WHEELING, OCTOBER 24, 1899.

The Transvaal Question.

There is no doubt that the preponderance of sympathy in the South African troubles of Great Britain is with the Boers. It has been excited solely on a superficial knowledge of just what the war is about.

After an extended review of the history of the Boers the writer comes down to the real cause belli. He says: "When the Transvaal National Union made its demands for reform in 1895 the franchise of naturalized citizens was a delusion."

The franchise of naturalized citizens was a delusion. Only first-class burghers could sit in the First Raad or vote for its members, and they alone could take part in the election of a president, who was virtually an autocrat.

Such are the expressions of labor leaders, all strong union men, and they ought to have weight. As Senator Hanna has said the matter is purely a business one, and has no part in politics.

To understand the full importance of such figures it is necessary to bear in mind the great growth of the country. In 1882 it had only about 64,000,000 inhabitants. Now there are nearly or quite 74,000,000.

Such facts are utterly destructive to the theories and plans of the silverites. They make the arguments of the Bryan campaign ridiculous. They will absolutely forbid the pushing forward of inflationists in the great struggle of next year.

As to Trusts.

Senator Hanna has been the target for all kinds of assault from the opposition political party, and many of the accusations have been of an indiscriminate and irresponsible character.

The question is not a political one. It is, on the other hand, a purely business one. The United States may build up an export trade and reap the profits accruing from the disposing of their products in Oriental markets.

Speaking to an audience at Cleveland, composed mainly of workmen he proceeded to show that many of the industrial combinations that have recently been effected have the endorsement of labor leaders.

The trust question is an old one. Its influence has been used as one of the exhorting features for organizing labor among iron and steel workers for more than a quarter of a century.

Central Army showed that they, like all the other soldiers who have come into contact with the Filipinos, realize the fact that the first duty of this country is to put down the uprising.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

No woman has any beauty to brag of. Genius is talent with its sleeves rolled 'way up.

By the time a man has learned the proper way to treat a wife he is too old to want one.

As a general thing, a woman is wise enough to pretend to believe her husband when he tells her she was his first love.

OUT OF MOUTHS OF BABES.

One night little four-year-old Flossie was being put to bed and after repeating her usual evening prayer, much to her mother's astonishment, she added: "And please make me a better girl; and you might as well make my papa and mamma better, too—if you possibly can."

Little Bessie, who was visiting in the country, had her own ideas about some things. "Where is the policeman, grandpa?" she asked. "Why, my dear," replied the old gentleman, "we have no policemen in the country."

"Mamma," said little Willie, "I'm afraid I was awful naughty to-day." "Why do you think so?" asked his mother. "Cause I've got an awful stomach ache," answered the little fellow. "Perhaps it was the pie you ate," said the mother. "Oh, no," replied Willie, "the pie was too good to behave in that manner. It must be me."

Johnny, aged six, is a wise son who not only knows his own father, but his uncle, as well. "Now, Johnny," said the teacher, "if your father can do a piece of work in one hour and your Uncle Tom can do it in one hour, how long would it take both of them to do it?" "Two hours," answered Johnny, "including the time they wasted in arguing about how it should be done."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Wealthy relatives sometimes enable a man to deal in futures.

The faster a man's gait the sooner misfortune overtakes him.

About nine new women out of a possible ten are old women painted over.

Speaking of fruit, the first apple caused a lot of trouble for the first pair.

A man with but one idea is sometimes worse off than a man with no idea at all.

The silent man may be a mine of wisdom, but a talkative fool sometimes explodes the mine.

It is only in accord with the eternal fitness of things that the crook should always be on mischief bent.

It is his willingness to pay a good rental that gives his Satanical majesty the choice of apartments in some mansions.

The man who goes through life kicking like a mule invariably lacks the force which renders that animal's kick effective.

According to a Paris fashion note this is to be a "velvet year." With the politicians it will be more widely known as a "canvas year," but the successful candidates will eventually land on velvet.—Chicago Daily News.

PASSING PLEASANTRIES.

The preacher doesn't always take it as a sign of approval when he sees members of the congregation nodding.—Tit-Bits.

Lushington—I felt like a king last night. Askins—How do you feel this morning? Lushington—Like the deuce.—Puck.

Mistress—Another soldier has called on you, Jane. I thought you had only one sweetheart. Cook—No, mum, two. I have one "on the reserve" as they say in the military.—Tit-Bits.

His Favorite.—She—There is nothing I like in a play so much as love and patriotism. What is your taste, Freddy? He—I have always thought well of the soubrette.—Detroit Free Press.

Would Take Action.—"Do you know who was the originator of the con song?" "Of course I don't. Do you think I would be sitting around in this peaceable fashion if I did?"—Chicago Times-Herald.

Customer—So you sell these watches at ten shillings each. It must cost that to manufacture them. Jeweller—It does. Customer—Then how do you make any money? Jeweller—Repair 'em.—Tit-Bits.

Sordid Inference.—"What pictures of beauty, what perfect gems of poetic sentiment one can see in these falling autumn leaves! What do they suggest to you, dear?" "Coal bills."—Detroit Free Press.

He—I noticed that one of the leading golf-players at the recent feminine championship contest was ruled off the course because she was offered some advice about her play by her husband. She—it seems to me it would be no more than fair to give the women with husbands a reasonable handicap.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

After the Boom.—"When I came to this town," said the man on the dry goods box, "everything I had in the world was tied up in a red bandanna handkerchief." "And now?" asked the tourist, who was waiting for a train. "And now," replied the man, "everything I've got in the world is tied down with mortgages."—Chicago Tribune.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured, with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifier, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT.

Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney Remedy.

ITS MARVELOUS SUCCESS IN ALL KIDNEY, BLADDER AND URIC ACID TROUBLES.

To Prove for Yourself the Wonderful Merits of This New Discovery, Every Intelligencer Reader May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Absolutely Free by Mail.

What your kidneys need is a gentle, healing, tonic influence, that will soothe their irritability and gently regulate them. The only thing that will do this is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney Remedy.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these useful organs.

What more natural? The kidneys filter and purify the blood.

When they don't your whole body must suffer. If you are sick, doctor your kidneys, because as soon as they are well they will help all the other organs to health.

The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar bottles. Make a note of the name, SWAMP-ROOT, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

You may have a sample bottle of this famous kidney remedy sent free by mail, postpaid, by which you may test its virtues for such disorders as kidney, bladder and uric acid diseases, and urinary troubles, obliged to pass water frequently night and day, smarting or irritation in passing, brickdust or sediment in the urine, constant headache, backache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, indigestion, nervousness, skin trouble, anaemia, Bright's disease, neuralgia, rheumatism, bloating, irritability, worn-out feeling, lack of ambition, loss of flesh, sallow complexion. If your water, when allowed to remain undisturbed in a glass or bottle for twenty-four hours, forms a sediment or settling or has a cloudy appearance, it is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need immediate attention.

The famous new discovery, Swamp-Root, has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief, and has proved so successful in every case, that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of the Intelligencer, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent absolutely free by mail. Also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and containing some of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women who owe their good health, in fact, their very lives, to the wonderful curative properties of Swamp-Root. Be sure and mention the Wheeling Daily Intelligencer when sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
