

The Social Side

The poet climbed the sanctum stair, To seek the editor in his lair. His hair was long and his collar soiled, And his breath grew short, as up he toiled.

Chamberboro, Pa., the former home of Mrs. Neill. The Married Ladies' Euchre Club will give an entertainment next Friday evening in Echo Point barn.

Invitations to meet socially were not much in evidence this week, neither will the coming one be full of overflowing with programmed hospitality.

The Married People's dancing class will meet at Arion hall next Tuesday evening. Mrs. John C. Ribbaldaff, now of Chicago, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Peedles Tatum.

The Woman's Musical Club meets for rehearsal at its rooms in the I. O. O. F. building this afternoon. Miss Alice Bates, of Spring Grove, is entertaining a house party in honor of Miss Mary Gardner.

Society, in which is massed a large number of women who personally consider themselves at considerable self sacrifice to brightening and bettering the condition of many, young and old, feels itself honored in the selection of Mrs. A. J. Clark, of North Main street, to represent it at Topeka, Kans., during the national conference of Charities and Corrections.

Money is being constantly dedicated in gratifying extent toward the Day Nursery Building fund by the charitably inclined men and women of the city who have no time to personally give at benefit-entertainment times.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pollock handsomely entertained the Island Whist Club Thursday evening at the Pollock residence on North Chapline street.

Thursday evening, May 17, at Wheeling Park Casino, will occur the closing exhibition of the children's dancing series conducted by Professor Delbruge.

Miss Sue M. Caldwell entertained the Spinners beautifully Thursday afternoon. The entire prize winners were Mrs. John H. Storer, Miss Mary Brockmeyer and Miss Donnelly, a visitor in the city.

An affair which is creating considerable interest at present is the coming shirt waist sale, to be given Thursday, May 10, under the auspices of the ladies of the First Presbyterian church.

Much interest is manifested in the initial entertainment to be given on May 8th by The Rabble Wise Personal Aid Guild. This society has been organized for personally attending the poor.

It is proposed for Wednesday, May 30, (Memorial Day) by the Cottillon set of the city, that a morning dance, hours 9 a. m. to 1 p. m., be given at the Park Casino.

The Pythian fair will close to-night, after a successful week's run, at the Pythian Castle. The features this evening will be the awarding of the prizes contested for and the reading of the primary returns from the stage.

Whatever others may think of the shirt waist as a fixed fashion, manufacturers throughout the country are indicating by the establishment of large plants that they are of the opinion that the shirt waist is destined for a life of many years to come.

It was first intended to announce the winners in the contests last night, but it was thought best to reserve this feature until this evening. A beautiful doll, a bicycle and many other attractive articles are to be chanced off.

Mr. Frank M. Archer, of Huntington, and Miss May Byrd Williams, of Harrodsburg, Ky., were married on Wednesday, at Trinity P. E. church, Lexington, Ky. They will be at home at Bramwell, W. Va., after a trip in the east.

AMUSEMENTS. Last night, at the Opera House, the "Why Smith Left Home" company gave one of the most enjoyable performances of the season. It is comedy clean cut and crisp, and the company is an excellent one.

There was a larger audience than on the opening night, to witness the production of "Ole Olson," at the Grand Opera House last night, by Mr. Ben Hendricks, the famous Swedish-American dialect comedian, and the capable company of artists with which he is surrounded himself.

TWO DAMAGE SUITS

Decided in the Circuit Court—Eccles Whyte Gets Verdict for $7,952.

Yesterday, in the circuit court, there were verdicts in two damage suits that have been on trial this week.

Before Judge Melvin, in the case of Ella Murtagh vs the Wheeling Railway Company there was a verdict for the defendant.

Before Judge Hervey, in the case of Eccles C. Whyte vs the Wheeling Corrugating Company, the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $7,952.50.

Whyte lost both hands in an accident at the defendant's plant. There was the usual motion for a new trial.

New citizens admitted were as follows: David Jones, native of Wales; William Davies, a native of England; Franz Shurm, a native of Germany.

BEAUTIFYING EFFECTS

For the Home—A Wheeling Firm That is the Peer in This Line.

For the elaborate interior decoration of the home the firm standing without a rival in Wheeling is the Boston-Beadley Company, whose stores on Twelfth street, under the Odd Fellows' hall, the finest array of Wall Paper ever in the city is shown, at prices to suit all tastes, and only skilled workmen are employed.

The firm carries an extensive and beautiful assortment of Wall Paper, Tapestries, Inlaid Hardwood Flooring, and all the beautifying effects known to the trade. A cordial invitation is extended to all desiring Painting, Tinting and Papering to call at the store, just to get a line on the new things in the trade this year.

BASE BALL OPENING.

Wheeling and New Castle Cross Bats This Afternoon in the Opening Game of the Season—Poole Will Pitch for the Stogies.

Base ball—the national game, ever dear to the heart of all true patriots—shares the honors to-day in Wheeling with the Republican primary election.

