

MORE COMPLEX

Becomes the Strong Failure by the Granting of an Injunction.

RESTRAINING THE EXECUTORS

And Trustees of the Will From Disposing of Any Properties Belonging to the Late Mr. Mayor—Doors of the Firm Did Not Open Yesterday.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Judge Lacombe, of the United States circuit court, to-day, on the application of Elizabeth T. Griswold, of Philadelphia, granted a temporary injunction against Mr. U. Strong, P. Bradlee Strong and Albert R. Stupp, individually and executors and trustees of the will of the late William L. Strong, which restrains them from parting with or disposing of certain mortgages, bonds, stocks and other securities claimed by the complainant. The bill of the complainant states that prior to November 2, 1900, the complainant entrusted to the late William L. Strong certain money approximately amounting to $102,000, for the sole purpose of investigating the same for her benefit and account; that Mr. Strong advised her from time to time that such investments were made in goods and sufficient mortgages, bonds and stocks and other securities.

Took Possession of His Estate.
The papers also assert that on the death of Mr. Strong the defendant took possession of his estate, including the property owned by the complainant, which on the 12th of November they refused to deliver to the petitioner; and she therefore asks that the three defendants or their agents be restrained from selling, delivering or parting with the property mentioned.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Edward A. Treat, receiver for the Strong firm, when asked about the injunction granted by Judge Lacombe to Eliza T. Griswold against the Strong heirs, referred inquiries to Arthur H. Van Brunt, one of the attorneys for the receiver, who said: "I have given out everything except the figures. These I do not know about. It will take some time to find out the amount of the liabilities and to balance them with the assets. Then it will be a week or two weeks before the books can be gone over. No, I do not care to talk about the matter of notes just now."

Were Intimate Friends.
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The connection of Mr. Strong with the Griswolds has extended over a long period. He was one of the most intimate friends of the elder Mr. Griswold, now deceased. The suit is brought by the heirs as individuals and not by the Griswold worsted company. It is thought that this claim will be amicably adjusted and will not come to trial.

Major Putnam B. Strong said to-day that his mother owns the house, 12 West Fifty-second street, which may be worth $175,000; and that she also has a small income from property left her by her grandfather, Israel Shelton, a southern planter.

"I know nothing about the report that comes from Philadelphia fixing the liabilities at $5,000,000. My opinion is that the liabilities are not so large," he said. "It is untrue that my father worried over his affairs, and that this worry hastened his death."

The doors of the firm did not open this morning.

SIMPLE SERVICES

Over the Late Marcus Daly—Grand Requiem Mass Sung—Financiers the Fall Benefers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The funeral services over the late Marcus Daly, who died in this city November 13, took place at St. Patrick's cathedral to-day. Solemn requiem mass was celebrated by the Right Rev. Bishop Brondel, of Helena, Mont. He was assisted by Rev. Father Michael J. Lavelle, of St. Patrick's and others.

The musical programme was rendered by a double chorus and choir. The grand requiem mass by Cherubini was sung.

The pall bearers were: James B. Haggin, John W. Mackey, Henry H. Rogers, Hosmer B. Parsons, John A. Sullivan, ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant, William Scallan and William L. Bull. The casket was taken to Calvary and placed in the receiving vault.

Sixth to Remain in China.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—Gen. Chaffee has cabled the war department the following from Taku, under date of November 14:

"Sixth regiment, United States cavalry, will remain in China under command of Lieutenant Colonel Theodore J. Whit, with troops I, K, L and M."

"CHAFFEE."

Glasgow Port Free From Plague.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—Surgeon General Wyman, of the Marine hospital service, this morning received the following cablegram from Surgeon Thomas, at Glasgow:

"GLASGOW, Nov. 13.
"Post declared free from plague November 14."
THOMAS."

Saw the Stars Shoot.

NORTHFIELD, Minn., Nov. 15.—More than seventy meteors were noted during the night at the Goodsell observatory. During the early morning hours a number of Leonids were observed together with a considerable shower from the constellation Gemini, these last being unexpected. Professor Wilson made several exposures with the camera attached to the eight-inch Clark telescope, for the purpose of obtaining trails of the Leonids. There were five distinct groups or showers. The last was the best, prevailing until the stars faded before the dawn.

GAS EXPLOSION.

One Person Fatally Injured—Two Seriously Hurt—House Totally Destroyed.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 15.—An explosion of natural gas in a house at 1010 Carson street, South Side, at 8:15 o'clock this morning, caused the fatal injury of one person, serious burns to two others, and the total destruction of a two story brick dwelling. The following were injured:

Joseph Dobson, thirty-eight years old; frightfully burned about the face and body; supposed to have inhaled the flames; will die.

