'What state has two capitals?' said the pretty schoolma'am. 'Rhode Island, ma'am,' replied Benny Bloomer.

'What are they?' 'Providence and Newport.' 'That is right. Has any other state two capitals?' 'Yes, ma'am.' 'Name the state or states, please.'

'West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island.'

'What boots it if the youthful, Shall wink the other eye, And charge us as untruthful, As each year goes rolling by, We old fellows find a pleasure That the young will never know, In letting fancy measure That phantom new depot.'

'And when our think-tanks falter, And the eye no longer see, We'll be ready for the halter, The young folks will be sure, So let us have our pleasure In a dream of long ago, With the ancient tower the measure Of that B. & O. depot.'

'The hot weather calls for cooling drinks, and the soda water man uses all his ingenuity to slake the thirst of his patrons. There is no temperance deception here, as the lemonade in the shade and it contains to hold its own in all its glory of red or white at the picnic, the circus, or the ball. Like other drinks, there is a profit in lemonade, and the night before the recent political election, a subtle destroyer of votes was appealed to, and he answered the call. When they found the burglar was a shadow caused by the electric light, the young couple kissed and made up.'

'Ring-a-ling-a-ling, Hello! Give me 697, Central. All right. Central gave a number, though not the number asked for, which, by the way, is not 697, but that number will do for the purpose. Yes, that you, Will?' came over the phone.

'Yes,' replied the man, who saw he was on the wrong wire. 'Are you going over to the Island tonight?' repeated the girlish voice. 'Certainly,' came from the cruel man. 'Well, Bees said you would call for us. What time will you be up?' 'About a quarter to eight.'

'All right, Good-bye, Will.' 'Good-bye, dear.' 'Poor girl! She waited in vain for Will, for she was talking to a stranger, and the real Will will be put down as a prevaricator, a subtle destroyer of votes. But it will only bear out the opinion of an esteemed Colerain Quaker, that the telephone is the invention of the devil.'

'In the Catholic churches to-morrow appropriate observances will be made in line with the suggestions contained in President McKinley's thanksgiving proclamation, and it is likely larger congregations than usual will be present. At the Simpson M. E. church, J. W. Waters, pastor, to-morrow: Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by the pastor; Sunday school at 9 a. m.

'At Zane street M. E. church, the pastor, Rev. B. B. Evans, will preach Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Morning subject, 'The Writings of Christ'; evening subject, 'Gambling.' Sunday school at 2 p. m.

'At the First Presbyterian church the Rev. Dr. Cunningham, the pastor, will preach at 10:30 a. m.; subject, 'The Unrivalled Teacher.' At the Fourth street M. E. church, Sunday, the pastor, Dr. J. L. Sooy, will preach at 10:30 a. m. At 7:45 p. m. the Rev. M. F. Compton, pastor of the First Centennial M. E. church, New York city, will preach.

'First Christian church, C. M. Orlip, pastor, Morning, 'Christian Prayer'; evening, 'The Apparently Right Course.' Baptism at evening service, Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; Y. P. S. C. at 7 p. m. At 9 p. m. the pastor will conduct the Gospel wagon service near the creek bridge.

'At Vance Memorial church to-morrow there will be services at 11:20 a. m. and 8:20 p. m. Preaching by Rev. C. B. Austin. At the North street M. E. church services will be held at 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. C. B. Graham, subject for the morning sermon, 'Church Loyalty'; evening sermon, 'The Call for a Steward's Report.'

THE RIVER.

The only packet to hit the water yesterday was the Maxie Yost, which slides over a low river like roller skates over a rink. She went to Clarington and took down all the freight she could carry. River men are hoping for a higher stage in a few days. Rain showed it up a few inches yesterday.

Along the Landing. At 6 p. m. yesterday the marks at the landing showed 2 feet 3 inches and rising. Cloudy and warm. The Argand is scheduled to leave today for Parkersburg. She leaves at 11 a. m.

THE RED CROSS.

Appoints the Various Working Committees—Houses Tabernacle Dances to Carry on the Work—To Meet Every Morning as Long as it is Necessary. This morning a noble band of Wheeling ladies will gather at the House tabernacle, to sew for Uncle Sam's brave boys. They are the members of the recently formed auxiliary of the Red Cross society, and the tabernacle was generously donated for their use by Mr. W. H. Hearne. The building will be used every morning so long as it is necessary.

The arrangements were perfected at the auxiliary meeting yesterday morning at the Carroll Club auditorium. Mrs. W. F. Butler, president, in the chair. At this meeting Mr. Hearne's offer was received, and it was the recipient of a vote of thanks.

The various standing committees were appointed yesterday morning, and are as follows: Ways and means—Miss Elizabeth Cummins, Mesdames M. E. Dancy, A. H. Frank and Frank Caldwell; Miss Annie Wingerter.

Executive—Mesdames A. C. Clarke, J. F. Merriman, Joseph Spradell, Howard Hammett and S. S. Bloch; Miss Jennie Bailey. Cutting—Mesdames J. D. McFadden, M. O. Springer, M. Schmidt, A. J. Sweeney, R. Dunn.

Membership—Mesdames A. C. Whitaker, Gibson Lamb, M. Somers, J. C. Conner and Miss Mary O'Keefe. Distributing and packing—Mesdames Heber List, W. W. Gilchrist, J. C. Hupp, George Parks and Miss Sarah Baird.

Additional members received included Mrs. C. H. Duncan, Mrs. J. H. Mandel, Mrs. H. B. Irwin, Mrs. James Cummins, Dr. Harriet B. Jones, Miss Kate Hunter, Miss Lida Little. Mrs. S. Bloch's name was inadvertently omitted from the list published previously.

The committee will start to work at the tabernacle this morning, and the society will hold a business meeting every Wednesday at the same place.

OPERA HOUSE BAND OUTING. It will be a long time before the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder in the shocks, and, in the meantime, if you want to have an enjoyable time attend the cammerachtstet of the Opera House band at Wheeling Park next Wednesday evening. This musical organization has always furnished attractive entertainments, and on this occasion will not fall short of any expectations of excellence that may be indulged in. The grand concert by the band will be followed by a promenade programme of music, after which the dancers will be moved to rhythmic motions by an augmented orchestra. The concert commences on the arrival at the Casino of the 7:30 o'clock special motor.

COLORED CAMPMEETING. The camping at Whitman's grove, Benwood, July 17, will be under the auspices of the Ebenezer Baptist church. The following ministers will be there to preach on Sunday: Rev. Brown, of Rochester, Pa., and Rev. Granston, of Martin's Ferry, Ohio. One plantation song by the West Virginia Jubilee Singers.

CLOTHING—D. GUNDLING & CO.

Out of the Ordinary.

is the selling we are now doing and many are the flattering remarks that exceptionally good dressers are making about our superior lines of tailor-made

Skeleton Clothing.

There are facts about the making of skeleton clothing for mid-summer wear that are not fully appreciated by average buyers. It's the most stylish and comfortable for hot days—if properly made. No garments are worn under more severe conditions—conditions that make them look like rags in a day or two unless they are made to withstand these hardships. This kind of clothing is our greatest specialty in summer—our success this year and in past years are proof that our SKELETON CLOTHING is superior to any other product—we've studied it for years and have mastered the art.

Prices Are Low. Linen, Crashes, Serges. Blue is the popular shade.
