DISOUSED DANGER.

Hunters sometimes hide themselves in the disguise of a cow, and thus make their way into the very midst of the most cautious game. The mode of this operation is shown in the picture. In a similar manner consumption hides itself in the disguise of a throat or bronchial affection, making its way finally to the lungs, where the infectious germ attacks the victim's life. A stubborn cough, bronchitis and other throat troubles are the first steps toward this deadly malady. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will prevent consumption, curing every contributing cause. Time and again, it has cured what local physicians have pronounced well-developed consumption. It makes the stomach healthy, the liver healthy, the blood healthy. It is a rejuvenating tonic, which makes the weak strong; puts ambition into tired people, puts flesh on thin bodies, and vigor into shrunken veins. It is a peculiar medicine in that its properties are preserved in any climate without ryp, sugar or alcohol entering into its composition. It does not create craving for injurious stimulants. It is the personal prescription of Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose widespread experience and success are at the service of the public without cost. Anybody, anywhere can consult him free.

"I will write you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has done for me," says George H. Lecher, Esq., of Fortia, Pa. Co., Ky. "Thirteen years ago I was wounded by a ball passing through my lungs. I have had a bad cough almost ever since with shortness of breath, and I was very easy to take cold, the slightest change of weather developed a cough which so bad I would have to sit up in bed all night, could not eat or sleep at times, was all run down, could not work at all. A few months ago I began using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It did me good. It has done me."

"I am glad to give this remedy for constipation in Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets."

The mistake given at the Methodist church last evening under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Hobensack, was one of the most enjoyable entertainments given here this season. The house was full to overflowing, the advance sale of tickets being over 500. The audience was well pleased, and much credit is due Mrs. Hobensack, and each performer for the excellent programme rendered in such a masterly manner.

The reception tendered the members of the Thimble Race yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Bert Blackford, on North Fourth street, was one of the most pleasant social events of the week. About thirty members of the club were present, besides a few invited guests, and the afternoon was spent in a most charming manner. Tempting refreshments were served.

The fire department was called out last evening by a slight blaze in the rear end of the house occupied by W. J. Morgan, on Walnut street. It was caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove, but was extinguished before much damage was done.

Miss Jennie and Margie Sterling, of Pittsburgh, will arrive here to-morrow to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Cockraft, on Center street, for a few days.

Miss Nettie Swindler returned to her home in Clarlington yesterday, after a week's visit with the family of G. W. Hill, on Broadway.

Mrs. Mary Hartley, of Anderson, Ind., arrived here yesterday, summoned by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. John Williams.

Mrs. William Clark, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mart Douglass, on North Fourth street.

Mrs. Robert Williams and daughter, Miss Fannie, of St. Clairsville, are the guests of James Murdock and family.

Mrs. Paul Morrison and Miss Lena McKay leave Tuesday for Mount Pleasant, O., to spend two weeks with friends.

A. M. Boyd, an officer from Seio, was in the city yesterday in search of a prisoner who had escaped from jail.

Mrs. James McBride and daughter, Miss Mattie Sweeney, of Upper City, Ill., are visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. William McWilliams is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Will Martin, at Mountsville.

Frank Weaver, of Morgantown, W. Va., is the guest of Thurman Selby, on Fifth street.

THE STRIKE SITUATION.

The Late Conferences Were Generally Discussed Yesterday.

The exclusive publication in yesterday's Intelligencer of particulars of the conferences held by business men, directors of the company and strikers' representatives, in an effort to settle the street car strike, was a matter that was generally discussed throughout the city yesterday, and of course there is a diversity of opinion as to the merits of each side's stand.

It was stated that there was another effort yesterday to effect a settlement, and that a meeting of certain interested parties was held in the A. O. U. W. building during the afternoon, but no particulars of such a conference, if held, could be obtained, except that both sides are still as far apart as before.

The evening paper attempted to deny that conferences were held early in the week, as detailed by the Intelligencer, and then proceeded to make itself ridiculous by admitting in the succeeding sentence that there was an effort made to settle the strike.

The labor mass meeting contemplated for some time by the street car strikers and the Trades Assembly will occur next Wednesday night, both organizations deciding definitely on the date at a joint meeting held last night. Last week there was talk of the meeting for this week, but the date announced is a certainty. The meeting will be an open-air affair, located at the corner of Seventeenth and Chapline streets, and among the speakers to be invited are President Shaffer, of the Amalgamated Association; Patrick Dolan, of the Mine Workers' union; District Factory Inspector Carney, all of Pittsburgh; and Rev. C. M. Oliphant, of this city. The meeting, of course, will be in the interests of the striking street car men.

CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

From the Street Car Strikers' Executive Committee.

To the Public:

Inclined by the article, entitled "A Hopeless Outlook," as appearing in the Intelligencer of May 25, while our union has not been officially notified of the conference alleged to have been held by the business men of Wheeling and the directors of the Wheeling Street Railway Company, we may take the statement for what it admits, as the result of the conference, and it cannot fail to show that the company and its directors have no consideration for the public or the business element of the city of Wheeling.

We believe the business element of the city will appreciate the encouragement they received from the strikers in their effort to effect a settlement on what they regarded as most conciliating terms, and we are impressed that the prompt rebuff from the directors will be properly resented by good citizens.

This vicious stubbornness and attitude exhibited by the management of the company will place the directors in their proper light, and reaffirm the recent statement of this executive board relative to the position of the company's directors. As many are yet undecided as to the advances made by the company, we desire again to state that the company at no time ever made a proposition of any kind to the strikers, and the only conciliatory proposition they have ever put forth is that the directors would pay 17 1/2 cents per hour for operating their cars; that they would retain at all hazards the non-union men, and employ such other men as they pleased, without regard to their unionism. Not one of the old men was ever assured of reinstatement. The company has never consented to recognize the union, nor has it ever offered to reinstate the members of our union at 17 1/2 cents per hour.

On the other hand, the representatives of the non-union men have so generously supported the cause of justice, have made many efforts to effect an honorable adjustment of the differences, and as many times their advances have been received with ignoring contempt on the part of the directors.

The citizens have been appalled at the conduct of the company in placing men upon the cars whose incompetency is indicated by the character of their work, and whose records in many instances are portrayed in the annals of the criminal court of the city. The citizens do not appreciate this injection into their midst of a class of men, non-unionism, and they will resent it by their continued support of the cause of right and justice.

We desire to state that we have taken no part in any conference where directors of the company were present, since April 30, 1899; and we were not have been held between the business men and the company's directors. It is true we have held informal conferences with business men, however. Respectfully,
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE LOCAL UNION NO. 103.
