INTEREST IN THE CRUCIBLE STEEL PLANT

Was General in Wheeling and the Surrounding Towns, But Nothing Definite Transpires.

THE LOCATION OF THE SITE

Surrounded in Mystery, and All Efforts to Probe Are Met With Complete Failure.

The announcement in the Intelligencer yesterday morning that the largest crucible manufacturing firm in Great Britain, Seybold & Dickstod, of Sheffield, England, intended moving their great works to the United States, and that a site had been optioned in the vicinity of Wheeling, was received with the greatest interest in this city and the neighboring towns.

The Intelligencer made every effort possible both in Wheeling and in the surrounding towns to secure information as to the location of the site said to have been optioned, but so far nothing definite has been learned, and until something tangible transpires no great faith will be placed in the story.

Last night the Intelligencer was informed by a well known manufacturer that Mr. W. P. Hubbard was the legal representative of the firm and that he had optioned the site, which is said to be on the West Virginia side of the river above the Richland coal works. Mr. Hubbard, however, when asked about the matter, denied any knowledge of the enterprise, and said he was not the firm's representative. Mr. John P. Giehrst, of the Richland coal works, said he did not know of any options being taken above the city, and he was of the opinion that there was nothing in the story.

It is learned that three tracts of land have been optioned west of Bellaire, one of forty-nine acres, another of sixty-eight acres and a third of about 120 acres, all to unknown parties. The Bellaire broad of trade people are of the opinion that one of these options has been taken in the interest of Seybold & Dickstod, and at a meeting last night a committee was named to go after the big industry immediately and land it for Bellaire. The committee is composed of Messrs. James Anderson, George W. Yost and J. J. McCormick.

The members of the general committee of the newly organized board of trade of Wheeling, were seen by an Intelligencer reporter during the afternoon, and all were as anxious for information as the newspaper was, and apparently as unable to acquire it. Mr. Laughlin said the matter would be looked into without delay, and if the big industry can be landed the board of trade will do everything possible to bring about consummation. A meeting of the board has been called for Friday evening, November 2, when something definite may be known. At this meeting the board will elect a board of directors, adopt constitution and by-laws and probably act on the recommendation of the committee in the matter of the board's secretaryship. The committee is now negotiating with several trained men, and will recommend the best man available.

Until something definite is known, guesses are in order regarding the Seybold & Dickstod site. It at once occurs to one that perhaps Seybold & Dickstod are back of either the Uniontown, Waynesburg & West Virginia or the Pittsburgh, Connellsville & Wheeling projects. The latter company intends acquiring large holdings of ground on the river front below Moundsville, and the former has in view coal tips and a big holding of ground on the Ohio side below Bellaire. Much mystery has figured in the promoting of both projects, and it would not be surprising to find that the English firm is interested in one of the roads. Of course this is the merest guessing.

DR. C. S. TERRILL DEAD.

Sad Demise of a Young Physician on the Threshold of a Life Full of Promise.

At the home of his father, C. S. Terrill, sr., east of Triadelphia, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, occurred the death of Dr. Charles Terrill, in the thirty-fifth year of his age. While death came not unexpected, it is none the less to be deplored.

Several months ago Dr. Terrill and his wife went to China, where he received the assignment to the superintendency of a Presbyterian hospital. They were compelled to return home on account of the Boxer uprising. They reached this city a little over two weeks ago, and the doctor's health was so bad that he had to take to his bed. He began to sink, and despite all medical skill the end came yesterday morning.

Deceased was born in Ohio county, and has a host of friends here. Shortly after graduation at a medical school he married Miss Charlotte Hazlett, daughter of Robert Hazlett, of the Island. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will occur at the Stone Church cemetery.

LIFE'S DARKER SIDE.

A Wheeling Girl Dying at Pittsburgh, and Her Mother So Ill Here That She Cannot Go to Her Wayward Child.

Mrs. Rachel E. Adams, of 3127 Jacob street, South Side, is confined to her home suffering from heart trouble, and unable to go to the assistance of her wayward daughter, who is lying at the point of death at Pittsburgh, from an alleged criminal operation. The details of the sad occurrence are given in yesterday's Pittsburgh Times, as follows:

A pretty but wayward girl, who has been sought for three years by her only relative, her heart-broken mother, last night dictated the following telegram as she lay on her death bed in an Allegheny resort:—"Mother, come to see me. I am sick and I need you." This was signed, "Annie."

