THE FIFTH DAY

Of the Ohio Valley Prohibition Assembly Draw

TWO VERY LARGE AUDIENCES

IN THE AFTERNOON AND EVENING—MR. FANNING'S LAST LECTURE WAS ON "AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP" AND TEEMED WITH PATRIOTIC SENTIMENT—THE ALARMING EXTENT OF THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC POINTED OUT. MR. BURDICK'S ADDRESS LAST EVENING.

Yesterday was the fifth day of the Ohio Valley Prohibition Assembly and the exercises were attended by large audiences. The programme was followed to the letter and the ladies had very appreciative audiences at their meetings.

For the afternoon, M. J. Fanning delivered his last lecture and it was very interesting. He took for his subject, "American Citizenship." His talk was very patriotic and pleased everybody who was there. In beginning he spoke of the many patriotic people and his audience being made up largely of women, he hoped that some day they would be permitted to vote. The war, he said, would bring out a closer relation with our American people. The "Reds" and "Yanks" are now fighting under one flag and it is a wonderful thing. He told of the career of President James A. Garfield, how he arose from the bottom of the ladder. This was very interesting and very instructive. This government is the first to fight for humanity and the act will go down in history. Our boys now in Cuba will profit much by the experience of their forefathers, for they know how to handle the guns and will give a good account of themselves. The patriotic man will vote the truth always, and no matter what he says when he takes his ballot he votes as he feels.

We spend seven times as much for drink as it would cost to purchase the island of Cuba. America wants freedom for the Cubans and the Prohibition party wants to free homes. Everywhere men are sacrificing their lives to serve this great cause and our temperance people are working to save people for God.

There is said to be 600,000 habitual drunkards in this country and it is said that all the gold or silver produced in our country would only pay the drink bill of this land for one hundred days. Our statesmen talk about pauper labor coming to this country, but the saloon makes more paupers. Shut off the saloons and you will not have half the population now in your penitentiaries, but you will have more Christian people.

Last night the third and last address was delivered by W. T. Bundick. This noted temperance lecturer is from Virginia, and the people at the assembly class him as one of the best lecturers of the day. This is his first year at the assembly. So good were his talks here that he has been engaged for next year at the assembly, and Rev. Mead will have him deliver a number of lectures in New York state.

To-day the programme is as follows: Bible Reading and Song Service..... Mrs. W. A. Williams Effective County Organization; How Obtained..... Mrs. Jennie Sisson and Mrs. Anna Hall Solo..... Miss Hammond Symposium—What Has the C. T. U. Done for Women and Reform..... Recitation..... Miss Harris 2:30 p. m.—Address..... Rev. C. H. Mead 3 p. m.—Address..... Lou J. Beauchamp

WHEELING PARK TO-NIGHT.

Sommernachtsfest by Opera House Band and Orchestra.

This evening an event of more than usual interest will take place at Wheeling Park, being the annual sommernachtsfest of the Opera House band and orchestra. The programme offers a delightful musical feast, besides the vocal features of Messrs. S. Emerson and Charles Zulauf, who will render several selections with brass band accompaniment. The military band concert will commence at 8:15, after which a promenade concert will be given. Dancing in the Casino will follow, for which an augmented orchestra will play. Special motors leave every hour, taking the one who departs at 7:30 o'clock ample transportation facilities for the return of the people from the park will be provided. Following is the concert programme:

March—"Love is King".....Innes Overture—"Nebucodonosor".....Verdi Vocal Solo.....Selected Polka de Concert—"The Pearl".....Kling Duett for Cornets, Messrs. Hoose and Albinger.

Excerpts from Opera, "The Serenade".....V. Herbert

THE SYMPHONY'S PICNIC.

The Symphony Society, of Zion Lutheran church, picnicked at Sycamore grove yesterday. It was a private picnic and the young men made their invited friends enjoy the day. Games and amusements were carried out throughout the afternoon and the merry picnickers returned to the city on 9 and 10 o'clock motors, after having spent a most enjoyable time.

GO TO REFORM SCHOOL.

Constable Dominick Morris leaves to-day for Pruntytown, to place in the state reform school there, two boys named Hennes and Harden, who were recently found guilty of thieving from a Sixteenth street grocery store. The boys are of tender years, but Squire Rogers, the committing magistrate, had no alternative, so the youngsters will become guests of the state.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, July 19.—The general demand in the wool market rules quiet with no material change. The call for quarter and three-eighths blood unwashed fleeces has revived again to some extent, the ruling prices being mostly at 21@22c. Australian wools are meeting with some sales at unchanged prices. The following are the quotations for leading descriptions: Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces X and above 25@26c; XX and XX above 29@30c; delaine 30c; No. 1 combing 30c; No. 2 combing 29c.

IMPORTANT RULING

Made by the Postoffice Department Relative to Forwarding and Return of Second, Third and Fourth Class Mail Matter—Rules Announced.

Important changes were recently made by the postoffice department relative to the forwarding and return of mail matter of the second, third and fourth classes. Postmaster Wise yesterday received the rules promulgated by the third assistant postmaster general, and as they are of interest to a large portion of the public, they are reported in the Intelligencer, as follows:

The following rules are promulgated for the guidance of postmasters in carrying out the order of the postmaster general of the 17th ultimo, relative to the remailing or return of undelivered second, third and fourth-class matter: 1. Before endeavoring to effect the return of undelivered matter of these classes of obvious value, the postmaster should notify the addressee of its detention, if his whereabouts be known, and thus give him the opportunity of paying the postage for forwarding. This should also be done where the matter may be of no apparent value, but where its forwarding is authorized under a general order to the postmaster given by the addressee. A blank form of notice for this purpose has been provided.

2. Matter of obvious value is held to include, not merely such as the postmaster may so regard, but all registered matter, and matter bearing return requests, or requests to be notified of the postage required for return in case of non-delivery. In all these cases, notification as to the forwarding or return of the matter must be given the sender or the addressee, as circumstances may require.

3. Where notice to the addressee as to the forwarding of matter has been given, and no provision for paying the postage is made, the postmaster may also give notice to the sender if the matter be of obvious value.

4. Undelivered registered matter of the second, third and fourth classes, as well as ordinary matter that, in the postmaster's judgment, is of value, on which postage for forwarding or returning has not been provided, must be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

5. Simple requests for the return of second, third and fourth class matter, in case of its non-delivery, being no longer appropriate, postmasters should recommend to the mailers of such matter, where the return of it is desired, the substitution of requests in the following form: "If not delivered within _____ days, postmaster will please notify—(here give name and address of sender)—who will provide return postage."
