DISTRICT CONVENTIONS ARE CALLED

At Which Ohio County's Delegates to the Congressional Convention Will be Named.

W. H. HORNISH IS RE-ELECTED

Chairman of the County Committee, Defeating John W. Kindelberger for the Position.

The new Republican county committee, which was chosen at the primary election last Saturday, met last night in the office of the board of public works, city building, and organized. The entire committee was in attendance, as follows:

Washington—R. E. Shafer.
Madison—H. C. Underwood.
Clay—John W. Kindelberger.
Union—W. H. Hornish.
Centre—C. F. Bachman.
Webster—C. A. Helmbricht.
Ritchie—George Bell.
Richland—W. J. Lyle.
Triadelphia—J. E. Frazier.
Liberty—R. M. Maxwell.

The committee, upon assembling, organized by the selection of William H. Hornish, of Union, as chairman, and W. J. Lyle, of Richland, as secretary. For the chairmanship, Mr. Hornish was opposed by John W. Kindelberger, of Clay, and the vote was close, 5 to 4. Mr. Lyle was made secretary by acclamation.

Congressional Delegates.

The committee discussed the matter of selecting Ohio county's delegation to the congressional nominating convention, which is to be held at Weston on June 6. The committee decided in favor of the mass convention in preference to the primary, the latter being so expensive. It was decided to hold mass conventions in each district, on Thursday, May 17. In Liberty district the convention will be held at 2 p. m., and in the other districts at 7:30 p. m. The conventions will be held at the following places:

Washington—Vigilant engine house.
Madison—Island house.
Clay—I. O. O. F. Hall.
Union—Police court room, city building.

Centre—Hartman's hall, corner Twenty-third and Market streets.
Webster—Place to be selected.
Ritchie—Place to be selected.
Triadelphia—Place to be selected.
Richland—Brick School House.
Liberty—Centre School House.

The committee was informed that the recount demanded on behalf of A. S. Bell, who was defeated by a majority of one by R. M. Maxwell, for county committeeman in Liberty district, was without authority from him, and that the latter acquiesced in the result as found by the committee when it canvassed the vote last Monday evening.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Mr. E. Buckman desires the Intelligence to announce to the public that the use of his name in connection with the Republican mayoralty nomination, was without authority from him, and does not meet with his approval. "You cannot state it too strongly," said Mr. Buckman. "I am not a candidate, and will not be one."

Friends of Councilman William M. Baird, of the Island, continue to assert that he will soon announce himself as a candidate for the mayoralty nomination.

There was recently a movement on foot to put an independent ticket in the field at the next municipal election. Mr. "Blank" was asked to run for mayor on this ticket, and is said to have stated his willingness to accept the honor, provided a certain man could be secured to run for chief of police. The "certain man" was approached and peremptorily declined; said if he ever ran for office in the future it would be as in the past, "on the straight Democratic ticket."

A Card of Thanks.

To the Editor of the Intelligence.
SIR:—I desire to extend my sincere and appreciative thanks to the Republican voters of Ohio county who looked with kindness upon my candidacy for the sheriff's nomination. To my supporters at the late primary and to all Republicans of the county, I desire to state I will leave nothing undone for the success of the entire ticket next November. I hope all Republicans will feel that my claims for their support at the polls should receive their attention. Yours for party success,
D. H. TAYLOR.

IS CURRENCY INSANE?

Examination To-day of the Man who Thrice Attempted Suicide.

Charles W. Currence, the man arrested by the Martin's Ferry authorities several days ago, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, and who made three attempts to commit suicide, one at the Martin's Ferry lock-up and two at the Belmont county jail, at St. Clairsville, will undergo an examination as to his sanity this afternoon before Squire Fitzpatrick. Currence was released from the United States court, which was to have heard the charge against him, yesterday by Commissioner George E. Boyd, as there are sufficient grounds for believing him insane. He was confined at the Weston asylum at two different periods and was discharged when it was thought that his mind had become repaired. All his suicidal attempts were made with his clothing, which he tied to the cell bars.

STILL AT LARGE

Are the Suspected Murderers of Patrick Sweeney, But There Are Hopes That They Will be Apprehended Shortly.

The suspected murderers of Patrick Sweeney are yet at large. When Chief Clemans returned from his unsuccessful trip to Pittsburgh, Wednesday in search of the pair, he expected to land them near Wheeling yesterday morning, but again he was disappointed, and it now transpires that at the very time the chief was in Pittsburgh looking for his men, they were within ten miles of Wheeling.

The chief is still making an effort to locate the men, and expects to have them under arrest shortly. John McAndrews, the watchman at the old water works building at the foot of Seventh street, who accompanied the chief to Pittsburgh, did not see the pair suspected of the murder in company with Sweeney, as was erroneously stated yesterday morning. He saw two men (the suspects) in company with Henry Campbell, the witness now held at the county jail, who passed the old water works building Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

THE PROJECT DROPPED.

Unexpectedly Large Estimate of Cost of a Bridge Knocks Out the Proposed Wheeling, Bethany & Wellsburg Electric Line.

The Wellsburg, Bethany and Wheeling electric railway project is apparently dead for the present. The report of the engineers estimating a necessary expenditure of $16,000 to place the Buffalo creek bridge in condition for the traffic, all of which would have to be borne by the railway company, is what killed it.

In a letter to President Duval, of the county court, Alfred Paul, of Wheeling, says that as the projectors did not contemplate building new bridges, the scheme would have to be dropped. Messrs. Miller and Paul had previously made an offer to pay $3,000 of the amount necessary to be expended.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Going and Coming of Wheeling People and Visitors.