Annie Adams, aged nineteen years, was lying in a critical condition at a late hour last night in a house conducted by Mollie Wilson at No. 81 Robinson street. Her condition is due to a criminal operation. The case has a mysterious aspect, which has led Detectives P. P. McDonagh and Leon Einstein, who investigated it, to believe that the girl had been taken to the house some time ago for the purpose of having the operation performed.

The sufferer said last night that she had not been subjected to an operation, although there is every reason to believe that surgical instruments had been used. A physician was called to the house last night by the inmates. After making an examination of the Adams woman he pronounced her condition critical and ordered her removed to the Allegheny General Hospital. The officials of that institution refused to accept the case unless a private room and a special physician were provided for the patient.

The girl was without money and friends. The inmates of the resort notified the police that the dying woman must find other quarters. As a last resort the little flaxen-haired girl asked that the above telegram be sent to her mother, Mrs. R. E. Adams, of No. 3127 Jacob street, Wheeling, W. Va. Detectives McDonagh and Einstein and Lieutenant Michael Paul notified and Lieutenant Michael Paul notified the proprietress of the house that she would be compelled to provide accommodations for the sick woman until a more suitable place could be obtained for her. The detectives last night succeeded in getting a partial confession from the girl concerning her past life. This will probably lead to the arrest of a young man of Green county today. Annie Adams until last night was known only by the name of "Peri" to the people in the house where she has been living for four weeks. About three years ago she became infatuated with a young man and she deserted her mother at Wheeling. She was deserted by her companion two weeks after they eloped. She was ashamed to return to her mother and obtained work in the Ever hotel at Duquesne, where she lived until a month ago.

HACKED TO PIECES.

Shocking Death of a Thirteen-Year-Old Girl at Martin's Ferry Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, Berta Dorsch, a thirteen-year-old girl, while walking along the Belmont trestle, in Martin's Ferry, on her return from school, was run over by a train, being literally hacked to pieces and meeting a horrible death. Little Miss Dorsch as is her wont in returning from school, started to walk along the trestle of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, near the Belmont brewery, and seeing the engine approaching she started back. Had she kept on going her life would have been spared. She stepped off the guard rail and the engine struck her, knocking her in front of it and grinding the poor child into many pieces.

Her father was among the first to arrive on the scene, and afterwards stated that he had often warned the child against walking along the railroad. The remains were picked up by an undertaker. Pieces as small as a hand were found at a distance of one hundred feet from where the accident occurred. The remains were taken to Noble's undertaking establishment, where they were viewed by Coroner Beetham and afterwards prepared for burial.

Taffeta Silks.

The old saying that all Taffeta Silks will split, may be and may not be true. Of course, there is that probability, but some Silks cut quicker than others. We are offering several lines of Black Taffetas this week. One is

 of exceptional value, for it is the usual ninety-cent quality; has extraordinary finish, and we consider good value for the above price, although our price is 68 Cents. $1.00, $1.15, $1.25.

Pod Silk.
 Very soft finish; satin effect on one side, with the twin taffeta effect on the other; very rich for skirts, trimmings, etc.—
 $1.48. 85c Yard.

Black Dress Fabrics.
 A more choice line of elegant Black Dress Goods, we think, would be hard to find, for the assortment is made up from wares from the best looms of the world, and range in price from 50c to $5.50 Yard.

A mong them will be found a special line of PRUNELLE CLOTH, a silk and wool fabric of very high finish; in fact, a regular satin effect, at $1.25, $1.45, $1.75, $2.00.

"Perolas."
 A figured effect, yet different from Crepon or Jacquard, as the ground is solid weave with a raised design in scroll effects. These are specially adapted for elegant skirts—
 $2.00 to $3.00.

Camel Hair, Thibet, Cheviots, Zebalines.
 In each there are several grades, giving a most excellent variety as to price, so that you can select for skirt, suit, jacket, good to your liking, either in price or style. We would invite comparisons in this department especially.

50 PIECES LIBERTY RIBBONS.
 All colors and black; 4 and 5 inches wide, the value of which is fifty cents a yard. Our price, this lot, 29 cents.