Mrs. Annie Dobson, wife of Joseph Dobson; painfully burned about the face and hands.

August Barchert, a shoemaker; face badly burned.

The explosion occurred shortly after Mrs. Dobson had arisen to prepare breakfast for her husband, who was still in bed. The moment she applied a match to the kitchen stove the gas let go. The entire east side of the building was blown out and the brick walls crumbled against the side of the adjoining building. In an instant flames wrapped the entire wreck, and to escape from the fire was impossible.

Dobson was asleep and before he could be rescued he was burned black. The others escaped with difficulty. The building was almost totally destroyed. It is thought that the gas accumulated in the house from a leak during the night.

DIED TOGETHER.

New York Physician and Unknown Woman Found in Bedroom of Boulevard Hotel—Were Asphyxiated.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Dr. Christopher T. Ahlstrom, of this city, and an unknown woman were found dead in a bedroom in the Boulevard hotel, in Broadway. Both had been suffocated by illuminating gas.

Rheinhold Busse, proprietor of the hotel, said the couple, whom he had never seen before, came to the hotel about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They drank together in the restaurant and seemed in the best of spirits.

About 7 o'clock the man asked for a room for himself and the woman. He registered as "John Mullen and wife, New York City." He was assigned to a room on the third floor. The room was a small hall bedroom. About 2 o'clock this morning Proprietor Busse found that gas was escaping from the room. An entrance was forced and the gas was found escaping from a radiator. One of the gas jets burned dimly.

Woman on the Floor.

The woman was found on the floor and the man on the bed. Both were dead. The woman was a handsome brunette about twenty-seven years old. Her clothing was of good quality. On her left hand were four rings which, the police say, are worth $1,000. In the room was a seakins sash with a tag upon it bearing the name "Marshall Field & Company, Chicago."

There were no signs on either body indicating poison. It is the opinion of the hotel proprietor and the police that the deaths were accidental, the occupants of the room falling to properly shut off the radiator's gas supply. Dr. Ahlstrom was a widower. His daughter, Rachel, who lived with him, was unable to give any information bearing on the tragedy, except that yesterday afternoon a woman of the description of the one found dead, called at her father's office. Rachel admitted her, believing her to be a patient. The visitor left in half an hour and was not accompanied from the house by the doctor.

Woman Identified.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The woman who was found dead in the Boulevard hotel this morning, with Dr. Ahlstrom, was identified as Mrs. Harry Gardner, of 106 West One Hundred and First street, the wife of a man who followed the race.

Mrs. Gardner's mother, it was learned, lives in Chicago. When the husband of the woman was found today near his fat, he said he was out looking for her last night after he had failed to find her at home. When he saw her picture printed to-day he identified it as that of his wife. The couple were married in 1893 and lived in Ohio before they went to Chicago. Gardner's brother was a patient of Dr. Ahlstrom. Gardner thought the doctor fond of his wife, but never suspected her fidelity. He believes she was lured to the hotel by Ahlstrom and drugged, and that Ahlstrom becoming alarmed, killed himself.

The autopsy held late to-day showed that death in both cases was caused by gas asphyxiation.

MINIATURE RIOT.

Several Hundred Shots Fired Between Members of Two Cigar Makers' Unions—No One Injured.

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 15.—A miniature riot broke out to-day at the gates of the cigar factory of Gonzales, Morn & Co. Several hundred shots were fired. No one was injured and the mob was dispersed by the police.

For several days trouble has been brewing between the members of the International Cigar Makers' Union and the Spanish union known as the Resistencia. Members of the International union have quit work in a number of factories, throwing about 2,000 persons out of employment. The Spanish union is apparently not in sympathy with the movement and about five hundred of its members continued at work in the Gonzales factory. To-day the Internationalists marched up and demanded that these men come out. They were warned off the premises. An international man tried to push his way through the gates and was fired upon by the Italian guard. A volley was fired in reply from the street. The front and sides of the building were riddled. Those inside fired blindly through the windows. No one was hit, however. The police soon arrived and dispersed the crowd.

"All factories closed at noon and to prevent further trouble one hundred extra police and a squad of deputy sheriffs were sworn in."

Women and the Suffrage Right.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Women seem to be a good deal alike the world over when it comes to exercising the suffrage right. At the county council elections in London only one-fifth of the women entitled to vote have qualified for the privilege. Vigorous efforts have been made to arouse an interest in these apathetic suffrage holders, energetic canvassers have gone among them, but the best result yet obtained was but 22 per cent of the total qualified voting population. These are sad facts for the enthusiastic equal suffragists to contemplate.

