WHEELING:

Saturday Morning, Oct. 13, 1860.

ON SATUEDAY AFTERNOON AT TWO o'clock, the Bepublicans will hold a meeting in Triadelphia. Republican Meeting in Triadelphia. Turn out, Republicans, from all parts of the county, and let us have a good meeting.

Republican Tickets.

We shall commence this week, printing our electoral Republican tickets for all parts of the State, and by the first of next week they will be ready for mailing to all the counties where they may be wanted .-Price, by the hundred, 50cts. Price, by the thousand, $2.50. Send in your orders at once.

Republican Documents.

The State Executive Committee have now an immense quantity of campaign documents on hand, which can be had gratis on either personal or written application to the Republican Executive State Committee, or to Thos. Hornbrook, Esq., Wheeling, Va.

We hope our friends in the lower counties will avail themselves at once.

Another Republican Congressman Gained in Pennsylvania.

The Republicans have gained another Congressman in Pennsylvania. Lehman (Democrat) is not elected, as first reported, but a Republican is. Philadelphia has done wonders this election. It is confidently claimed-on what authority we can't see-that Andy Stewart (Republican) is elected in the Washington District We still believe that Lazear is the man.

An interesting Republican meetinglargely attended-was beld at the stone school House, on Pierce's Run, in Brooke County, on Thursday evening. A. W. Campbell addressed the meeting -Some of the best and most substantial men in that precinct are either directly for Lincoln, or very favorably affected towards him. Good old Brooke is rather a slow, Rip Van Winkle sort of a county; but when she wakes up and moves, she does so in good earnest, and she is waking just now. Such excellent men as Joseph Applegate, John Atkinson, Andrew Smith, and many others, are doing an excellent work by their zeal in the Republican cause. All it wants in Brooke is work. Already the Republicans outnumber any other party in Wellsburg, and it is in their power to greatly increase their strength.

Is rr not a little refreshing to hear the Democrats talking mournfully of the great danger which besets the Union when the agitation, which they consider the great 'source of peril, grew directly and necessarily out of the conduct of their own party, and has since been kept up by them as much as by any class of men in the country? And now to cure this so-called evil, seems to be their doctrine. "As the Democracy have had the power for eight years, and affairs have been growing worse all the while, therefore let us make sure of four years more of Democratic rule. As more of the legal voters of the country want Abraham Lincoln than are in favor of any other candidate, therefore let us try to preserve the public peace by defeating last their will. As an election by the House is the most exciting and dangerous mode allowed by the constitution, as it opens the door to corruption, intrigue and violence, as it makes the choice of President an election by the States, and not by the people, therefore let us try by all sorts of fusions and combinations to prevent an election by a plurality of the people and refer the matter to the House, and all this to keep the peace and save the Union .-Let us increase, so far as in us lies, the chance of Lane, whom most of us desire least of all the candidates. Let us cast our votes for electors without knowing whether they will support the champion of the protection of slavery in the territories, or the defender of popular sovereignty, or the candidate with no platform whatever, or in some States let us so act that our votes will be divided between those three men. Let us do anything and everything, let us repudiate doctrines we have preached, let us hug in friendly embrace those whom we have so long abused, let us praise men whom we have always assailed and assail those whom we have always praised, let us pass resolutions and declare that we mean nothing by them, and all to prevent the election of the honest, upright statesman, whose reputation has not been sullied even by the breath of calumny, and whose elevation to the highest office in the land is desired by more people than that of any other candidate." Have not the people had about enough of this kind of saving the

Some of the southern papers are talking about disunion, upon which no two seem to agree in sentiment or tone. The Montgomery (Ala.) Confederation, from the text of the present hard times in Alabama, talks to its disunion friends with great plainness, as follows:

Union and preserving peace?

"Just go ahead with your shouts and huzzas for disunion and revolution one month longer, and then you will have something in reality to complain of. You havn't seen anything yet. Just let the impression get out,' and pretty generally believed, that the Union is going to be dissolved, and we will see whether you can sell cotton, or anything else, at any Price at all."

LOLA MONTEZ has had a very severe attack of paralysis, and it has left her fage partly turned over her shoulder. Poor Lolal what a sad fate.

