

INROAD MADE BY MINERS ON THE OPERATORS.

Three Conditional Collieries Closed in Shenandoah Field—Few in That Region Still Running.

MORE SOLDIERS ARE NEEDED.

Sheriff of Luzerne County Asks for Protection—Important Developments in Answer of Markle & Co.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Sept. 25.—The few developments in the strike since yesterday were favorable to the strikers. Three conditional collieries were closed to-day in this region because the number who reported for duty was not sufficient to operate them. They are the Park Place, Preston No. 3, and Lawrence collieries. The Park Place workings were in operation for a short time to-day, but could not continue with the small force. Within this city but one colliery is working. That is the Cambridge, which, according to J. C. McGinnis, of the Cambridge Coal Company, has its full complement of men. Other collieries in the region still in operation are the East, at Ashland; Potts at Locustdale; Locust Spring, at Locust Gap, and the North Franklin, at Trevorton. The East colliery is said to be short-handed.

TROOPS CALLED FOR

In Luzerne County—Hope to Prevent Marching by the Miners. Markle Mines to be Suspended Temporarily.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 25.—It was learned to-night that Sheriff Harvey, of this (Luzerne) county, has telegraphed to Governor Stone, asking that the troops be sent to this county, on the ground that he (the sheriff) cannot guarantee the safety of persons or property during the night marches of the strikers.

It is believed that the sheriff is of the opinion that the presence of troops will prevent any further marching, thus lessening the possibility of serious trouble.

The strikers met after midnight at Cranberry, and when they reached Tomblaken they were stopped by Sheriff Harvey and thirty armed deputies, who went to that place on a special train. The strikers then scattered in different directions and began missionary work in preventing mine workers from going to the Potts mines at Tomblaken, Derringer and Gowan. They were successful in preventing a large number of men from going to work and in consequence the Derringer and Gowan mines were crippled. Four of the marchers were arrested, charged with breach of the peace. There was no conflict between the deputies and the strikers. Rhone Trescott, a coal and iron policeman, says he saw President Mitchell and "Mother" Jones on a hill at Derringer, directing the movement of the men. President Mitchell denies this.

Most Important Development.

The most important development here to-day outside of the request for troops, was the answer of G. B. Markle & Company to the demands presented by the firm's employes ten days ago. The answer is not considered satisfactory by many of the Markle employes and what action they will take at their meeting to-morrow is not certain. There is much talk among them to-night, in favor of a strike. The firm flatly refuses to grant the demand of the men for a five and ten per cent advance, announces its willingness to pay the men semi-monthly, agrees to arbitrate the question of cheaper powder, refuses the demands of the driver boys and engineers for more pay, promises to adjust grievances relating to the carrying of men and tools down and up the slope in mine cars, offers the timber men a new scale for propping which is lower than the rate asked for, agrees to build powder houses so that the men will not have to carry the explosive a great distance, and concedes the pillar robbing grievance.

Given Time to Consider.

The Markle firm to-night announced that at the "request of the mine workers in its employ work will be suspended to-morrow in order to give the men an opportunity to consider the company's answer to their demands made ten days ago."

The United Mine Workers held a meeting at Jeddo this afternoon before the answer of the Markles had become public property. Many of the Markle strikers were present. The principal speech was made by President Mitchell.

The labor leaders would make no comment to-night on the Markle answer, but it is known they are much pleased.

They now believe that the firm's mines will be completely tied up and point to to-morrow's voluntary suspension as evidence that the Markles are afraid the men will quit.

OUR TROOPS TO WITHDRAW FROM CHINA.

President McKinley Takes the Initiative, and Will Leave Only a Legation Guard in Peking.

ENGLAND FOLLOWS IN WAKE

And Refuses to Entertain Germany's Unjust Demand—Soldiers to be Returned to the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The United States government to-day took the first step towards the redemption of its pledge made to the Russian government August 23 last, by cablegram instruction to Gen. Chaffee to reduce the American forces in China to the proportions of a legation guard. Nearly a month ago the Russian government was told through M. De Wollant, its Charge here, that if the Russian forces and ministry were withdrawn from Peking, "we shall give instructions to the commander of the American forces in China to withdraw our forces from Peking, after due conference with the other commanders as to the time and manner of withdrawal." That time has now come and to-day's action marks the beginning of the disappearance of the American army from China, for although some military force is to remain, it will not be of the character of an army, but under the conditions laid down in the order to Gen. Chaffee, and especially under its official designation as a "legation guard," will be rather of the nature of a civil guard. This small force will not be included in any military operations which may be conducted by the allied armies, and so will not fall subject to the direction of the field marshal, Count De Waldersee, the commander-in-chief.

Movement Will Require a Week.