The occasion is the opening of the 1900 championship season of the Inter-State league, with Wheeling crossing bats with the champion New Castles as the attraction extraordinary.

It is confidently expected that the Island park's capacity will be tested to accommodate the crowd. The anti-season interest this spring has been far and away ahead of that exhibited in any former year, largely because this year's team is so much stronger than any other that has worn the Wheeling uniform.

The fans are hungry for the game after seven months of fasting, and the management will have no reason to complain of the patronage that will be extended this afternoon.

The opening feature will be the street parade at 1:30 o'clock, in which the thirty or more players of the two clubs will appear in carriages, preceded by the Opera House band.

The parade will leave the Nichols, and go over the following route: On Water to Twelfth, on Twelfth to Main, on Main to Twelfth, on Twelfth to Market, on Market to Seventh, on Seventh to Main, on Main to Tenth.

The game will be called promptly at 3:20 o'clock, fast time, and the teams will bat in the following order: WHEELING. NEW CASTLE.

Meany, r. Van Buren, l. Miller, c. W. J. Turner, l. McCreedy, c. Connelley, c. Carro, r. Rothwell, c. Walsh, r. Peunney, r. Walsh, r. Ritter or Boyd, c. Grafflin, c. Skope, p. Fickensler, p. Pardee, p. Strett, p. Strickland, p. Smith, c.

Foot's ball pitch for the locals, and Wadsworth or Smith for the champions. The game will be umpired by Fred Cooke, formerly manager of the Fort Wayne, who will make an admirable official. It is believed, President Powers of the league, may come down to witness the game.

THE LA BELLE STRIKE

Was Settled After a Conference of Both Sides—The Mill Will Resume Monday—Demands Not Granted.

The strike at the LaBelle tin house was settled yesterday and the mill will resume next Monday morning. This decision was arrived at yesterday afternoon, after a meeting of Powell lodge, of the International Tin Workers' Protective Association, with which the tin house employes are affiliated.

ANOTHER FOR CHICAGO. CHICAGO, April 27.—The opening national league game of the season in Chicago was won by the home team by a margin of one run. The visitors hit Taylor rather freely in nearly every inning, while the locals found Jones a puzzle until the last two. Chicago's hitting, Greer's catching and throwing and McCormick's terrific hit to the center field fence were the features. Attendance 4,200. Score: R. H. E. Chicago 10 0 0 1 0 1 3 6-13 3 St. Louis 0 1 0 0 1 2 1 6-7 10

THE BOSTONS OUTPLAYED. NEW YORK, April 27.—The New Yorks outplayed the Bostons at all points to-day and scored an easy victory. Noteworthy features of the game were the pitching of Carrick after he relieved Seymour in the third inning, and the heavy and timely batting of Doyle. Score: R. H. E. OSCAR GARDNER WON

Over Joe Bernstein on a Foul in the Sixteenth Round. NEW YORK, April 27.—Oscar Gardner, of Wheeling, W. Va., gained the decision over Joe Bernstein, of this city, on a foul at the end of the sixteenth round of what was to have been a twenty-five round fight at 124 pounds, at the Broadway Athletic Club to-night.

Gardner opened the fight using a hard left jab, followed by right hooks to the body and wore his opponent down with body blows. Time and time again Gardner fainted his opponent into awkward corners, but Bernstein took his punishment gamely and the bell always found him ready and willing.

The fourteenth was particularly fierce, both fighters doing serious damage to the face and body. Bernstein drew blood from Oscar's cheek and was on the floor twice from fast work. The rapid pace continued during the fifteenth, most of the fighting being done during clinches with one hand free.

Referee White had to caution Bernstein for hitting during the mix ups. Bernstein had all the better of the sixteenth round, but was disqualified for fouling as the bell rang. He undoubtedly transgressed as he held and hit after being cautioned several times by the referee.

The Linsly Shoot. The Linsly marksmanship contest, an annual event, took place yesterday afternoon on the Steenor farm, east of the city. There were three contestants from each of the four classes, senior, junior, sophomore and freshman, and Emblem, of the senior class, walked off with the honors, getting the first prize, a gold medal. Jones, who took second place, won a silver medal. The result was decided by points. Emblem made twenty-three out of a possible twenty-five; Jones, 20; Caldwell, 17; Deligan, 15; Flaccus, 10; and the others brought up the rear.

PAIN'S CELERY COMPOUND THE SPRING MEDICINE

gives new life and substance to the nerve and muscle tissues, restores strength and vitality to the human system.

Care and constant strain of work has first effect upon the nerves. Without strong nerves, the stomach, liver and kidneys are weakened, the blood is impoverished, the energy of the body is wasted, and disease is liable.

GEORGE H. GRAVES, La Crosse, Wis., writes: "Paine's Celery Compound is the greatest spring medicine on the face of this earth. I am taking it this spring with even better results than ever before. It will do all you claim for it; in fact, Paine's Celery Compound is the only tonic medicine that will cure the nervous and broken-down."