The Russian newspapers are jubilantly celebrating the fortieth anniversary of the treaty of Peking, by which Russia acquired an immense amount of territory. The Novoye Vremya, however, unfavorably compares Russian diplomacy then with European diplomacy now, and says that it is authorized to state emphatically that an effort will be made to press a campaign for a separate peace by Russia in the negotiations with China. This is not, however, understood as representing the government's views.

ORDNANCE BUREAU

Gives Out Its Report Through General Buffington—Interesting Features Yet to Come—Field Guns Dismissed With a Paragraph.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—The report of General Buffington, chief of the bureau of ordnance, has been made to the secretary of war. As some of the most interesting portions of the report, dealing with disputed points between the ordnance bureau and the board of ordnance and fortifications are contained in appendices which have not yet been made public, the report is not as interesting as expected. Among these features is that of field guns, which is dismissed with a paragraph stating that the facts can be found in an appendix. The ordnance bureau was about to let the contracts for two hundred field guns when the recommendation of the board of ordnance and fortifications was approved, holding up any action for some months. It is in connection with field ordnance that an agent of the government has obtained what he alleges is the secret of the French field gun, and which it is proposed shall be tested by this government.

Another controversy is that relating to the disappearing gun carriages, whose further manufacture has been decided against by the board of ordnance and fortifications. General Buffington discusses the history of this carriage, showing that it was ordered by the Endicott board and the secretary of war.

ARMY OF TENNESSEE

Re-elected its Officers—Next Reunion of Society to be Held at Indianapolis.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 15.—The Society of the Army of the Tennessee to-day re-elected their officers as follows: President, Granville M. Dodge, New York; corresponding secretary, General A. Mrs. George W. Thompson, of No. 2413 Market street, says: "I had constant dull, aching pain across the small of my back and heavy bearing down pains in the bladder. I could not rest at nights on account of my back, and lay for hours in a vain effort to get to sleep, rising in the mornings tired and languid, more so than when I went to bed. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised my back and kidneys were very bad. I went to the Logan Drug Company's and got a box and took them. A few doses did me good, and when I had completed the box I was cured."

The Center of Population.

New York World: Not the least remarkable result of the census of 1900 is that it arrests the westward march of what is known as the "center of population." This point, which has been moving steadily westward at each successive census, was established by the census of 1890 as being in the southern part of Indiana, at a point a little west of Greensburg, the county seat of Decatur county, and twenty miles east of Columbus. Geographically, it is in latitude 39 degrees 11 minutes and 56 seconds, and longitude 85 degrees 32 minutes and 53 seconds.

But in the past ten years the population of the states lying wholly east of this meridian has increased to almost exactly the same extent as in the states west of it, the increase in each case being in round numbers 6,000,000, out of a total of 13,225,000. The remaining 1,225,000 increase is furnished by the states of Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama. And it will require a distribution of population by census tracts to determine whether there has been any westward advance in the center of population. But at the rate, the advance will be trifling, and the east holds its own with the west in contributing to our national greatness.

HEIRESS WEDS.

Daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan Becomes Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee. Costly and Magnificent Nuptials.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Miss Louise Pierpont Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, was married at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in St. George's church, Stuyvesant square, to Herbert Livingston Satterlee, a lawyer of this city. The invitations for the ceremony numbered 2,500, much beyond the seating capacity of the church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Rainford, rector of St. George's church. The service was fully choral. The musical programme was opened half an hour before the ceremony with Meyerbeer's "Coronation march," and included the "Moorish serenade," and "Jonas, Jansen's 'Bridal song,' selections from 'Mignon,' the march from 'Tannhauser' and selections from 'Romeo and Juliet.' As the bridal procession entered the church the wedding march from 'Lohengrin' was sung and played.

The bride, who was accompanied by her father, wore a superb wedding gown of white peau de soie, almost entirely covered with exquisite point d'Alencon. The veil was of tulle, and the bouquet was of white orchids, lilies of the valley and white roses.

The Attendants.

The bridesmaids were Miss Tracy Morgan, the bride's sister; Miss Caroline Morgan, Miss Ursula Morgan, and Miss Frances Street Hapkin, her cousins; Miss Marion Satterlee, sister of the bridegroom and Miss May Sturges.

The floral decorations in the church and house were of an unusually elaborate character. The chancel was fully decorated with palms and white roses. Clusters of pink and white roses decorated each pew end. The Morgan residence, where the reception was held, was also handsomely decorated with a profusion of roses, chrysanthemums and palms.

The couple received in the drawing room, standing in front of a mass of flowers. A buffet luncheon was served under a large temporary structure erected in the yard adjoining the house. The bride received from her father a superb tiara and collar of diamonds and a brooch of marquis diamonds set in treface design, and, it is said, Mr. Morgan has set aside for her bonds of great value.
