DOUGLAS & JOHNSON. THERE WILL BE A MEETING OF THE DOUG-LAS and Johnson Club, at their flead Quarters, Melodeou Buildings, (old Son of Matta Hall) on Fri-day evening, at ½ past 7 o'clock. There will be rome good speaking. A general rally of the Douglas men is expected.

BEST THE WHEELING UNION AND THE Union of yesterday morning, made the following statements in reference to the Republican flag presentation, pole raising and .. eeting in Martinsville on Saturday

There were not more than 40 or 50 Republicans (present at the pole raising) inluding two darkies, one of whom addressed the meeting after the pole was up.

The flag was presented by thirty-three young ladies, dressed as follows: SIXTEEN IN BLACK, SIXTEEN IN WHITE, and white arm in arm. The thirty-third was dressed in deep scarlet, with red liberty cap, and walked behind alone and weeping, representing, as the speakers said, bleeding Kansas.

other meaning for this than amalgamation and equality of the races.

The whole affair was not only a fizzle as regarded numbers and enthusiasm, but the proceedings disgraceful in the extreme, so much so that. we were told, even Republicans turned away disgusted.

For the sake of truth and decency we have taken some pains to inquire into the above statements. In the first place there the meeting after the pole was up nor be-There was a very old negro on the ground of nearly 8000 feet. before the raising, named Charley, whose mind, if he ever had any, has become deranged. the young ladies, which the Union intiamalgamation, we have a word to say. It was not convenient for the young ladies all to dress in white, or all in black, so they dressed half in black and half in white, and the Union happened in this single respect to tell the truth. The badges containing the names of the States represented were given to the girls and worn without regard to the color of the dresses. The style of the apparel was intended to have no significance other than economy or convenience as every sensible person knows, yet the Union pretends to see in the matter an ardent love for the nigger and a frightful sentiment of amalgamation. The poor little girl who was dressed in red happened to represent Kansas and about the time the procession started for the pole, she was pursued and wasn't weeping for bleeding Kansas! Mr. Lindsay, a member of Parliament, had been authorized to proceed to Wash ington to lay before the Government the riews of Great Britain relative to the navigation laws and belligerent rights, and enter into negotiation for opening the coasting trade, etc.

FRANCE.-Napoleon, in a speech at Lyons, condemned the unjust distrust abroad, and declaring that nothing should make him deviate from the path of moderation and justice. His sole desire was to advance the general interests of France, and he urged the people to give their attention to works of peace. He was determined that, with God's assistance, France should not degenerate under his dynasty.

The pacific nature of this speech of the Emperor's had caused an advance on the Bourse, and rentes were quoted at 68f. 25c. The Paris Constitutionel publishes an article stating that the relations between France and Austria are excellent, and congratulating Austria on the reform tendency of its Administrol.

Two Neapolitan brigades had surrendered to Gen. Cosing at his discretion. The Garibaldians were masters of fort Delpizzo and also, after a short fight, occupied the villa of San Giovanni.

A defection in the King's army at Naples, was considered extremely probable, and it was believed that Garibaldi would enter the city of Naples without blood-

A conflict had occurred between the Neapolitan troops and some Bersaglaris, who had landed from Sardinian vestels. An English steamer, the Orful, from Hull, with passengers for Messina, was seized by the passengers while the Captain was ashore at Genoa. It was supposed that the passengers were friends of Gari-baldi. The vessel was chartered under a penalty of five thousands against scizure. The inference is that she was designed for Garibaldi.

Sardinia prohibits any more volunteers embarking at Genoa for Sicily.
