

A REMARKABLE DISAPPEARANCE.

All London was tremendously excited over the matter; that is to say, all the part of London which took an intelligent interest in all that was passing in the great world. Mile. Reine D'Alvay, the famous cantatrice, who had won the applause of Vienna, in St. Petersburg, and last, though assuredly not least, in Paris, had vanished.

captured and taken on board a ship. It is infamous. Where am I? "Would you be so good as to step up on deck and see where you are?" She followed him and sat down on a high deck chair, while the duke leaned against the bulwark and lighted a cigarette.

The Ills of Children.

Dr. Hartman offers his advice to parents on the treatment of coughs and colds

EARLY to guard against colds. Nearly all the ill children begin with taking cold. If your child catches cold don't wait a moment before attacking that cold.

To the ignorance or neglect of parents is due the fatal termination of many children's complaints.

If you are not informed as to the proper course to pursue to drive off a child's cold, write to Dr. Hartman, president of the Surgical Hotel, Columbus, O., for advice, and ask for some of his free books which contain the most pertinent facts about colds and coughs and all catarrhal diseases.

Per-ru-na, Dr. Hartman's great prescription, is wholly vegetable. It wards off colds entirely if taken at the beginning in proper doses. It breaks up settled colds quickly; it is scientific and safe; there is no mystery about it. Dr. Hartman's books tell just how it acts and why. All druggists sell it.

Mrs. C. T. Rogers, Elgin, Ill., says: Dr. S. W. Hartman, Columbus, O.

DEAR SIR:—Your medicine saved my baby's life. We stopped all treatment but yours, and now he is a beautiful boy. It was certainly a miracle.

Mrs. Becking, East Toledo, O., writes to the Per-ru-na Medicine Co.:

DEAR SIR:—Per-ru-na is the best medicine I ever had in my house. My children had a bad cough, and one of them had the lung fever. I cured them all with Per-ru-na.

Proper knowledge of the treatment of coughs and colds is of the first importance to parents. This knowledge is offered free. All catarrhal diseases succumb to Per-ru-na.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Wheeling engagement of Sol Smith Russell will take place next Wednesday evening, at the Opera House, when Mr. Russell will be seen in his new comedy by Charles Klein, called "Honorable John Grigsby." The following is the cast:

John Grigsby, Jr. Sol Smith Russell
John Grigsby, Sr. William Farnum
Mrs. Grigsby Alfred Hudson
Meg Ronalds James Lackaye
Nelle Ogden William Sampson
John Grigsby, Sr. William Sampson
Harold Marston Lionel Barrymore
Nelle Ogden Florence Rockwell
Mrs. Marston Alice Thiel
Mrs. Ogden Fannie Addison Pitt

Although this play is in no sense an historical play, the actor and author have constructed and staged the new production so as to make it interesting historically. The scenes are laid in Illinois, in 1850, when the commonwealth was stirred up as was the entire Union, over the question of slavery.

James Ogden is a southerner who despises his wife, moves north from New Orleans and marries another. The comicality of a compromise measure which makes Illinois a slave law is questioned. The opposition to the law is aroused by Meg Ronalds, a supposed orphan, who teaches a school of negro youths, and his political coadjutors.

A cardinal point in the coming production of "Faust" is its magnificent scenic completeness. Never in the history of the famous play has it been presented here in as perfectly uniform a manner as now. From the time the curtain rises upon the dark sepulchral cell of Doctor Faustus until it falls upon the beautiful tableaux of the "Apotheosis," it is a series of elaborate spectacular transformations, ranging from ecclesiastical solemnity to diabolical weirdness. Special attention has been given to the electrical and mechanical features. In the garden scene an electrical display of dazzling splendor is introduced, pronounced to be the most novel ever presented upon the stage.

Again in the broken scene, all the skill and ingenuity of the stage mechanism's art are brought into requisition in addition to a representation of many new and startling electrical effects. As a positive guarantee that these effects will be presented as advertised, two complete sets of batteries are carried by the company, so that in the event of an accident occurring no disappointment will be experienced in witnessing this, the greatest spectacular production of "Faust" ever staged in the American stage. Lewis Morrison, the original and great "Mephisto" will appear at every performance in the character of the great black fiend, and will upon this occasion make his farewell bow in this wonderful play. The supporting company is of exceptional merit and the musical features are especially meritorious. Mr. Morrison, in "Faust" will appear at the Opera House next Monday, April 24.

