

THE FAVORITES OF TIME.

How the Matron Preserves Her Maiden Beauty.

Has old Father Time his favorites? It would seem so. Two young girls, sisters or schoolmates, assume the responsibilities of wedlock at the same time. They are equally young, equally fair. They walk in even steps with Time for a few years, and then they are so different in appearance that they might pass for mother and daughter instead of women of equal age.

and all narcotic drugs, and preserves his virtues in any climate without the aid of syrup or sugar.

The cure of Mrs. Fisher was accomplished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Her cure is but the type of hundreds of thousands. If you want a like cure you'll find it in "Favorite Prescription" only and not in a substitute. If you want a cure you don't want a substitute. You should make any substituting dealer see that as you see it.

or it; he is kind to those who are kind to themselves. The younger looking woman will tell you she does not know how it is that she keeps her youth and fairness, she uses no cosmetic, no powder, no paint. The woman who looks so much older will say "I'm obliged to use pinkish powder. I have to cover up my yellowed skin and hide these wrinkles." If you probe a little deeper into the secrets of these women, you will find that the youthful one has learned that the best cosmetics is health, and that there can be no general health for the body which is hourly undermined by the soil ill-health of the delicate female organs. Knowing this she has taken prompt means to cure the disagreeable drains, the bearing-down pains, and the inflammations and ulcerations, which to a greater or less extent affect most women who are married and motherhood is wrought on the distinctly feminine organs.

ment and gives you exactly what you call for. Those who use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets find them superior to all other pills in their action upon the stomach, liver and bowels. They should always be taken, when indicated, with "Favorite Prescription" as they harmonize with it and promote its operation. One of the biggest books of the day is Dr. Pierce's great work, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It is big not only in bulk with its 1008 pages and over 700 illustrations, but it discusses the big things of life in a big, broad way, and in the plainest English. What so very few people know, and what every person ought to know, is gathered in this volume. It deals with the stupendous questions of the origin of life, its propagation and perpetuation by man and woman. It also deals with the hurts, injuries and ailments of the body, and points out the proper treatment. This book is sent free on receipt of stamps to cover cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper bound edition, or 31 stamps for the handsome edition bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Services will be conducted to-morrow at the First Christian church by the pastor, Rev. C. H. Oliphant. The morning topic will be "The Cross of Jesus," and in the evening "Unjust Criticisms of the Church." Prayer meetings will be held Wednesday evening.

THE OCTOBER "MOUNT"

"The Mount," the monthly magazine published during the scholastic year by the students of Mont. de Chantal academy, has just been issued for October. It is a beautiful volume, and will be brighter and better than ever. All the contributions are decidedly interesting and well written, a few of the contributors being alumnae of the Mount.

THE WHARTON TRIAL

Continued yesterday in Judge Paul's Court—Many Witnesses. The trial of the case of Mrs. Lydia Wharton vs. the executors of the estate of Jacob Snyder, deceased, continued yesterday in the circuit court, Judge Paul on the bench. During the day these witnesses testified, all in behalf of the plaintiff: Mrs. Rose Eckart, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Edna Green, Mrs. Henry Bartels, Mrs. Adaline Neal, George Culver, Mrs. Maria Lowe, Mrs. Grace Sparver, Mrs. Nettie Spargo and Harry Schmidt. All of these witnesses testified regarding the intention of the deceased that Mrs. Wharton should be provided for after his death.

AN OLD PRISONER PARDONED.

Henry Briceland, a seventy-year-old colored man, who has been a prisoner at the Western penitentiary, at Allegheny, Pa., for nearly twenty-six years, was given his liberty yesterday morning. He was sentenced from Washington county in 1871 to life imprisonment for conspiracy and transportation while traveling to and from their homes to and from posts of duty.

THE FLORIST HAS A HAPPY SIGH

Joy beams from the florist's eyes. The shop doors have a saucy bang. The motor trains a merry clang. The girls are back in town.

The past week showed fashionable society again in town ready for the reception or entertainment of any sort, theatre included, but it is yet debatable whether it is worth Mr. Rietter's while to book a legitimate musical attraction. The next two weeks will probably see Clubdom itself again, which last season proved the essential of the winter's pleasures. Outside of this feature of social brilliancy, several weddings, the Charity Ball, now removed from Christmas week to the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, to accommodate the young gentlemen having charge of the Assembly house, one of which must fall in the holiday season, that may be considered up to Christmas, the interim, of course, filled in with affairs requiring only short preliminary notice.

