speedy action. Officer Babo was sent out "the run" and arrested the two Eberies, who were taken before Justice Rogers and committed to jail to await the result of a post-mortem examination by physicians over Prettyman's body, which will probably be held to-day. They had been arrested on Thursday night, but were released on bail, and were re-arrested after the man's death last night.

A PEQUARIAN ACCIDENT. Mr. McGregor's Island Home Partially Collapsed Yesterday. In addition to having a fight for the county commissionership renomination in Madison district on his hands, President H. P. McGregor has another trouble. Mr. McGregor is having a new home built on North Front street, but left a part of the old house standing at the rear, intending to attach it to the new building. Yesterday morning the old building suddenly collapsed and is a wreck. It was filled with furniture, but there was little or no loss aside from the wrecking of the building.

WAR... THE LATEST ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT IN THE Intelligencer. Ten Cents A Week...

POLITICAL MATTERS. To-day Republican suggestion meetings will be held in the several districts of Ohio county, at the call of the county committee. Names will be suggested for delegates to the congressional convention, for delegates to the county convention, for members of the board of commissioners, for members of the board of education, to fill vacancies for justice and constable, for members of the county executive committee, for president and members of the county board in each of the country districts. In the city districts and in Triadelphia, the suggestion meetings will be held at 8 p. m. in Richard and Liberty districts the hour is 9 p. m. The meeting places are as follows: Washington district—Vigilant engine house. Clay district—Odd Fellows' building. Union district—Police court room. Centre district—Hook and Ladder house. Webster district—Squire Greer's office, No. 274 East street. Ritchie district—Eighteenth ward hose house. Madison district—Island hose house. Triadelphia district—Hend's hall, Elm Grove. Richard district—Briek school house. Liberty district—Centre school house.

Although Congressman Lorenzo Danford has the lead and it has seemed that he would be renominated for a sixth term, in the over-the-river district, a contest is developing. The fact that the committee have selected delegates favorable to Danford in several of the counties has aroused some antagonism. The objectors are perfecting an organization to try and defeat his renomination. The Harrison county delegates will vote for Hollingsworth, Carroll delegates will support John H. Fimple, one of the schroved politicians in the district. The impression has gone out that E. E. Friske, of Steubenville, had come out to help Danford, but Friske states that he will ask his delegates to stick to him.

THAT BRIDGE COMMISSION. Recently Appointed by Council Seems To Be Lost, Strayed or Stolen. Apparently, that bridge toll commission, recently appointed by Mayor Butts and President Chew, of the second branch of council, is lost, strayed or stolen, no meeting having been held or an attempt at one since the it came into existence.

A well known attorney, who has made a specialty of municipal problems, gives to the Intelligencer his opinion of what this commission can accomplish—"little more than nothing." Further, he says it will be necessary for some subscription to the revenue department fund in some quarters the extent of securing for citizens free foot passage on the bridges between the Island and the city. The charter gives such powers, said the Intelligencer's informant.

REUNION GLEANINGS. The reunion executive committee will shortly receive a proposition from A. F. Nail, of Mansfield, Ohio, to put on the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh," in this city next August, a part of the gross receipts to go to the reunion committee on finance.

The reunion finance committee's sub-committees are this week busily engaged in visiting business men in quest of subscriptions to the reunion entertainment fund. In some quarters the committees have not received as hearty a reception as they should have had, but it is believed there will be little difficulty in securing the necessary amount. There will be a meeting of the finance committee early next week.

The reunion press committee will issue the second number of "The Reunion Bulletin" next week. It goes to 400 newspapers in West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois and materially advertises the coming reunion.