"THE SLEEPING CITY." Real life depicted on the stage is always pleasing and plays with a human story, reasonable plot, telling humor and brisk action catch the fancy of the people. To this class belongs "The Sleeping City," Mr. A. C. Scamman's comedy, which will be seen here after dark, which will be seen here. Picturesque and realistic scenes will be shown, among which are Battery Park, Hudson river docks, burning American flag, a good deal of scenery and a number of ingenious stage accessories are carried for the proper representation of the great city of New York. A crowd of unusual ability. Incidental to the action some pleasing specialties are rendered, which add to the enjoyment. At the Grand, commencing next Monday.

is often one of the most distressing after-effects of the Grip. It may also be caused by overwork, worry, mental strain or excesses of almost any nature. Whatever the cause, a debilitated nervous system means that the nerves lack nutrition. Feed the nerves and life will renew its joys for you.

The best nerve food, and the most valuable tonic (because it both builds up the blood and strengthens the nerves) is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Hundreds of worn-out, depressed men and women have been made strong-nerved, ambitious, energetic and healthful by this remedy.

Among the well-known men of the newspaper profession is F. J. Lawrence, of 45 Fourth Avenue, Detroit, Mich., who for the past eleven years has been at his desk every day. He says:

"At one time I was in such a condition that my physician said I would have nervous prostration; that I would have to stop my paper work or I would go to pieces if I persisted in doing it, as I was destroying what nerve force I had left. I lost flesh and had a complication of ailments which baffled skillful physicians. An associate recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and I gave them a trial. I can't say that I received any benefit from the first box, but derived very good results from the second. They gave me strength and helped my shattered nerves so that I could get a full night's rest."

A great deal of pain in the small of the back I attributed to a derangement of the kidneys. For this complaint Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People worked wonders. Soon after I began taking them regularly, the pain ceased, and I felt like a new man. I am greatly encouraged from the results of using a few boxes and am confident that the pills will work a complete restoration of my former condition."

knows just how to steer a vessel to bring it safely through the shoals and out into the open. Just so the Encyclopaedia Britannica is the one absolutely reliable guide for the voyage of life. One cannot go wrong if its teachings are followed. It tells the mistakes men have made; how others have succeeded and why. An intelligent man gets good from the experiences of others and steers clear of the rocks they ran against. The very presence of the Encyclopaedia Britannica in a house gives the place an intellectual tone. A library of thousands of volumes does not offer such an opportunity for successful home study and development as this masterpiece of literature. There is no more instructive reading on earth than that contained in its 30 volumes. To a life whose current runs toward the future, this great work is indispensable. Just now you can secure the Paris Shirt Waist of Nainsook From Harper's Bazar.

A very pretty shirt-waist, and one designed especially for this fabric, is of nainsook, with pointed yoke of machine embroidery. The pattern, published by Harper's Bazar, where the shirt-waist appears, consists of back and front yoke, a separate band or box-pleat for the center front, tucked sleeve pattern, and pattern for lower part of back and front of waist. The lower part of the waist is laid in quarter-inch tucks, turning toward the center from each side, which entirely grille the body. The tucks are not traced, but measurements are carefully taken, so that the paper pattern indicates the exact amount of material required to get the effect shown in the illustration. The sleeves have four groups of three tucks each, extending from shoulder to cuff, lines for which are marked by performances in the pattern. The cuffs are plain and rounded on the corners, and the collar-band is shaped to the neck. The box-pleat may be made separately or attached upon the bodies, as may be preferred. When made separately, it is stitched on both sides and has five eyelet holes down the center. The waist is finished under this band by plain hems, which should also be closed by eyelet-holes. A pattern of the standing collar does not accompany that of the bodies. This bodice design will prove a very attractive one for light fabrics, such as batistes and lawns, fine dotted Swiss or other nainsook.

To make this shirt-waist 2 1/2 yards of nainsook, 20 inches wide, will be required; also 1/2 yard of 2 1/2-inch embroidery, and 1 1/2 yards of insertion for finishing edge of yoke.