The first of the fashionable fall weddings was solemnized last Tuesday evening, in the Presbyterian church, of Mary Hudson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chalmers Moffat, was married to Dr. John Waddell Storer, by Rev. Joseph Speer, in the presence of friends entirely filling the prettily enhanced auditorium of the edifice. Miss Moffat was given in charge by her father and attended by her sister, Miss Blanch Quarrier Moffat, as maid of honor, the Misses Jesse Thornton, a younger sister, Elsie Whitaker, Sue M. Caldwell, Elizabeth Mendel, Louise Todd Baird and Bessie Dana, dressed in organdie, carrying large bouquets of asters, and making a pretty contrast in the bride's costume of organdie, lace insertions and satin ribbon, with short lace edged veil and bouquet of American beauty roses, was beautifully and appropriately chosen to harmonize with the simplicity, which characterized of her charming manners. Dr. Storer is one of this city's most respected younger men, son of the late Dr. John H. and Mrs. Susan Waddell Storer, of Elm Grove, and for his best man his life long friend, Arthur G. Hubbard. The ushers were Messrs. Charles W. Wilson, Tom Sweeney, Frank Berry, Sam Harper and Charles W. Paxton. A reception to the bride party and the few having intimate entrance to the circle followed the church ceremony, at the residence of the bride's parents, on South Chapline street, where, after a short journey, Dr. and Mrs. Storer will be at home.

Several festivities were planned in connection with the Storer-Moffat marriage, most prominent of which was the dinner given by Mr. Arthur G. Hubbard, at the Fort Henry Club, at the conclusion of the rehearsal of the wedding, Monday evening. Covers were laid for twenty, and every appointment was handsome. Out of town people here for the wedding were Mrs. Susan Waddell Storer, mother of the groom, Dr. and Mrs. James D. Moffat, of Washington, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dana and daughter, Miss Bessie, Mr. Keith Quarrier and Mr. Isaac Smith, of Charleston; Miss Berry, daughter of Congressman Berry, of Newport, Ky.; Miss Harrison, of Baltimore; and Mr. James Jackson, of Parkersburg, each the house guest of friends of the family.

Mrs. J. D. Culbertson and Mrs. Jacob W. Grubb, of Echo Point, elegantly entertained the first assemblage of the Married Ladies' Euchre Club yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Grubb. Among new members this season, are Mrs. Harry Cecil Whitaker and Mrs. D. Garth Hearne. Guests present were Mrs. Miss Harrison, of Baltimore; Mrs. Pratt of Elmira; Mrs. Arns, and Miss of this city, and the prize winners Mrs. Frank Hoffmann and Mrs. Peables Tatum.

Miss Florence Ott, of Echo Point, handsomely entertained a few friends at dinner Thursday, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Ott, in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Pratt, of Elmira, New York.

Miss Martha Dandridge Caldwell gave a charming "luncheon and cards" to Mr. and Mrs. Garth Hearne, Miss Elizabeth Hearne, daughter of Mr. Edwin Hearne, and Mr. William Hearne, son of Col. and Mr. Frank Hearne, just previous to the departure of the party for the east.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. Hupp interestingly entertained a number of the little friends of their daughter, Elizabeth, who yesterday celebrated her fifth birthday.

Day Nursery Day at the headquarters on Market street today, Mrs. Robert Jeffrey Reed president. A large crowd should be received.

Mrs. Margaret Daltell, of Chapline street, entertains the Monday Whistlers at her home the coming week.

The Charity Whist Club is ready for its winter work, and will meet for the first time Monday afternoon (its regular session day) at the home of Mrs. W. W. Arnett, on Fourteenth street. The ladies who have so far determined to combine charity with the enjoyment of cards another year, are Mrs. James B. Toney, Mrs. Frank J. Hearne, Mrs. S. S. Bloch, Mrs. Jacob W. Grubb, Mrs. J. P. Merriman, Mrs. S. L. Brice, Mrs. Chas. H. Toney, Mrs. W. W. Arnett, Mrs. Julius Pollock, Mrs. John Frew, Mrs. John P. Glass, Mrs. Lewis Steenrod, Mrs. Frank Stamm, Mrs. W. A. Lett, Mrs. Jennie Henderson, Mrs. William Schwertfeger, Mrs. W. W. Gilchrist, Mrs. Z. F. Robertson, Mrs. I. G. Dillon, Mrs. Della Carr, Mrs. Cyrus P. Flick, Mrs. G. A. Aschmann, Mrs. Gilmore Brown, Mrs. George K. Wheat, Mrs. A. Allan Wheat, Miss Jennie Toney, Miss Abbie Brown, Miss Almira Brown, Miss Lizzie Pennington, Miss Evelyn Jesson, the Misses Moore and Mrs. Ordeley Brannen and Mrs. Edward Stevens, of Bridgeport.

Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Aschmann, Mrs. Fred Long, Mrs. Frank J. Hearne and Miss Mamie D. Grubb leave Monday evening for Washington City, going to attend the Episcopal convention, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Thomas and Dr. and Mrs. R. Bush Swope being already there. Miss Laura Crangle Dahlstedt travels with the party, on her way to the National Park Seminary near Washington, where she will be a student for the coming school year. Dr. and Mrs. Aschmann, before returning, will visit Dr. Aschmann's mother, in New York.

Mr. Jesse W. Spedel, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spedel, of Chapline street, Henry M. Russell, only son of Mr. H. M. Russell, and George L. Rogers, son of Judge James P. Rogers, are Wheeling boys at Yale this year.

Mr. Will Vance, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Vance, left for Poughkeeps, where he takes a complete business course of study.

The Twentieth Century Girls will be entertained by Miss Eleanor Howell, at Monument Place, Elm Grove, next Thursday afternoon, the season's day for this organization.

William Hearne, only son of Col. and Mrs. J. H. Hearne, of Leatherwood, has taken up his studies again at Cornell.

Mrs. Louis Steenrod is home from a summer trip to Niagara.

Mrs. Alex. Glass and daughters, Margaret and Eleanor, are home from the mountains.

Mrs. Mary Good and daughters, Misses Janie, Lydia and Bessie, of Fourteenth street, are expected home tonight, after four months' stay at Mountain Lake Park.

Mrs. Mary Delaplaine and daughter, Miss Hulda, of Chapline street, will spend in the winter in Japan.

Mrs. John A. Topping, of Leatherwood, is home from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. McMechen are expected home from Mt. Clemens to-day, much improved in health.

Miss Flora Wilson, daughter of Mr. W. A. Wilson, of Main street, returned after a pleasant eastern trip with a party including Dr. and Mrs. Harlett and daughter, Miss Kate Hazlett.

Miss Mary Caldwell, daughter of General and Mrs. Alfred Caldwell, of Main street, will study this year at Dr. Gardner's school for young ladies, New York City.

Walter C. Sweeney, one of Wheeling's most popular young men, now a corporal in Company H, First West Virginia, and clerk of the summary court, is home from Kpoxville, Tenn., on an eight days' furlough, visiting his mother, Mrs. Andrew J. Sweeney. His company now expects to be sent to Porto Rico the middle of this month, so under those conditions the Wheeling boys will not be the way again until a year from next April.

Mr. C. Bates McLain has taken up the study of dentistry in Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Dokey is ill at the residence of her brother, Dr. J. L. Dickey, on Chapline street.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Paul, of Main street, will be grieved to learn that the condition of their daughter, Miss Lida, whose serious illness caused sincere regret, is not much better.

The club houses are arranging their winter openings. The Y. M. C. A. has an especially attractive series of attractions for that season. The girls' forenoon affair on an equally delightful plan, among them a dancing class to meet weekly, in charge of Miss Sue M. Caldwell and Miss Louise Todd Baird. Other functions occur in the shape of evening card parties, the Young Men's and Young Women's clubs are now making their winter programmes. The Island Ladies' Euchre, The Married People's Whist, The Bachelor Maids, The Debutantes, the Daughters of the Revolution, the Pedro club, the daughters of the Confederacy, the Woman's club, the Oratorio Society and the University Extension Club, of the Island, Hon. John O. Pendleton, mentor, will all no doubt be in go in a few weeks, and together with the small whist nets meeting nightly throughout the city, forecast an exceedingly busy winter for social devotees.

The little men and women will not be deprived of the pleasures of their elders, as dancing classes are now formed for that special reason. Miss Claire Handlan, who successfully managed such a class last season, has re-opened it in Odd Fellows' Hall. Miss Fannie Wheat and Miss Blanche Haase begin to-day in the Carroll Club dining room and Miss Sue M. Caldwell and Miss Louise Todd Baird begin next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the Egerton Hall, corner Market and Eleventh. Parents are cordially invited to attend these sessions, and requested to see the children promptly to the hall. All the young ladies named are recognized for their uprightness at the art, and deserving of the confidence of learners and parents.

