WHEELING DEFEATED

In the Inter-City Gold Match with Washington on a Margin of Ten Holes.—The Visitors Were Royally Entertained by the Pennsylvanians.

The picked team of six players from the Wheeling and Highland Golf Clubs journeyed to Little Washington Saturday, accompanied by about fifty friends from Wheeling society, and met defeat at the hands of the Washington Golf Club on a margin of ten holes. Part of the match was played in the rain. The ladies of the Washington club served tea, the visitors were presented with souvenirs of the day, and altogether the entertainment was charmingly hospitable. The score was as follows:

Table with columns: Name, Score. Lists players like Pollock, Fulton, Paxton, Smith, Baird, Campbell, Storor, Faxton, Harding, Lamb, Hart, Dalzell.

Holes for Washington 18. Holes for Wheeling 8.

Washington 10 up. A return match will be played on the Wheeling club's links next Saturday.

Jim Corbett Returns.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—James J. Corbett, at one time champion of the prize ring, returned from Europe to-day on the Campanian. The only one who met him at quarantine was his legal representative, Emanuel Friend, and he and the fighter held a conference while the ship was groping her way to her dock through the fog. Mr. Corbett said: "I have come back to meet any charges which may be made against me; that is all I've got to say, and that's all I'm going to say." Corbett was asked as to the alleged crookedness in his fight with McCoy, his domestic troubles, etc., and to these, as to other questions, he refused to reply.

It is believed that all differences between Corbett and his wife have been settled. Husband and wife dined together at a restaurant and later appeared at a place of amusement. It is now said that Mrs. Corbett will not press the divorce suit which she threatened to bring.

BOWLING.

To-night the ten teams of the Wheeling Bowling League will have their opening, and from the elaborate preparations made, they will surprise the public with the large following that bowling has in this city. Summers' full brass band will meet at the Musee alleys and from there will escort the Rough Rider team to McElroy's drug store, where the parade will form at 8 o'clock. The Big Show boys will fall in behind the Rough Riders at Stein's saloon, and the Columbus and Terminus teams will join the boys going down at Bragg's saloon. The All Rooters and All Walken will fall in line at Hall's saloon and the Sunny Brook boys will join the procession at their club room on Jacob street, while the Occolins will accompany them at Detwiler's saloon and join the Wheeling and K. K. K.

boys, who will receive them at the forming place.

The route that has been chosen is as follows: North on Jacob to Thirty-third, to Eoff, to Twenty-seventh, to Chapline, to Twenty-second, to Market, to Tenth, to Main, thence south to Twenty-seventh, to Chapline, to Thirty-fifth, to McCullough, to Twenty-ninth, thence out the Fette alleys. Many business men throughout the city will honor the paraders by burning red fire.

Three for Wheeling.

The Wheeling team of bowlers, picked from the several teams of the Wheeling Bowling League, went to Pittsburgh yesterday, accompanied by twenty-five or more rooters, and played the return series with the Cecelia team, of Allegheny. The Wheelings won three straight without half trying, and have six straight to their credit on the series. The score was as follows:

Table with columns: Name, Pins. Lists bowlers like Cecelias, Holt, Seethaler, C. Vey, Gristburn, Holt, B. Vey, Hammer, Roth, Steurnagle, Soss, Fritchey, Kalb.

AMUSEMENTS.

A new farce comedy, "Miss Kidder," by Glen McDonough, will have its first presentation in Wheeling at the Opera House Monday and Tuesday, October 1 and 2, with the favorite comedienne, Flo Irwin, in the leading role. The play is said to be not only of the brightest and merriest in itself, but the star has had the good judgment to surround herself with a host of clever associates and bevy of pretty girls. The author claims that "Miss Kidder" is the best piece he has ever written, and places where it has been seen but one opinion prevailed as to its entertaining qualities. Miss Irwin, by the way, has not forgotten how to sing "coon" songs, and gives them with the same happy, rollicking air which distinguishes all her fun-making. A wealth of scenery is a special feature of the production of "Miss Kidder," and most elaborate costumes are worn. Among the merry comedians who support Miss Irwin are Walter Hawley, John F. Ward, Lillian Brainard, Arthur Ellery, Collin Varray, Irving R. Walton, Louise Bates, Aileen May, John F. Birch, Madelon Temple, Thomas E. Whitbread, Walter Irving, E. Grant Gibson, Elinor Blanchard, William D. Evans, William E. Butterfield, Helen Drew and others.