It is estimated that about a week will be required to bring the 3,500 soldiers away from Peking, but as the start can not be made immediately, it will be at least about the end of the first week in October before the movement can be completed. It is stated at the quartermaster's department that there are enough transports available to bring off the force which will come out of China. Gen. Chaffee is authorized to take from the ships now at Taku such stores as will be necessary to last him through the winter.

There were no developments in the diplomatic side of the Chinese question to-day and although Baron Sternberg, the German Charge, and Minister Wu called separately at the State Department, they brought no communications which were made public. The instruction to Minister Conger relative to establishing relations with the Chinese envoys is still withheld, presumably to allow the President to administer some finishing touches.

Conger to be a Member.

This instruction is regarded as of much importance and will make a part of the case of the government and be laid before congress at the next session. It is settled that Minister Conger is to be a member of the commission to settle the various questions remaining to be adjusted.

The reported adhesion of the British government to the position assumed by the United States government presenting the proposition to make the surrender of the Chinese leaders a precedent to negotiations, has given the greatest satisfaction in official circles here.

Consul General Goodnow has advised the State Department that the Tao Ti at Shanghai has been degraded and that this is believed to be due to the favorable attitude of that official towards foreigners.

The State Department has also received several despatches from Mr. Rockhill relative to his conferences with Minister Conger and the progress of his inquiries.

America and England Together.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—3:50 a. m.—Only through the Associated Press advices from New York published in this morning's papers, does the British public learn that the United States and Great Britain are once again ranged together in opposition to the continental powers. Apparently such a grouping was entirely unexpected in both Berlin and London, and an unofficial state comment will be withheld.

The Daily Chronicle, however, expresses a hope that it is erroneous, and declares "that the only way in which England can reap the fruit of her exertions in China is by standing shoulder to shoulder with Germany, which is the only effective counterpoise to Russian-French machinations and the weak-kneed policy of America."

Knocking on America.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—The Cologne Gazette publishes a statement, evidently inspired, to the effect that with the exception of Great Britain, all the powers have replied to the German note, and that all, with the exception of the United States, agree to Germany's proposals in essentials.

The appointment of Prince Tuan as the head of the Chinese government may be regarded," says the Cologne Gazette, "as the first fruits of America's policy."

Germans Blame McKinley.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—The German press continues to comment upon America's answer to the German note, taking the ground that the situation has been made more dangerous, and saddling the blame for this upon President McKinley. Several semi-official papers severely condemn the attitude of the United States. Others "explain" it by a reference to the difficulties in the Philippines.

DEATH OF GEN. PALMER.

Noted Warrior and Statesman—Candidate for President on Gold Democratic Ticket in '96.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 25.—Gen. John M. Palmer, ex-United States senator from Illinois, died at his residence in this city at 8 a. m.

Heart failure was the direct cause of General Palmer's death. He had been in ill health for some time.

Symptoms of the fatal stroke manifested themselves about 3 a. m. Tuesday. The general rested uneasily until that hour, when he complained of severe pains in the chest. As he had felt them before, the family did not feel seriously alarmed. However, a physician was summoned at once. The general fell asleep again and did not awake until 7 o'clock. The pains in his chest became more severe and nothing could be done to afford relief. The dying man conversed calmly with his wife for a time, then passed away.

John McAuley Palmer was born on Eagle Creek, Scott county, Kentucky, September 13, 1817. He removed to Illinois in 1831, settling at Carlinville, and was admitted to the bar in 1838. He was a delegate to the state constitutional convention in 1847, and was state senator from 1852 to 1856, and was a delegate to the national Republican convention of 1856.

THREE EVENING MEETINGS

Arranged in Denver—Roosevelt Makes Eleven Speeches Yesterday. In Close Touch With Albany.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 25.—The heavy special train of the Governor Roosevelt party, to which was added to-day the private car of Senator Wolcott, accompanied by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and Mrs. Lodge, of Massachusetts, arrived in Denver at 5 o'clock this afternoon and was escorted to the Brown Palace hotel, where supper was provided.

Three evening meetings had been arranged for, the first at the Coliseum hall, the second at the Broadway theatre and the third at the Capitol grounds.

On account of the rain the open air meeting was abandoned.

In addition to the eleven speeches which Governor Roosevelt made to-day, he has had considerable executive business to attend to, being all the time in close touch with the executive office at Albany, both by wire and mail.

FLAGS CARRIED

By School Children—College Boys Carry the Governor on Their Shoulders.

EATON, Col., Sept. 25.—Governor Theodore Roosevelt was welcomed here to-day by a large concourse of citizens. The school children of the town were in evidence, each carrying a small American flag. The governor was introduced by Senator Edward O. Wolcott. He said in part:

"I am particularly glad to see these children here. I am an expert in children. I have several myself. Now they come here carrying the American flag. Why? They bring it because the flag stands for honor, for right dealing, for upholding the interests of the nation and the higher and finer sentiments that tell for national greatness. There are two issues, the issue of keeping ourselves prosperous and keeping our honor unstained. Now I ask you to stand by your own material prosperity and stand for the conditions under which we have reached our present material well being."

