MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS.

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

Monday's issue of the News and yesterday's issue of the Register comes out with articles flatly contradicting the facts published in Monday's Intelligence concerning the bold face lie printed in Sunday's News in regard to the matter of bail for chicken thieves.

Ball for the men was not refused, and to the contrary would have been allowed, but at the time the mayor was approached upon the matter he was very busy and did not feel justified in throwing other important matters aside, but instructed the attorney to come back in a few hours, at which time he would name the amount of bail demanded, and was at his post later for no other purpose than that. The two other correspondents are nothing more nor less than sore heads.

The funeral of the fifteen-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Cross took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the family residence, on Second street, and the interment followed at Riverview cemetery.

The case of James Leonard, charged with stealing chickens, came up before the mayor yesterday, but there not being sufficient evidence to hold the prisoner the case was dismissed.

John Kreusch left yesterday for Cincinnati to join the "How Hopper Was Sidelacked" company, with which he was employed last season.

Rev. A. R. Robinson attended a meeting of the presbytery of the United Presbyterian church at St. Clairsville yesterday.

Roy Thomas has accepted a position at Hoge's drug store, and will commence the discharge of his new duties Monday.

The brick work on the United Presbyterian church is nearing completion. Four mills of the Aetna-Standard
