A DAY OF GLORY.

Independence Day will be Generally Observed here but

NO CELEBRATION PROGRAMME

HAS BEEN ARRANGED—IN BELLAIRE AND MOUNDSVILLE—THERE WILL BE CELEBRATIONS OF SOME PRETENTIONS. IN WHEELING THE PEOPLE WILL TAKE IN THE "WILD WEST" OF BUFFALO BILL, AND HE HIMSELF TO THE COUNTRY FOR RELIEF FROM THE HEAT.

The Glorious Fourth has arrived and nobody in this community is ignorant of its coming, for at midnight there was a most boisterous and noisy ringing in of the day. Bells, steam whistles and cannon crackers contributed to making a din that would have brought Rip Van Winkle out of his twenty years' slumber had he been fortunate enough to live here in reality at this time. The crowds of early-in-the-day celebrators were larger than has been usual in recent years, a result of the present war which has made everybody a patriot and Fourth of July enthusiast.

Here in Wheeling there is no organized celebration of the day. The post-office, banks, freight stations, manufactories, wholesale houses, most of the retail stores and business generally will suspend for the day so far as it is possible. Probably the larger part of the city's population will attend the performances of the "Wild West" of Buffalo Bill, which arrived yesterday before noon and was looked at by thousands during Sunday afternoon. Wheeling is fortunate to have such a stellar attraction for the Fourth, right in line with the war-like spirit of the times, with its United States cavalry, Cuban soldiers, etc. The "Wild West" parade will move over a short route in the central part of the city, starting at 9:30 a. m. There will be two performances, afternoon and evening. The show is located at Bridge park, island.

The two parks will be crowded, too, as they invariably are on the Fourth. Manager Rolf, of Wheeling park, and Manager Handlan, of Mozart Park, have programmes for the day that will attract a large proportion of the public to one or both resorts, including daylight fireworks.

In Bellaire and Moundsville special celebrations of the day will take place, with races, parades and speeches. From the other neighboring towns thousands will come to Wheeling to see the "Wild West."

THE "WILD WEST"

Arrived Sunday Morning and was Visited by Thousands—Two Performances Will be Given To-day, Afternoon and Evening—Parade This Morning.

Wheeling has never had a Fourth of July attraction approaching the one offered the people of this vicinity to-day—the great Buffalo Bill "Wild West." With a show of its magnitude it is usual to "make" a large city on the Fourth, so the people ought to feel complimented that Colonel Cody brings his show to Wheeling on the most important holiday of the season.

The "Wild West" reached the city at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, coming from Uniontown, Pa., a ten-hour ride in exceedingly hot weather that placed horses and men in a condition approaching hors de combat. The show was transported to the bridge park island, where the two performances will be given to-day. During the early afternoon the tents occupied by the men and horses were put up, the management declining to expose their men to the terrific heat when it was not absolutely necessary. Later in the day the large amphitheatre enclosure, in which a crowd of more than 10,000 can be comfortably accommodated, was pitched.

Accompanied by Mr. Dexter W. Fellows, press man of the "Wild West," an Intelligencer reporter was shown over the grounds Sunday afternoon, and given an insight into the system and up-to-date methods that make it possible to operate with signal success an amusement enterprise of such magnitude.

"System" tells the story in a word. Every detail—and there are thousands of them—is assigned to a special person of the several hundred needed in moving this immense undertaking. Without this systematic perfection there would be as much of a Babel of confusion as there is indeed a Babel of tongues.

Perhaps the most interesting place on the grounds, while the show is not being given, is the large tent where the "wild riders" are quartered. Here are Cubans, German Uhlans, Russian Cossacks; French, English, Mexican, Arabian and horsemen of other nationalities. Of the Cubans, the most interesting figure is Lieutenant-Colonel Americo, who achieved distinction in the Cuban ten-years' war which closed in 1878, and who has served with the late General Antonio Maceo in the present revolution against Spanish rule. He bears many wounds received from the Spanish machete and the Mauser bullet. He expects to be able physically to go back to Cuba soon. Several of the Cubans recently left the show at Philadelphia unable to remain out of the struggle now that America has lent her strong arm to decide the conflict.