"Because She Loved Him So."

The New York comedy success, "Because She Loved Him So," which is said to be the best farce play William Gillette has ever written, will be seen at the Opera House next Friday evening, October 5. Mr. Gillette is fast making his way towards the head of the adapting profession. From the foot to the head of that class—say from Mr. Augustin Daly's habitual deformations to such a complete masterpiece as Mr. W. S. Gilbert's "Wedding March"—is a long distance, but Mr. Gillette now stands very near the head. His "Too Much Johnson" of two years ago was a gem in its way; "Because She Loved Him So" is even a finer piece of work. The plot of this play has quite a literature of its own; it has pervaded the serio-comic drama in well nigh every country.

"At the White Horse Tavern."

King & Norcross have been so careful in preserving the coloring of their pretty comedy, "At the White Horse Tavern," that they carry in their large company several players who merely walk across the stage, and take no further part in the performance. The pair of honeymooners, for instance, appear and look into each other's eyes with soulful devotion, then disappear after the utterance of one sentence. "It is quite immaterial." And so with half a dozen other characters, all of whom are essential to a perfect picture of the picturesque scene near the White Horse Inn, in the Austrian Alps. The comedy will be seen at the Opera House Wednesday evening, October 3, with Minerva Dorr as the hostess, Frank M. Norcross as the head-waiter, Fred Mower as the Berliner and many others.

Huntley-Jackson Company.

The Huntley-Jackson Stock Company, which comes to the Grand this evening and the balance of the week, is a very large organization to be played at popular prices. The company numbers twenty people, and carries a special card of scenery for its productions, which include some of the largest scenic plays ever attempted in this country. "The Fatal Card," "An Innocent Sinner," "Far Liberty and Love," "Just Before Dawn," "The Tornado," "Michael Stragoff," and "The World," are features of the repertoire. Any one having seen any of these plays must know what an undertaking it is to carry all of them in one company. Engines, steamboats, tug boats, patrol wagons, freight trains, horses, dogs, etc., something never before attempted at popular prices.

"Watch on the Rhine."

Shdney R. Ellis' new comedy drama, "Watch on the Rhine," will be presented at the Opera House next Friday evening, October 5.

"The Watch on the Rhine," in which he and Charles H. Yale, of "The Devil's Auction," and "Twelve Temptations" fame, star Al. H. Wilson, a young German dialect comedian, opens at the Opera House, Saturday, matinee and evening. The piece is said to be pretty, full of crisp and bright comedy, with a plentitude of tuneful, catchy songs that will linger, and it is to be interpreted by a company of clever people among whom are recognized the names of Mark Price, Fanny Bloodgood, Alfred Hastings, Eva Byron, Ewen Hulsh and Ida Hamilton. It is to be magnificently environed with adequate scenery to properly portray its locale.

BELLAIRE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County.

The board of control elected by the board of trade Friday evening, will meet in the Central block this evening, to select a secretary and treasurer. This new organization started off with more vigor and enthusiasm than any ever organized. The people generally seem to be interested in having some sort of arrangement whereby opportunities to encourage new industries to locate here, may be taken advantage of. One hundred and forty-three persons signed the roll at the membership fee of $5, and greater interest is manifest in doing something of this kind than was looked for at this time. All of the industries here are going full blast and everybody appears to be doing well. If there is nothing to mar the splendid outlook there can be no doubt of great strides being made in the material progress of the city within the next two years.

The Brossius Meeting.

The Republican city committee meets this evening to further complete arrangements for the Brossius meeting here next Friday night. The prospects are that it will be a corker. The committee also has under consideration the renting of a room on the first floor of the Central block, to be headquarters, where posters and literature can be distributed to all the populace and returns from the election received. It is a good scheme and ought to be put into effect.

Hope Commandery.

There will be a special train Thursday night, to bring Knights Templar along the river front home from the regular meeting of Hope Commandery at St. Clairsville. The train will leave on the return trip at 9 o'clock, Central standard time, and it is expected that there will be a full meeting.

Bellaire Briefs.

The Young Men's marching club and the McKinley-Gill club will both be well uniformed in time for the first political meeting and they will make a noble appearance. Both will act as escorts for the speakers, headed by a brass band.