C. M. Root, the St. Mary's old man, is at the McLure.

J. M. McDonnell, of Fairmont, is a Grand Central guest.

Ed. Conaway, of Mannington, was at the Stamm last night.

J. T. Martin was a Sistersville guest at the Nichols yesterday.

Sheriff S. G. Pyle, of Middlebourne, was in the city yesterday.

A. J. Hungerford, of Parkersburg, was an arrival at the Windsor last night.

W. H. Woodward and wife left yesterday for Boston, after a visit with friends here.

Henry Montag, of Bellaire, leaves on the Red liner, Southwark, on May 15, for Antwerp. He will spend the summer with relatives near Worms, Germany.

E. O. Rodgers and Samuel Dickey leave on May 7, for Cape Nome, Alaska, the new gold fields, via the Pennsylvania, lines. They sail from Seattle, May 20.

Mrs. Mary Dierke and daughter, Mary, of Merritt street, South Wheeling, sail on the steamship Rhein from Baltimore, on May 23, and will spend the summer at Mrs. Dierke's old home in Germany.

D. J. Byrne, of Boston, the manager of the Food Fair, which was given in Wheeling recently, was down from Little Washington yesterday, and reports the fair as scoring a great success in the Pennsylvania town.

George Robinson, of Bridgeport, accompanied by his mother, sister and a brother, will sail on the American liner Pennland, May 12, for a visit in England. They return next fall. They were booked yesterday by the J. J. Tomlinson steamship agency.

Rev. C. M. Olliphant, pastor of the First Christian church, and Rev. I. A. Barnes, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church, at Morantown, left yesterday afternoon for Bethany to attend the Wheeling district convention of the Christian Endeavor societies.

A party of three young men, including J. W. Edwards, of the Wheeling & Lake Erie office force; N. B. Reed, with John S. Naylor & Co., and Arthur Parsons, of Clarksburg, have been booked by the J. G. Tomlinson steamship agency, for a European tour. They sail on the American line steamer New York, June 20, and from Southampton will go direct to Paris. They will spend several weeks in Paris, and returning will come on the largest steamship afloat, the White Star liner, Oceanic.

Wesley Kelly, of the clerical force of the West Virginia Steel Company, engaged in a successful duck-hunting expedition up the river yesterday, bagging eleven ducks and a beautiful blue heron. The latter measured twenty-six inches from wing to wing. Mr. Kelly, burdened with his game, was the cynosure of all eyes at the McLure last night. Duck are quite plentiful hereabouts this spring, and they cannot be killed from the Ohio side of the river, owing to the game-laws of the Buckeye state.

In Clerk Robertson's Office.

Yesterday, in Clerk Robertson's office, the following were recorded: Deed made April 30, 1900, by John McKee, executor, to R. R. Spears and James H. Riddle, consideration, $3,500; transfers part of lot 117 in Chapline & Eoff's addition.

Deed made April 23, 1900, by August and Maria Kirchgasner, to Charles Klein, consideration, $1,405; transfers lots 8, 9 and 10 of the Joseph Kirchgasner estate.

The Circuit Court.

Yesterday, in the circuit court, Judge Hervey, in the case of Grace Bender vs. A. Hottman, verdict for $171.25; motion for a new trial. The plaintiff fell through a cellar door at Hottman's restaurant.

A RUNAWAY MARRIAGE?

But the Groom Says it's all a Joke. License Was Granted.

A special dispatch was received by the Intelligence from Steubenville last night, stating that a marriage license had been issued at that city yesterday to Mr. Baird C. Nichols, aged 25 years, and Miss Mame Cowl, aged 22, both of Wheeling, and that they were married in Steubenville. Mr. Nichols is proprietor of the Hotel Nichols, on Water street, formerly the Howell house, and when seen last night at his hotel, he said that the report of his marriage was a joke. Miss Cowl is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Cowl, on Sixteenth street. Both of the young people have a host of friends in the city and in the event of their reported marriage proving to be a true bill, they will be the recipients of hearty congratulations and best wishes. The report has it that the marriage was a quiet affair and witnessed by only a few friends.

MINERS AND OPERATORS

May Confer Here Next Week—Prospects Are Bright.

It is probable that a conference of the miners and mine operators of the Wheeling district will be held in this city next week. Strong efforts to bring it about are being made by Second Vice President D. H. Sullivan, of the Ohio branch of the miners' union, who has been in the city for several days, trying to effect an enforcement of the New Philadelphia scale. Mr. Sullivan will leave for his home at Coshocton this morning and will return on Monday. Last night he said he was prepared to agree to any reasonable changes from the New Philadelphia scale, if the operators could show that they were required by the system of working on this side of the river. He was not in favor of radical procedures and wanted to act in a spirit of conciliation. He was hopeful of the operators and the men getting together and formulating a system satisfactory to both parties. From all appearances, Mr. Sullivan will meet with a measure of success.

Arnold's Stock Company.

For the first time in Wheeling Arnold's Stock Company will be seen at the Grand Opera House, all next week, presenting a repertoire of high class productions at popular prices, opening Monday night with the sterling melodramatic success, "Guilty Without Crime." Patrons of the Grand appreciate the enterprise of Manager Palmer in affording them so many opportunities during the present season of witnessing famous plays at a nominal cost, and they will doubtless gladly avail themselves of this last opportunity before the close of the season. Newspaper criticisms indicate that the company is very meritorious, and that the specialties which are introduced between acts are all of a high order. Ladies half tickets will be distributed for Monday night.

THE entire stock of dry goods and notions of Egger, Warrick & Co., will be sold in the next few weeks, regardless of cost.
