When General LaFayette Visited Wheeling—The Record of

THE OHIO LODGE OF MASONS

GIVES DETAILS OF THE VISIT, INCLUDING AN ACCOUNT OF HIS RECEPTION AT A MEETING OF THE LODGE—GENERAL LAFAYETTE'S RESPONSE TO MORGAN NELSON'S ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

In speaking of the Intelligencer's reference yesterday to Gen. La Fayette's visit to Wheeling while on his tour of the United States, City Receiver Alex Forgy brought out some additional details that are of interest at this time when the youth of the land are raising funds with which to erect an American memorial to the great Frenchman and American patriot at Paris.

In a History of Ohio Lodge No. 1, A. F. and A. Masons, compiled by the late W. P. Wilson in 1876, under the chronological date, "1825," occurs the following:

"May 23, Brothers General La Fayette, George Washington La Fayette, M. Lavoisier and Colin King entered the lodge and General La Fayette was conducted to the east and was addressed by Morgan Nelson, district grand master, as follows:

"Illustrious Sir—On behalf of the brethren here assembled, permit me the pleasure of bidding you welcome within these walls dedicated to friendship and brotherly love. In common with our fellow-citizens, we cherish the warmest sentiments of admiration for the principles and actions which have marked every period of your life.

"Accept the homage of our gratitude for your arduous exertions in the great cause of American liberty. It is no small addition to our joy that you suffer us to address you by the endearing name of Brother, that while many of the monarchs of the old world exhibit toward Free Masonry the like spirit of hostility as toward the cause of human liberty, you deem it not derogatory to your dignity to level yourself with the fraternity and signify your approbation of those philanthropic principles which are the basis of our institution.

"Be pleased, sir, to accept my right hand, that ancient token of brotherly love, and allow me to express my fervent wishes that the evening of your days may prove as serene and happy as your past life has been eventful and glorious."

"Our distinguished brother, in reply, said: That he felt thankful for the kind sentiments expressed toward him; that it was gratifying for him to meet in western Virginia the same cordial reception with which his fellow brethren had often before always entertained a high esteem for the Masonic institution, but more especially since it had experienced the bitter persecutions of the European despots who had vainly attempted its destruction.

"At close of lodge our distinguished visitors were severally presented to the brethren.

The minutes book of Ohio Lodge, containing the foregoing record, was lost in the fire of November 20, 1875, which destroyed the Washington Hall and the Masonic Lodge room, but Mr. Forgy believes the copy of the record made by Mr. Wilson is a correct copy and that the visit of La Fayette was made in May, 1825.

The history further states, "September 10, 1834, the lodge was called together to join in a funeral procession, with other societies, in honor of Worshipful General La Fayette. The procession was large and numerous spectators viewed it from the sidewalks. A eulogy was pronounced by Rev. Brother John Thomas Wheat."

ABOUT PEOPLE

Strangers in the City and Wheeling People Abroad.

William Tecumseh Crawford, of this city, a private in Company M, of the First West Virginia, returned yesterday morning from Camp Poland on a sixty days' furlough. Young Crawford has been for some time attached to General Brooke's staff as orderly, and went with the general to Porto Rico, sailing from Newport News on board the transport Massachusetts July 23, and landed at Ponce on August 2. Just as the ship entered the harbor the inspiring signal, "Ponce has surrendered," was received by the Massachusetts. After securing horses, young Crawford accompanied General Brooke across Porto Rico via the military road. On the summit of the mountains 500 Spanish soldiers turned out and saluted the American commander and accompanied the party to Arroyo. Two days later the Ohio troops captured Guayama after a slight skirmish. On the third of September General Brooke and party entered San Juan, the first Americans in the capital of the island.

The Porto Ricans, says Mr. Crawford, welcomed the American invasion with the greatest enthusiasm. As the troops passed through the towns in their victorious march, the people turned out and offered fruits and drink to the Americans, and were most eager to get hold of the flag. On his voyage back to America on the Ogdun, young Crawford had an exciting experience. In the Windward passage the coal bunkers of the ship were discovered to be on fire, and it was necessary to put back into Santiago, where the fire was extinguished.

The Porto Ricans, says Crawford, are far superior to the Cubans and will make good Americans, being industrious and easily governed. He does not believe it will be necessary to keep more than one regiment there to maintain order in the entire island. The Cubans, on the other hand, are treacherous and "shifty," and it will be necessary to rule there with an iron hand. During his stay in Santiago he proffered a merchant a paper bill for a purchase, but it was refused, and upon inquiry it was learned that some unscrupulous individual had passed about $500 in worthless Confederate paper. Crawford added that there are many good gold standard arguments in Cuba and Porto Rico, where the silver standard money is worth just one-half the same amount in American currency, either gold or silver.

W. B. Caldwell, Rattlesnake, is a Windsor arrival.

J. L. Newman, of Littleton, was at the Howell yesterday.

E. C. Blayney and Mrs. C. W. Blayney, of Good Intent, were Stamm guests yesterday.

Michael Owens, of Toledo, has returned home after a visit to his father, John Owens, of South Jacob street.

Mrs. Mamie Kenney, of Sistersville, has returned home after visiting her brother, Thomas, of South Eoff street.

Mrs. Louis Zeldi, jr., of Washington, Pa., yesterday was visiting her father, Squire C. S. Greer, who is ill at his home on South Eoff street.

Mrs. S. A. Cockayne, and Mrs. Charles Schwobe, of Moundsville, are visiting Mrs. Cockayne's daughter, Mrs. T. H. Meighen, of South Jacob street.

Edgar W. Hennig, who was so badly burned by a gasoline explosion several weeks ago, is slowly recovering. He is still confined in the Wheeling hospital, but may leave next week. It will be some time before he will be able to attend to business.

City Engineer A. L. White, who has been confined to his home on the Island by a severe attack of nervous prostration, was at the city building yesterday afternoon for the first time. His friends will be pleased to learn that he is on the highway to complete recovery.

WHEELING BOY DIED

In Porto Rico Early This Month—Was in an Ohio Regiment.

Through Private William Tecumseh Crawford, of the First West Virginia regiment, who has just returned from Porto Rico, it is learned that a Wheeling young man died there on October 2. The dead soldier, John A. Walker, was formerly in the dairy business on the Island, and last spring he enlisted in the Fourth Ohio regiment. Young Crawford saw Walker at Guayama late in September, and he told him he had just come out of the field hospital. Walker gave Crawford several messages to friends in Wheeling and others to relatives living a short distance west of Bridgeport, in Belmont county.