THE reporters who accompany Baron Renfrew tell us that the dear people have as to prevent any citizen of our county for the most part conducted themselves with politeness and propriety in the presence of our distinguished guest .-The following incident, bowever, is not very creditable to the City of Richmond. The correspondent of the New York Times, writing from there, says:

"For the first time, the Prince has departed from his meritorious resolve of doing nothing in violation of the ordinary observance of the Sabbath. After service he went with the Mayor, the Dake of Newcastle and Gen. Bruce to visit the Capitol. There being no police, the rade, ill-bred crowd pushed in, and allowed the party, who were joined by Gov. Letcher, no privacy whatever. While examining the Houdon statue of Washington, the crowd surrounded the royal party, and annoyed them beyond endurance, while they insulted them with such remarks as (Washington) socked it into you at the Revolution. 'He gave you English squirts the colic.' 'We reckon you do love Washington-oh, certain! until young Davis, the artist turned upon them, and sided by two reporters, managed to stop their insolence for a while. But as the party walked towards the Senate Chamber, the crowd started a run, and actually pushed them inside of the door."

Mesers. Editors:-Having received from the Committee of the Union Guards of Wheeling, an invitation to attend and participate in a grand torchlight procession on Saturday evening, and being un-der the necessity of declining the same, we deem it proper at this time to State our reasons therefore. We were for Bell and Everett, and could they be elected we would still be for them; but are not now, and never were for Joe Lane or Douglas. For the last three months the rank and file of our party have been sold and resold to Locofocoism in all its varied forms. by such political jockies as the Brookses and Hunts, in New York, who care nothine locofocos. At the State elections in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana, our party was utterly dissolved by the corruption infused into it by such political hucksters as the above named. Such of the followers of Bell and Everett as seem so anxious to fall into the arms of modern Democracy. we envy not; but, when compelled to choose between such Democracy and Republicanism, we unbesitatingly accept the balance of the evening, but failed in their latter, knowing, from the history of the ministrations, that we cannot do worse than continue the present.

A. GRUBB, D. W. CLARK.

THE freesoil Democrats, and old Whigs, who held the doctrines of their respective parties a dozen years ago, have to be reminded of a good many sayings which they uttered then, but which they would probably prefer to have people forget just now. Greene C. Bronson, one of the fusionist electoral candidates in New York, ias the following extract from a letter, which he wrote in 1848, thrust in his face:

"If our southern brethren wish to carry heir slaves to Oregon, New Mexico, or California, they will be under the necessity of asking a law to warrant it; and it will then be in time for the free States to resist the measure, as I cannot doubt they our southern brethren should make the question, we shall have no choice but to seet it; and then whatever consequences may follow, I trust the people of the free States will give a united voice against allowing slavery on a single foot of soil where it is not now authorized by law."

Acknowledgement to our Bell-Everett Friends. [From the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian, President Buchanan's organ.]

Our acknowledgments are due, and we gratefully tender them, to the patriotic and conservative friends of the Bell-Everett ticket, for the generous support they yesterday gave to our cause, in generally casting their votes for General Foster. Against Colonel Curtin, the sectional candidate, they, as an organization, set their faces, and having no candidate of their own in the field, like patriots they adopted ours. If they have not been successful by the election of some of their own local candidates, it is not attributable to any want of sympathy. But patriotism is, or should e, unselfish and uncalculating, and the mens conscia recti is its proud reward. Such is the reward of all those conservative men who yesterday lent us their generous

THE Charleston Mercury has a long report of a meeting held in its vicinity, at which a string of resolutions was adopted, of which the following are fair specimens: "That we will support every and any OVER-COATINGS-PRINCE OF WALES, neasure that may lead us successfully out Moscow Boaver, English Kersey, Saxony Beaver of the Union—peaceably, if we can; lord-ly, if we must.

White Wallis and Petersham, of the best manufactories, which bly, if we must. bly, if we must.

That we would regard the revival of the African slave trade as a measure calculated to strengthen our position, politically and socially, and the best means of sustaining our agricultural prosperity."

