Something New

For Dewey Day.

Thursday of this week will be a day long to be remembered in the history of our city. Admiral Dewey, the hero of Manila, will be here. Lieut. Doddridge, the promising Wheelingite, will also be here. Wheeling will be the Mecca of thousands of strangers from far and near on this, the 16th, anniversary of the birthday of the "Father of His Country." Streets, business and private houses promise to be decorated as never before. Are YOU ready for this great event? If not, we can quickly help you.

New Spring Jackets.

Advance arrivals are an improved continuation of the short styles that proved so popular during the winter. Three descriptions:
 Notched Eton Jacket of lustrous black Venetian Cloth, lined with best Taffeta—facing is of same material, tucked and hemstitched, which also forms part of the revers—double breasted, semi-tight fitting, with crocheted buttons and loop fastenings—$19.75.
 Single breasted, fly front, black Cheviot Jacket of dull finish, Taffeta lined, handsomely tailored—very jaunty—$9.95.
 Single breasted Caster Covert Jacket, self colored satin lining—$7.90.

Some winter styles here suitable for spring wear at ONE-THIRD PRICE.

New Spring Waists.

The other day we told you a little about the new Silk Waists—above illustration shows you one of these. To-day any number of new Wash Shirt Waists here to show you, some of them suitable for immediate wear. No yoke to the new waists this year. The most advanced styles have drooping cuffs and an entirely new style of pointed stand-up collar. Tucked, hemstitched, lace and embroidery trimmed ones are very effective.
 Grand showing of R. & G. Corsets in big window with new Suits, Jackets and Waists.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Opera House to-night—Vogel & Deming's Minstrels.

Grand Opera House to-night—"A Woman in the Case."

After all Mrs. Dewey is to accompany the admiral to Wheeling.

The old soldiers are the leading division in the "Dewey Day" parade.

An infant daughter of Albert S. Arkie, of the Eighth ward, is dangerously ill with pneumonia.

Hales William Weatherall, a native of England, was admitted to citizenship by Judge Hervey yesterday.

The case of W. J. Cotts vs. George W. Eckhardt et al. will come up in the circuit court. The suit is on a note.

To-morrow night the All Come club will dance at Meyer's hall, on the South Side, for which Prof. Long will play.

The Elgin Club gave a largely attended and enjoyable dance at Eyrilian Castle last night for which Prof. Long furnished the music.

The pupils of the high school were out on parade yesterday. They are drilling for "Dewey Day" and have become adept at marching.

The Cecilia Lodge, composed of South Side young ladies, gave a highly successful and enjoyable supper and dance at Mozart hall last night.

Members of Wheeling Lodge No. 114, K. of P., are called to assemble at the castle hall, at noon, Thursday, to participate in the "Dewey Day" parade.

The Knights of St. George held a meeting Sunday afternoon, and made preparations for receiving Dewey on Wednesday evening, and for the reception of visiting knights.

The scholars of Lincolnton Institute will take the cannon, "Little Tip," to the summit of Chapline hill Thursday, where they will fire seventeen rounds in honor of the coming of Dewey.

The La Belle Lodge No. 2, of the A. O. U. W., will celebrate their twenty-sixth anniversary at Mozart hall, on the 27th instant. The lodge is in a prosperous condition, and numbers 210 members.

Thousands of West Virginians will take a peep at Dewey next Thursday in Wheeling. The hospitality of Wheeling is proverbial, and the great admiral will not regret his visit to the "Nail City."—Pleasants County Leader.

Governor Atkinson has appointed the following Wheeling men to national conventions as representatives for this state: R. B. Battelle, to the Pan-American Congress; George A. Flacum, to the National Food Congress, and H. P. McGregor, to the National Civic Federation.

The remains of Martin A. Blinn, a former operator at the local office of the Postal Telegraph Company, who died at San Antonio, Texas, February 14, arrived at Steubenville, via Pacific Express Company, last evening. The funeral will occur at Steubenville, where the deceased's parents reside.

In the "Dewey Day" excitement the fact that the annual meeting of the West Virginia Society of Sons of the Revolution is to be held here Thursday has been lost sight of almost. The session will be held at 2:30 a. m., in the rooms of the chamber of commerce.

All lovers of animals will be glad to know that Mrs. John K. List's late visit to Parkersburg was in the interest of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, which is to be strengthened and made more efficacious by securing a state charter. There are instances of cruelty to be seen daily on the streets of this city that call for immediate interference. The credit of this humane movement in Parkersburg must be given to the women, and it is to be hoped this enterprise will meet with great success.—Parkersburg News.