The great social event of the month will be the wedding of Ellen Taylor Wright and William P. Wilson, to be given care of, and celebrated in the First Presbyterian church, on the 19th. The bride will be attired in the wedding gown worn by her mother, Mrs. Sue Taylor Wright, and will have but one attendant, her younger sister, Miss Sue Wright. The church ceremony is to be followed by a reception to the many friends of the contracting parties, at the home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. George R. Taylor, on Fourteenth street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will start on a European trip, which is to cover a number of months. During this time they will be greatly missed in the circles they grace.

The patriotic event of the month transpires on the 2nd, and will prove Wheeling's loyalty to the navy. It will be given honor of the coming battleship, the "American Boy." The two young ladies chosen to test the patriotic fervor of the young and older American men and women by receiving their contributions are Miss Sue M. Caldwell, daughter of the American Revolution, and Miss Fannie Wheat. Both young ladies are well known and extremely popular, and this fact, together with the underlying sentiment of the collection and the movement it is to furnish for the commemoration of American citizenship, should make the task for the two bright young women not only commendable but pleasurable.

Church affairs scheduled for the month are a musicale at the McLure House, under the auspices of the King's daughters of St. Matthew's church, and a luncheon by the first chapter of ladies of the same church, recently formed for the purpose of giving entertainments. This will be given in the lecture room of the church, as will an address to all the King's Daughters' organizations of the city by Rev. N. S. Thomas, rector of St. Matthew's, to be spoken the Sunday evening following, at the McLure House, probably the third Sunday of the month.

MUSICAL WHEELING.

Saturday afternoon—Woman's Club, A. O. U. W. Temple. Monday evening—Oratorio Society, Milligan, Wilkin & Co.'s music rooms. Monday evening—Arion Society, Arion Hall. Tuesday evening—Orpheus Society, Conservatory of Music. Thursday evening—Mozart Society, Mozart Hall.

The Cameron Concert Company called out a thoroughly appreciative audience to the Opera House last evening. Some exceptionally fine bits of musical interpretations were heard, each performer having some attractive point, and all were cordially received, while Mr. Charles Higgins, the violinist, reception amounted to an ovation. He more than shared the honors with "Cameron." His programmed numbers and encores were beautifully, expressively and masterfully executed. He will be heard with pleasure again here. "Cameron" has a pure, rich soprano voice, and uses it well. All selections were enthusiastically enjoyed. Mr. Herbert Kerr, pianist, did splendid work, showing excellence of technique. His writings are dainty, and with such accompaniment, he has some very good tones, and was especially pleasing in the "Tost" selection. All were accompanied by Inez de Costa in a manner above the average concert accompanist, thereby adding to the enjoyment of the whole. Artistically, an enjoyable evening was spent, the concert being in no way a disappointment.

The Woman's Club meets this afternoon in the A. O. U. W. Temple for reorganization. All known to be eligible were sent cards of invitation, which are to be shown when entering.

The Oratorio Society is called to meet on Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, in Milligan, Wilkin & Co.'s music rooms, on Market street. Officers are to be elected, and discussion of the coming season's study will be taken up. The concert being in no way a disappointment.

The trial of the case of Mrs. Lydia Wharton vs. the executors of the estate of Jacob Snyder, deceased, continued yesterday in the circuit court, Judge Paul on the bench. During the day these witnesses testified, all in behalf of the plaintiff: Mrs. Rose Eckart, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Edna Green, Mrs. Henry Bartels, Mrs. Adaline Neal, George Culver, Mrs. Maria Lowe, Mrs. Grace Sparver, Mrs. Nettie Spargo and Harry Schmidt. All of these witnesses testified regarding the intention of the deceased that Mrs. Wharton should be provided for after his death.

During the cross-examination of the witness Schmidt, by Mr. Russell, there was a laughable incident, one that convicted jury, lawyers, spectators and even the court itself.

"Mr. Russell was questioning the witness about a conversation or series of conversations he had had with Mr. Snyder, and speaking of one in particular, Mr. Russell said: "When was this?" The witness hesitated before replying, and then said: "It was before his death."

The witness didn't mean to be funny, but he was just the same, at least the risibilities of everybody in reach of his voice were tickled exceedingly.

"Well, I supposed that," replied the lawyer, when the laugh at his and the witness' expense had subsided.

At the suggestion of Messrs. Hubbard and Russell, Judge Paul has requested the newspapers to discontinue publishing the testimony in the Wharton case, for the reason that while the papers print the testimony there is nothing gained in excluding waiting witnesses from the court room. The Intelligencer complies with the request, but suggests that the rule be made applicable to all the papers. Yesterday afternoon there was an exception.

"It was almost a miracle. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of a terrible breaking out all over the body. I am very grateful." Miss Julia Filbridge, West Cornwall, Conn.