William Gregg, of Belmont, aged eighty, and Mrs. Mary L. Rowles, mother of Dr. T. H. Rowles, aged seventy-two, were married at the doctor's home in Cambridge, last week. Dr. Rowles formerly lived in this city.

The marriage of Mr. Hanson Tyler and Mrs. Virginia Campbell is announced to occur on the 10th. They will occupy the property formerly used as a residence by the late J. B. Smith and family.

Marshal Johnson ran in a colored chap yesterday, who was exceedingly drunk. There will be several cases before the mayor this morning, on the same charge.

Rev. L. W. Barr, a former pastor of this city, has been deposed from the ministry by the Parkersburg presbytery. Cause, crooked business methods.

Mrs. Sarah J. Lockwood, who died here Friday evening, will be buried this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Interment will take place at Dillie's Bottom.

The Davis and Archer coal property has been sold by John Rockershausen to Charles Lee, who will put the mine in shape to operate at once.

Quite a number of persons went to Cleveland yesterday on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh excursion at $1.50 for the round trip.

The American Mechanic's band will furnish the music for the Brossius meeting, next Thursday evening.

Frank Maxwell, of Cleveland, who visited old friends here last week, is now in Steubenville on his return home.

Dr. J. S. McCallan is in Chicago, to take a post-graduate course in medicine.

MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS.

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

The Vigilant Hose Company has decided to give a picnic at McSword's orchard, Saturday, October 12, at which time the race between the Fulton fire company and the Independents, of this city, will take place. It is thought by many that the date selected is not a very good one, as it is the same date selected by Wheeling for the field day at the fair grounds. The date may possibly be changed later.

Charles Dietrick and Will Pyles were arrested by the police Saturday, charged with robbing Fred Witchey's ice cream wagon one day last week. They will probably have a hearing this evening, before the mayor. Both boys are twelve years of age, and the former has faced the mayor before.

The fire department responded yesterday afternoon, to an alarm turned in from Box 38, located at the corner of Second and Buckeye streets. A blaze was discovered in the coal house of the cooper shop and had destroyed it before the department arrived.

The revival services which have been conducted at the Christian church for the past week, were concluded yesterday. A special feature of each meeting was the music, which was in charge of Prof. F. H. Cannon, of Louisville, Ky. Despite the bad weather, the St. Mary's picnic on the fair grounds, Saturday, attracted a good sized crowd. The racing events were all called off on account of the bad condition of the track. They cleared about $160.

The ladies of the St. Mary's church will serve supper in the school room this evening from 5 to 9 o'clock. They will serve an excellent supper for fifteen cents.

A meeting of the Germans will be held at Maennerchor hall this evening, to take some action in regard to the German day celebration in Wheeling, October 8.

The Young People's Society of the United Presbyterian church, will have a social meeting this evening, at the residence of Miss Cora Sloan, on Broadway.

Rev. W. J. Wilson, of Ulrichville, the new Methodist Episcopal pastor, preached his first sermon in this city yesterday morning.

The famous passion play will be produced at the St. Mary's church, Wednesday evening, by means of moving pictures.

The Metropolitan Stars, a high class vaudeville company, is the attraction at the Star theatre, next Wednesday evening.

Miss May Skelton, who has been the guest of her parents in this city, has returned to her home at Terre Haute, Ind.

Rev. S. J. Bogle will deliver his seventh anniversary sermon at the Presbyterian church, Sunday, October 15.

The Rough Rider club will meet at the office of George W. Tweedy, on Fourth street, Wednesday evening.

Howard Smith came in from Graf-ton, W. Va., to spend Sunday with his parents, on North Third street.

The township teachers' association held a meeting Saturday afternoon, in the office of the township clerk.

Mrs. Louis Helling and daughter, Magdalene, were the guests of her son at Cleveland, yesterday.

Mrs. G. W. Barnes, of the Island, has purchased the Buckingham property, on Third street.

Mrs. J. E. Beck has gone to Pittsburgh, to spend a week with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Skelton spent Sunday with friends at Barnesville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Green spent Sunday with friends at Cleveland.

The Mark Hanna marching club will drill every evening this week.

William Crowl spent Sunday with relatives at East Liverpool.

Prof. M. D. Morris spent Sunday with his family at Flushing.
