SPRINGFIELD MAY QUIT.

The Situation in the Ohio Towed Very Discouraging to the Fans There, and Encouraging to the Base Ball Public of Wheeling.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. SPRINGFIELD, O., Feb. 5.—President E. S. Houck and one other director of the Springfield base ball club will be at the inter-state league meeting at New Castle February 14.

The affairs of the local club could not be in a worse condition than they are. While President Houck, who is a lawyer, was in the west for a month, the grounds were sold by the sheriff, and a suit has been brought by John Coleman, director, to have the stockholders of the company made responsible for a $500 judgment given the Mad River bank.

Fans are discouraged, and so much money has been put up in the last two seasons that it may be difficult or even impossible to get started this season. At this time matters are in a chaotic condition. Manager Lew Whistley was lost simply through failure to answer his letter.

Whether or not the Springfield will fight for a retention of the franchise the future will have to determine. At any rate there is a chance for Wheeling.

BOWLING.

To-morrow evening, at Fette's, the members of the All-Wheeling bowling team will banquet in honor of the recent victory over the All-Stars of Columbus. A number of the club's friends will attend in the role of invited guests. The supper is tendered by Manager Fette. At the same time, the offer of the Columbus people for another match will be discussed and the dates and other details determined upon.

AMUSEMENTS.

If anyone is suffering from the blues let him straightway go to the entertainment given by the great Flint this week at the Grand Opera House, beginning to-night, and indulge in a hearty laugh that has no alloy in it. It comes straight from the heart in witnessing the antics that people undergo while under hypnotic influence. There is nothing equal to it for inspiring a hearty laugh and driving away ill humor. Why hypnotic suggestions should be taken so seriously is a question, but herein comes the fun. As a special inducement each person purchasing one paid 50 cent ticket will be given one lady's ticket for the opening night, if purchased in advance.

MATHEWS AND BULGER.

Tuesday will be a gala night at the Opera House, when those real funny boys, Mathews and Bulger, with their big string of associates present for the first time here their rag-time opera, "By the Sad Sea Waves," which has been voted one of the very best novelties presented this season. The piece, play or whatever you call it, is described as a rag-time opera, meaning a farcical comedy set to music, with all the accessories of chorus, scenery and costumes, and in point of numbers largely exceeding many of the opera companies now traveling. It was considered an ambitious undertaking when first broached, but now that it is sailing on the wave of success there are those who claim that nothing could fall where Mathews and Bulger are concerned. Their support includes Nellie Hawthorne, a famous English beauty; Josie De Witt and her heavenly violin; Marie Twohoy, Eva Leslie, Lizzie Sanger, Deicie Walker, Trilke Wald, Besse Challenger, Julia Ralph, May Norton, Lottie Ettenger, Elizabeth Gebervals, and Will West, Robert Vernon, Ned Wayborn, Gilbert Gregory, Gus Mortimer, W. H. Meentz, George Taber and A. H. Bell. The scenery is of the most elaborate description, the company carrying the three acts complete, while the costumes are said to be revelations of the designer's skill. The music which abounds in original numbers is likely to become very popular, and so are the boys of handsome girls who form the chorus.

"THE LATE MR. EARLY."

The company which will present Jas. M. Martin's latest and greatest success, "The Late Mr. Early," at the Opera House next Wednesday, has a really wonderful array of well-known people enlisted in the ranks of the organization. Sharp and Flat, the clever stars of the company, apparently do not believe in the too common system of trying to "be the whole show," but have surrounded themselves with what is undoubtedly one of the strongest farce-comedy casts ever gathered together. The plot of the comedy is so arranged as to allow of the introduction of any amount of specialties, and when one stops to consider the fact that there are at least a dozen members of the cast who have gained splendid reputations in the leading theatres of New York, Boston, Chicago and the other large cities of the country one can be easily convinced that the boast of the management that no such array of specialists has ever been gotten together before has a great deal of foundation in fact. The scenery and costuming of the piece is said to be of the most elaborate and costly kind. Incidentally the press of cities in which this piece has recently been given a large share of praise to the choruses and incidental music, all of which was specially arranged for this production by the well-known composer and arranger, Max Hoffman.

BELLAIRE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County. The Stewart Enamel Company at its meeting declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent cash. This company has grown and expanded until it is so much larger than the original that the declaration of the intention to increase the capital stock to $100,000 was not a surprise to any who had watched its progress. The paid up capital stock is now but $25,000, but for some time past this has been valued at more than two to one, and what little could be found for sale lately went at that figure or more. Thus the contemplation of even a more extended plant is quite a cheerful situation for Bellaire, as the energetic business has, come to be an important addition to the industries of this city.

Considerable excitement was caused about the center of town yesterday morning when word was received here that a boat loaded with two hundred quarts of glycerine had broken loose from its moorings at Mingo Junction, and was on its way down the Ohio river, as it was feared it might strike one of the piers of the railroad bridge and do considerable damage.

Fred. Williams, a fellow who moved here from Steubenville only a short time ago, was arrested Saturday by Marshal Johnston and Officer Shannafelt, and taken back to Steubenville by Marshal Selah, of that town on a charge of being a thief. He is accused of having stolen considerable quantities of brass from the Steubenville water works.

By the aid of this instrument...

The vaporizer furnishes at home efficient application of the medicated air or vapor in catarrh of the nose, throat, lungs, etc., asthma, etc. It saves frequent and expensive visits to the office.

All patients who make application during the month of February will receive one month's treatment and medicine free of charge. The aid of a specialist will be treated and supplied with medicine absolutely without pay or compensation of any kind. Patients can be treated with perfect success by the aid of our expert blank diagnosis and patient's report sheet, sent free on application.

WILL DO THE SAME FOR YOU

Or We Refund the Money. SHIRLEY, Mass., Feb. 20, 1897. Gentlemen—Please you are receiving letters of every day, but I wish to say to you that I have been troubled with Catarrh in a very bad form for many years, and during the past year have been attended by local physicians, also have bought dozens of remedies, yet none of them have afforded me any relief. When in Springfield, Mass., last week, I purchased a box of your HYOMIEI. I used it and I could not get another, and I shall at every opportunity recommend it to all afflicted with catarrh trouble in any form. Sincerely yours, A. B. SPARROW.

(Mr. Sparrow is one of the firm A. B. Sparrow & Co., publishers of direct in Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts.) Physicians all admit that the new treatment is the only one by which diseases of the respiratory organs can be cured. "HYOMIEI" is sold by all druggists or sent by mail on receipt of price.

MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS. The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor. The fire department was called out at 9:25 o'clock last night by an alarm from box 25, corner of Church and Buckeye streets. A fire had started in the north-east end of Mears' cooper shop. The firemen's aid was unnecessary, as a bucket brigade got it out in its own time. Indications point to incendiaryism, as there was no fire in that part of the building. Pieces of lumber had been piled against an inside wall of the building. Employees of the shop are positive that this lumber was put there by incendiaries.

At the meetings of Standard council No. 39 and Hiawatha council No. 208, of U. A. M., held last week, it was unanimously decided that the consolidation of the two orders would be a proper course.
