THE CLOSING DAY

Of the Scottish Rite's Annual Reunion was Concluded

WITH AN ELABORATE BANQUET

At the Hotel Windsor Last Night—It was Attended by a Large Number of the Fraternity—A Class of Twenty-one Candidates Received the Higher Degrees Yesterday. Many Masons from a Distance Here.

The elaborate banquet at the Hotel Windsor last night, where conviviality and good cheer reigned in delightful contrast to a low-descending mercury outside, was an enjoyable feature which brought to a close the second annual reunion of the West Virginia Consistory of Scottish Rite Masons. The reunion was in session three days, during which degrees from the fourth to the thirty-second inclusive, were conferred with the imposing ceremonies of the fraternity.

There are four bodies in the Scottish Rite, being as follows: The Lodge of Perfection, which embraces the fourth to the fourteenth degrees inclusive; Chapter Rose Croix, fifteenth to the eighteenth degree; the Council Kadosh, nineteenth to the thirtieth, and the Consistory, thirtieth to the thirty-second, all inclusive. McDaniel Lodge of Perfection No. 1, William H. Rose, venerable master, worked on Tuesday; Charity Chapter Rose Croix No. 1, John M. Birch, wise master, on Wednesday; Albert Pike Preceptory No. 1, James McCahon, preceptor, on Wednesday and Thursday morning, and the Consistory of West Virginia No. 1, Stephen Waterhouse, Jr., commander in chief, on Thursday afternoon and evening.

The annual reunion is held for the convenience of Master Masons residing outside of Ohio county, so that they may receive the degrees in a shorter time than the usual manner. There were twenty-one candidates in the class who took these high degrees, and they were as follows:

Louis Bertschy and H. C. Franzheim, of Wheeling; Thomas C. Murphy, W. C. Mawhinney, Henry Heckman and Geo. M. Allender, of Mannington; J. P. Dunbar, of Pt. Pleasant; W. E. Cummings, of Sistersville; R. M. Francey, of Toronto; O. George M. Creel and William A. Willhide, of Grafton; James Simpson, J. W. Dyson, John W. Solley, James J. W. Taylor, of Parkersburg; Dr. S. M. Stille, of Dallison; W. Van James, J. and W. H. Cheeks, of Wellsburg; Edward A. Bream, of Mannington; Louis H. Clement, of Wheeling, and Dr. J. W. McDonald, of Benwood.

The banquet at the Windsor began at 10 o'clock. Illustrious Commander Stephen Waterhouse, Jr., was toastmaster, and Grand Secretary Thomas M. Darrah read a list of the brothers unable to attend. The principal address was made by Dr. John W. Morris, deputy inspector general. The Opera House orchestra rendered a pleasing programme of music during the progress of the banquet, and the menu reflected Caterer Carney's best efforts.

Telegrams containing regrets from the following who were unable to be present were read:

Major George A. Burt, Parkersburg; John C. Ribhoffer, Chicago, Ill.; W. W. Van Winkle, Parkersburg; Judge L. N. Tavenner, Parkersburg; John Blackshere, Mannington; Charles E. Wells, Glover's Gap; Hon. O. S. McKinney, Charleston; Thomas J. Brady, Pittsburgh; James Isaac Buchanan, Pittsburgh; J. H. Howard, Prince; Rev. R. R. Swope, Biltonore, N. C.; R. M. Summers, Columbus, O.; Captain H. H. Robb, New Cumberland; Dr. S. N. Myers, Martinsburg; W. M. Murray, New Cumberland; R. J. A. Foreman, Parkersburg; Hon. J. V. Blair, West Union; George Debelit, Fairmont; Elroy S. Easton, Mannington.

The list of guests and their respective Masonic degrees, was as follows:

MUSICAL WHEELING.

The concert given by the pupils of Prof. Riccardo Ricci, in the Carroll club auditorium, was a success from every standpoint, and Mr. Ricci has cause to be gratified with the accomplished work last night. The concerted singing of the class and quartette showed study. The duet by Mr. Baum and Mr. Jamieson was splendidly delivered. The trio by Miss Caldwell, Miss Grubb and Signor Ricci was an especial gem. In the solo portion, Musical Wheeling had a charming representation of its younger clientele in Miss Harriet Dalzell, Miss Martha Caldwell and Miss Ada Graham, each sweetly rendering the selection assigned. The gentlemen of the class, Mr. Jasper Baum, in "Honour and Arms"; Mr. Harry Jamieson, in "Dio Possenti"; Mr. Danvers, in "Ah, 'Tis a Dream," did noteworthy work.

Miss Marie Grubb, always pleasing on a concert stage, was in good voice, and sang with fine dramatic effect a magnificent number, "Mon Coeur S'Ouvre a ta Voix." Miss Sue M. Caldwell, a prominent member of the Woman's Club, again last evening proved her right to be named among the city's leading singers. Her selection, "Mia Picciolla," was a beautiful one, and her rendition artistic. Mrs. Peebles Tatum, possessor of one of the finest voices counted in Musical Wheeling, was heard with genuine pleasure. Her interpretation of Tosti's "Spring" was exceptionally good. Miss Martha Ott's voice is full of beauty, and the ease with which it is used promises much. The number allotted her was "Mattinata," by Tosti, and was effectively sung. Miss Letha Frazier, whose pure voice is unusually even, had the last solo of the evening, "Woo Me, No!" and rendered it with much style. The accompaniments by Mrs. Ricci were sustainably given. An enthusiastic audience greeted each performer with merited applause.

WELL FED, WELL BRED.

Proper Food Makes Brainy Men and Beautiful Women.

To know just what to eat is a problem for many people who find their strength and health not keeping up to a proper stage. From food we must expect our bodily nourishment and not from drugs. True, a physician's care is required at times, but the true physician will always seek to put his patient on properly selected food and drink.

A food expert has discovered Grape-Nuts by experimenting on the treatment of grains to artificially pre-digest the starches (the principal part). Grape-Nuts as now made by the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., of Battle Creek, Mich., and sold by grocers generally, is a delicious dainty, suitable particularly for the brain worker, as it quickly supplies the parts of food the body needs to supply the daily loss produced by brain work. Unless the right food be furnished and properly digested, the individual discovers a gradual failing, and some form of disease sets up.

Users of Grape-Nuts discover that they assist in the digestion of cream and other food, and that a "well-fed feeling" follows their use.
