Another regrettable feature is that the railroad association's action puts a damper on other movements to bring big railroads to Wheeling. It was confidently expected that 15,000 visitors would attend the reunion here in September, and Wheeling people were going to show how they could take care of them and establish reputation as a city which would entertain the city to favorable consideration when bidding for other meetings of almost, at least, national importance.

The year 1898 promised to go down in history as the banner year for conventions in Wheeling, and the climax was to be reached when the boys who bore muskets on West Virginia soil, in the '60s, would rally around the camp fires again, but the expected climax will not be reached.

The big gatherings billed for Wheeling this fall will be the meeting of the Ohio River Improvement Association, and the grand lodge of the L. O. O. F. of West Virginia.

CALLED IT OFF.

The Promoters Abandon Army of West Virginia Reunion

THE TRUNK LINE ASSOCIATION

DECLINES TO CONCEDE A ONE-CENT A MILE RATE TO REUNION IN ANSWER TO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE'S ULTIMATUM—A CAUSE OF MUCH DISAPPOINTMENT TO ENERGETIC WORKERS, AND A DAMPER TO SIMILAR EFFORTS IN FUTURE.

There will be no 1899 reunion of the Society of the Army of West Virginia, and the preparations made for the gathering of the old boys in blue by the Chamber of Commerce committee have all gone for naught. The reunion was called off yesterday on receipt of a letter from Secretary William Farmer, of New York, of the Trunk Line Association, announcing that the one-cent a mile rate would not be conceded for the reunion.

This letter was received by Captain C. J. Rawling, chairman of the executive committee, and it was in answer to the ultimatum sent to the Trunk Line Association, on July 8. This ultimatum was to the effect that should the railroad association not decide to concede the one-cent rate by July 15, further negotiations would cease. Mr. Farmer wrote that the association could not grant the rate for the reunion, but granted it to the Columbus reunion last year. The roads embraced in the association are all east of the Ohio river, and Mr. Farmer, hence, it is conceded no jurisdiction at meetings in Ohio, for instance; but Mr. Farmer speaks of a committee in his letter, which gives rise to the belief that this committee may have power to grant the rate to the West Virginia reunion at Columbus last year. At any rate, the Wheeling committee's treatment has been far from satisfactory. Its ultimatum went forth to the Trunk Line Association, and it has received an answer, or one purporting to be, but sufficient to show the uselessness of further "dickering" with the railroad. Its ultimatum went forth to the Trunk Line Association, and it has received an answer, or one purporting to be, but sufficient to show the uselessness of further "dickering" with the railroad.

Another regrettable feature is that the railroad association's action puts a damper on other movements to bring big railroads to Wheeling. ## ROBBERY AT POTOMAC.

Thieves Enter McCammon's Store, and Plunder the Postoffice. Burglars pried their vocation early Wednesday morning, in Potomac, this county. The general store kept by H. I. McCammon was entered, and a large quantity of goods taken. The postoffice is in the same store, and the thieves went through all the letters. Registered matter was torn open and the money stolen. About $5 in small change was taken from the drawers.

Among the articles taken from the store were men's and women's fine shoes, neckties, penknives, men's watches, and two watches, one of which was a new gold watch. Mr. McCammon is in hopes the thieves will be apprehended in this vicinity, and it will go hard with them if they are caught, as robbing the mail is a serious offense.

The June "Mount"

"The Mount," published by the accomplished ladies at Mount de Chantal, one of the best college publications that has ever found its way to the intelligencer sanctum, comes in smiling with the June number, which is more than a mere list of all the pleasures, in twice as good. It is really the "jubilee" number, containing a most interesting resume of the fiftieth anniversary exercises of this celebrated institution, which fame and reputation is now world wide. The sisters in charge of Mount de Chantal are to be congratulated in being able to disseminate such praise as is found in the pages of the current number, coming as it does from the highest dignitaries of the church. The contents of "The Mount" are:

Salutatory, by Gene Waterhouse; Vision of Youth, by Lena Dent; The Art of Dainty, by Marie Joye; Fifty Years—A Retrospect, by Margaret Jepson; editorials; Our Jubilee, Archbishop Kain's address; Father McCarthy's address; "Alumnae"; Father Stenger's address, and Jubilee notes.

EXTRAORDINARY ATTRACTION

At Wheeling Park to-morrow Afternoon—A Vocal Innovation.

Wheeling Park to-morrow afternoon besides being a refuge from the sweltering heat of the city will afford rare entertainment for the visitors. ## FIRST SESSION

Of Prohibition Assembly Opened at the Camp Grounds

ADDRESS BY REV. DR. BABCOCK

LAST NIGHT WAS WELL RECEIVED—THE MUSIC FOR THE ASSEMBLY WAS FURNISHED BY THE DAILY QUARTETTE—REV. DR. MEAD, OF THE OLD GUARD, AS USUAL, IS IN ATTENDANCE—TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME. CAMP GROUND FEATURES.

The Moundsville Prohibition Assembly was opened last evening to an audience of several hundred people. The exercises were in charge of Rev. C. H. Mead, who has performed this duty ever since there has been an assembly meeting on the grounds.

After his address the Daily quartette sang several selections. Mr. Daily was formerly a member of the Silver Lake quartette, but its existence is ended, owing to one of the members, Mr. George Chambers, having died about two months ago. Mr. Daily has with him his two daughters and one son, and their singing is fully equal to the Silver Lake quartette.

The first sermon was preached by Rev. D. C. Babcock, D. D., of New Hampshire. His talk was a great deal on the prohibition line and he drew many illustrations on this kind of work. He also made a number of remarks on the war, all of which were of the patriotic order and pleased his audience immensely. To-day the programme will be as follows:

9:30 a. m.—Bible Reading and Consecration service.—Mrs. McClurkin, of Marietta, Ohio.

10:30 a. m.—W. C. T. U. catechism and department drill.

11 a. m.—Topic—More Effective County Organization—How it can be obtained.—Mrs. Jennie P. Sisson, Mrs. M. Anna Hall, Mrs. Judith Gordon.

Duet—Dr. and Mrs. Williams. 12 m.—Noodie prayer.

2:30 p. m.—Address by W. T. Bundick, of Virginia.

3:30 p. m.—Address by Rev. Dr. Babcock. To-morrow the first sermon will be preached by Rev. C. H. Mead and he needs no introduction to the people of this locality. In the afternoon, Rev. Dr. Babcock preaches again, while at night there will be a lecture given by M. J. Fanning, of Maryland, and illustrated with stereoscopic views.

This year the assembly building has been decorated beautifully for the meeting and the speaker's stand has been considerably enlarged. The meetings are sure to draw better, which is evidenced by the large number of families now on the camp grounds.

H. Spillman has given a concert at the assembly hall, which was attended by about three hundred people. It was given under the auspices of the ladies of the camp meeting association, and they cleared a neat sum for the venture.

The camp meeting association is considerably in debt, owing to its not making expenses on former meetings and the ladies on the grounds have assumed part of the debt. On several occasions they have held lawn fetes and other amusements which have always netted them something.

At present there are about eighty families on the grounds, and many are arriving each day. There are just 127 cottages on the grounds and they will no doubt be occupied before the first of August. Many of the cottages have been painted the past week, which adds very much to their appearance. At the gates this season Squire A. I. Peley is in charge again, while his assistant is a young son of the ground keeper, Mr. Games. The rates of admission are the same as on former years.

To-day the Wesley M. E. Sunday school, of Wheeling, will picnic on the grounds, and next Saturday there will be another picnic given by another school. Taking everything into consideration the prospects for this meeting are brighter than for any year yet and the management expects a very successful meeting.