There is an impression held by some people that the riders of the "Wild West" are counterfeit representatives of the armies the management heralds them from. This is wrong, as can be seen by inspection of the papers of discharge every cavalryman now with the show can produce, and which some of them did produce for the Intelligencer man yesterday. Most of these men are subject to instant recall from their governments in case of need. A spectacle during the afternoon that interested hundreds of visitors was the taking of the horses "to water" in the back river. The Indians were in their element, scores of them riding their mustangs far out into the river. Occasionally the animals would swim the deep holes made by the sand digger, and man and animal would disappear for the moment, only to reappear amid the shouts of the well-lucked rider's companions. An interesting spectacle was that in the dining hall tent, where 200 or 300 members of the show can be served at a sitting. Another improvement is the special electric lighting plant carried with the show, for the purpose of furnishing the innumerable arc lights needed for the night performance.

Columns could be written about this mammoth enterprise, but the Intelligencer hasn't the space at its command that would be necessary in which to tell all of a most interesting story.

The morning's parade will include over 600 horses and an equal number of men. The start will be made from the grounds at 9:30 o'clock, and the route is as follows: On Zane street to and over the Suspension bridge, to Market street, to Twenty-second street, to Main street, to Tenth street, on Suspension bridge and Zane street to the grounds.

BELLINGER'S THANKS

Extended to the Intelligencer for Disposition of a Memorandum that did him Great Justice—A Nasty Letter from one of Wheeling's Noted Volunteers.

CAMP GEORGE H. THOMAS, CHICKAMAUGA PARK, LITTLE, Ga., July 1, 1898.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer: SIR:—I thank you for denying that report concerning me and the rest of the boys here. It is the last thing you will hear of from us, for we did not enlist to become deserters but soldiers. And there is no truth whatever in the report. When West Virginia's mountaineers (as we are styled here) are heard from, it will not be as deserters but right at the front, and the Wheeling boys will be there and give a good account of themselves.

Again thanking you, I remain Very truly yours,
HENRY BELLINGER, Co. D, 1st W. Va. Vol. Inf.

SUNDAY AT MOZART.

A Special Train Brought Many Pittsburghers—Two Fine Concerts.

Yesterday afternoon and last night two large audiences were attracted to Mozart Park, the occasion being special concerts by the Kellar orchestra, of Pittsburgh, assisted by Mr. Charles Zulauf, the well known Wheeling basso. The audiences were very large, including several hundred Pittsburghers who came down on a special train, the excursion being under the auspices of the Cecelia Maennerchor of that city. The visitors expressed themselves well pleased with their entertainment at the park and in the city. Their special train departed for Pittsburgh last night at a late hour.

BELMONT LABOR COUNCIL

Held a Regular Meeting Yesterday at Bellaire—The Proceedings.

The Belmont Central Trades and Labor Union held its regular meeting in the city hall at Bellaire yesterday afternoon, and there was a large attendance.

A communication was received from the retail clerks' union, stating that they had secured the signature of all the merchants except three, to an agreement to close their stores at 6 p. m. every evening except Saturday, beginning to-day, July 4. On motion, the arbitration committee was instructed to wait upon those who had refused to sign the agreement.

The entertainment committee reported a large crowd at the picnic on Saturday, and that it would have the final report ready at the next meeting.

Recruits for the Army.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad is handling a very large number of recruits to the different military camps. Within the past week there have been 1,000 recruits from New York and points along the line as far west as Chicago to Camp Alger and Chickamauga.

During the month of June almost 10,000 troops were handled in detachments of from fifty to 300 and 500, showing that the regiments are being rapidly filled with the required number.

Pleasant for Passengers.

Manager Passenger Traffic Martin, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, has adopted the use of electric fans on sleeping cars, following the example set by the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern at Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis. At Washington and Mt. Royal station, Baltimore, the Baltimore & Ohio railroad has sleeping cars which lay for several hours awaiting the departure of trains, thus enabling the passengers to retire several hours before the time of departure of the trains. Ordinarily a railway station is about the hottest place that can be found on the top of the earth at night in the summer and the interior of a sleeping car is still hotter; if such a thing can be. The fans are placed in the cars as soon as they are bucked into the stations, connected by a flexible cable with the electric current and they run until ten minutes before the train leaves, thus keeping the interior of the car cool and pleasant for those who are sleeping. The cost is very small as each station is thoroughly equipped with electric appliances.