OGDEN PRECINCY, Wood Co., Va.,) October Sth, 1860 }
Messrs. Editors:—Within the last three weeks we have held some seven Lincoln meetings in this region of Wood county, and could the whole county be canvassed there would be a Republican vote polled that would astonish the "bell wethers" of old parties. As it is, we will; in this upper end of the county, give "Honest Abe" such a lift as will cause some considerable "shaking among the dry bones" of these same individuals.

In 1856 but 8 votes were polled for Fremont in Wood county; now, we have the names of 40, voters on our lists in one precinct alone, who are pledged for Lincoln and Hamlin. At our last meeting, held three nights ago at Barronsville, 28 voters entered their names on the Republican roll, among them a number of our

There is a studied effort among many of the leaders of other parties to crush out our growing organization. To such an extent is this the case, that in some parts our Republican friends have thought it prudent not as yet to organize. We doubt the propriety of such a course, for now, if there ever was a time in the history of our country, is the very time that every Republican should run the hazard of doing his whole duty-for what momentous issues hang upon the result of the coming con-

There are bonorable exceptions to these efforts. There are many who refuse to stoop to such contemptable meanness. from the free exercise of his own privi-leges. In our own immediate neighborhood, all attempts to stifle the freedom of speech have been abandoned as utterly opeless, and it is gravely suggested that this infected spot should be cut out and stitched on to the "Panhandle." One week ago the citizens of Williamsown, in this county, called a meeting, to which they invited the speakers of the different parties, but before the time of the meeting it was discovered that a discussion of principles might spoil the calculations of those who had things all "fixed up." Silence was the best policy, thought ther, and so indeed it was: but this time the fact was discovered too late, for though, an effort was made to give out the impression that the meeting was abandoned, the Republicans, although baving from 8 to 13 miles to travel, were, to the dismay of their opponents, on the ground promptly at the appointed hour. Peterson, N. H. Colson, W. E. Stevenson and others were ready to enter the lists for Lincoln, but after some cross-firing, Bell, Breck, and Dug, unconditionally surrendered, and the Republicans baving thus captured the enemy without firing a shot, proceeded to have a rail meeting on their own account, and a rousing one they had. The Republican platform was read. and Mr. Stevenson, at the request of the citizens present, explained the policy set forth therein, stated the true position of the Republican party on the living questions to be acted upon in the present poitical struggle, exposed the infamous course of the party calling itself demo-cratic, explained that the Bell organization. persevered in could result in no good but might be the means of great injury by its unnatural and inconsistent combinations with the disjointed and dying dem-object. The citizens inside maintained position and Mr. Stevenson continued his speech until ten o'clock and the assembly adjourned in good order.

At this stage of the proceedings a desperate effort was made by a few pot house coliticians to break up the meeting. They gathered up all the "rude fellows of the baser sort" about town and getting under the windows of the building "made night hideous with their howling," but still the are wannew, ordanning both bars where the sash meet and crushing a number of lights. It was fortunate that this rock spent its force on the strong bars of the sash, for had it struck the glass below it would almost certainly have broken the skull of one of our oldest and best citizens, who sat at the time with his head against the window.

To show what dastardly cowards these fellows are, it is only necessary to relate an incident of the evening.

A very quiet and civil man from the country, one who was not, for all that, to be tramped on, and whose bodily proportions are almost equal to "Old Abe," stepped out as soon as the rock struck the door, apparently to give the rioters some muscle; but the courage of these brave fellows oozed out at the ends of their fingers, and from the ringleaders down, every man made his beels do their duty.

These same brave men afterwards attacked a boy who had been left at a distance to watch the team. These same brave fellows put a halter on this boy with the intention, as they said, of dragging him to the river, but his own resolution and the aid of a would with unwavering firmness. But if that the "big from the country" was comroung man who stood by, and a report ing again, frightened these courageous rioters into their holes, where they have been ever since.

It is but simple justice to say that the respectable portion of citizens in the town denounce these riotous proceedings. They maintained order as far as it was possible to do so in the face of a drunken mob .-They held possession of the house and enabled the citizens to begin and close, in spite of outside disturbance, the first Re-publican meeting held in Williamston.