The Two Phantoms.

At Greeley, Col., Governor Roosevelt said in part:

"I have just come down from Idaho with Senator Shoup, who served in your Colorado cavalry during the civil war. Now I am traveling with General Hale, whom you sent out at the head of your sons and brothers to the far distant island of the eastern seas to raise the flag, which shall not be hauled down. Senator Wolcott has spoken of imperialism. If there ever existed two phantoms that are put forward to frighten political children they are imperialism and militarism."

The governor said that with the present standing army there is only .86 of a soldier for each thousand of the population.

Importance of Honesty in Politics.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 25.—At Fort Collins, Governor Roosevelt spoke on the importance of honesty in the political party and in the government as well as in the individual.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, followed Mr. Roosevelt.

At Boulder, a very large outdoor meeting was held near the station.

At the conclusion of his short address, Governor Roosevelt was pulled from the platform by the students, forming a football team of the State university, which is situated here, and carried into his car on their shoulders over the heads of the people. Short speeches were made also at Loveland, Longmont and Niwot.

SENATOR HANNA

Speaks to an Immense Crowd at Cooper Union, New York—Uses no Gloves in Handling Mr. Bryan.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Cooper Union was entirely filled to-night when the Republican club meeting began. The great crowd was drawn by the announcement that Senator Mark Hanna was to speak. He came last on the programme, as he appeared on the speaker's platform the greeting extended him was most hearty. He said:

"I came here to-night because the committee of the Republican club said they would show me that 'general apathy' had vacated New York. Now I know that he has. I have felt and expressed publicly that the Republicans in this state and county are feeling too sanguine as to the results. I feel that in a contest like this there is so much at stake that no opportunity should be lost to guarantee success. A defeat would put us ten years behind.

"I don't know of any stronger appeal that can be made in favor of Republican votes than a recital of the last four years as compared with the previous four years. Billed down the issues are McKinleyism and Bryanism.

The Two Issues.

"Billed down it is free silver and free trade on one side and prosperity and development on the other. Out west the argument of imperialism is played out. Mr. Bryan won't talk of free silver in the Empire state unless you force him to, and I want you to force him to.

"We have established ourselves so now that this country is producing from a quarter to a third more than our consumption. Let us shake confidence and our industries will slow down like they were previous to four years ago. The responsibility is in your hands to say which you will have continued, prosperity or go back to the empty dinner-pail.

"I have enough confidence in the people to believe that neither Bryan nor his colleagues can inject into this campaign any class distinction. I don't care to talk about myself as I am, pretty well advertised. My interest in affairs grows out of my interest in everything American." (Cheers.)

WARMING UP

In Jackson County—Largest Republican Rural Meeting Ever Held in the County—Listen Intently to West Virginia's Charming Orator, Perry Shanor.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. RAVENSWOOD, W. Va., Sept. 25.—Willing is a rural community in Jackson county. It consists of one store, two churches, one school house and four dwelling houses.

A Republican meeting was advertised there for 2 o'clock to-day. At that time over one thousand people were assembled. Everybody seemed to have come from everywhere. In wagons, in bugles, on horses and on foot. At two o'clock, county chairman Archer called the meeting to order by appointing A. T. Adams, of Ravenswood, as the chairman. In a few words, he introduced Hon. P. A. Shanor, of Tyler county, as the speaker of the day.

For two hours, that vast audience listened intently to the issues of the campaign. It proved by far the most successful political meeting ever held by either party in Jackson county outside of Ripley and Ravenswood.

Many Democrats expressed their intention of voting for their interests this year, and instead of being frightened by a political ghost, of supporting the party which brought prosperity to their homes. Jackson county will increase its Republican majority by two hundred votes.

RITCHIE TURNS OUT

To Listen to Governor Atkinson. Many Unable to Gain Admittance to the Opera House—Party in Good Condition in the Oil County.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. PENNSBORO, W. Va., Sept. 25.—Governor Atkinson delivered an address to-night to the largest political meeting ever held in Pensboro. The opera house in which the meeting was held was crowded to its utmost capacity, and many were unable to gain admittance. His speech was a masterly defense of Republican principles, and a scathing denunciation of Bryanism and the record of Democracy. It received the closest attention, and was punctuated by frequent bursts of applause.

The fact that this meeting was in the only Democratic district of Ritchie county, and at the home town of Creed Collins, Democratic candidate for Congress from the Fourth district, makes it peculiarly significant of the result in this district. At least 500 people were present, and gave Governor Atkinson their closest attention. Hughes will carry Ritchie county by 700 votes, at the lowest estimate.
