MOONEY AND FRIDAY LOSE THEIR NERVE.

Failure of Mooney's Mother to Raise Funds for Appeal to a Higher Tribunal.

45-DAY STAY EXPIRES MONDAY.

They Will Likely Hang July 13. Alex Gurley Sentenced to Five Years in the "Pen."

The condemned murderers, John Mooney and Frank Friday alias Doc. Riley, who are confined in the county jail, have in the past few days lost their nerve and almost broken down completely.

Those who attended the trial of the two prisoners, in which they were found guilty of the murder of James Hervey, at Triadelphia, on the last day of February, have often remarked at the stolidity and indifference displayed by the two criminals. Both Mooney and Friday, when sentenced by Judge T. J. Hugas, never moved a muscle, but several days since they received news from the mother of John Mooney, who had made a visit to the county jail to inform her son that, after hard and diligent work, appealing to those nearest and dearest to her, she was unable to raise the required funds to make an appeal to a higher court, which completely unnerved them both and caused them to realize the gravity of their present situation. The meeting of both mother and son is said to have been the most dramatic and pathetic incident ever enacted in the Ohio county jail.

It will be remembered that the forty-five days stay, which was granted to the prisoners will expire on next Monday, whereupon they will be transferred to the Moundsville penitentiary by Sheriff H. C. Richards, who will deliver the prisoners into the hands of Warden Hawk. The execution, which will no doubt take place unless something develops in the meantime, will occur in the execution or death room of the penitentiary on Friday, July 13th.

Attorneys at the court house were of the opinion that had Frank Friday, alias Doc. Riley, and whose real name has been learned to be Frank Gleason, told the truth as to the Hervey tragedy, he would have won the sympathy of the jury and would have escaped with a life sentence.

Since the failure of Mrs. Mooney to raise the funds, several other people are said to have interested themselves in their behalf, with success, as Colonel Arnett demanded of the clerk of the circuit court a record of the case. However, in the language of the deputy clerk, the "long green" has not as yet been produced.

FIVE-YEAR SENTENCE

Meted Out to Alex Gurley, the Abductor of Cecelia Peck.

In the criminal court yesterday in the case of state vs. Alexander Gurley, charged with the abduction of Cecelia Peck, a motion for a new trial was overruled by Judge T. J. Hugas.

When Gurley was asked by the court if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed, he stated that he was drunk when he committed the crime. Judge Hugas said drunkenness did not excuse him from the crime, which was one of the most blackening in the history of the criminal court. He was sentenced to the full penalty of the code of West Virginia, which is five years in the Moundsville penitentiary.

The arguments for a new trial in the case of state vs. "Ivory" Lynch, were argued and submitted. Lynch was found guilty of unlawfully entering the Ellis house, in the Fifth ward.

Bodents Cause Damage.

An army of rats has made an assault on the Mussey property on Market street in the last few days. Their operations have been of such a damaging nature that the owners of the property have found it necessary to have the pavement, which is undermined, repaired, and a brick foundation with broken glass on the Market street front. Forty rats were caught the past week.
