Ms. Editors.—As there have been many exaggerated accounts published in reference to the said affair at Guyandotte, we deem it due to Hon. K. V. Whaley that a statement of fasts connected therewith should be made by those who actually participated in the same. The public may feel some interest in knowing how Col. Whaley came to be occupying the post with sex-meager a force. The facts are briefly these. He had been authorised by Gov. Pelrpoint, of Virginia, to raise the 5th. Regiment of Virginia, to raise the 5th. Regiment of Virginia to cause the shead undertes, deeming it altogether asferom the positions occupied by other regiments around him. He had at the time the caustrophe occurred, recruited about 150 men, but on account of sickness (measles), be had given furloughs to about half that, number, who were at the time beaut from came.

(measles), he had given furloughs to about half, that, number, who were at the time absent from camp.

The attack was made on the night of the 10th ult., by 1,250 cavatry, under Colonele Clarkson and Jenkins, the loriner being in command. They having marched forty miles that day, the attack was not made until about 1 alf-past eight o'clock P. M. The soldiers were not atchurch as has been praviously stated; nor were services held in any church that alight, except prayer meeting by the Chaplan of the regiment, and attended by a lew Union feiends of the town, with eight or tan of the toops.

The attack was commenced by Onelain Oorns, who dashed into the town at the Every officer in camp is well aware that Ool. Our troops are most all in good health.

I think I never seen a heartier looking set of men than we have now. They have got used to Uncle Sam's die, and can undergo more hardships than if they had been fed on dainties. Uncle Sam feeds as well, and we are willing to go to the extreme part of South Carolina, if necessary, to help put down sebellion, for we intend to do all we can to restore to our once happy, but now distracted country, her former peace. We feel that we are fully able to march forth and possess the land. I believe that the rebels know that we are, but if they do not know it now, they will know it to their own hearts content by the first of next March, for I believe, yes, I know, that Uncle Sam has the money and the men to entirely abdue them, if it has to be dose. We have as good officers as any other regiment in the field. I believe our Captalias, Lieutesants and other officers can be beat. Our Colonel is peculiarly fitted for the position he occupies. He makes it his special care to see that every man in his regiment is comfortable, consequently every soldier would cheerfully "go is to the death" for Col. D. F. Hewes. Our Adjutant understands everything, and with a little more experience will make as good an officer as ever led the way to battle; in fact every min in the regiment is analouse to beled on to Southern South and peace be again restored.—May the Lord mile on every effort that is put forth by our officers in the cause of the Uniton and liberty, and give them wisdom from on high.

ind Parkershung, Va. Dec. 1, 1861.

Massre Editors.—On Tuesday, Nov. 27th,
Capt. Simpson, of the 11th Virginia Regiment, Gotal. dl. Bathbone, started on a scouling expedition with twenty-six men of his command. The detachment arrived at the little Kanswah early in the morning, and were fortunate suough to capture Old Pat Rafferty, of Moceasin Ranger notoriety, having in his keeping a considerable amount of property, including ladies' wearing apparel, children's clothing and a host of other articles, all of which he had stoles from the Union people of the surrounding country.

The detachment retrograded to the house of one Jackson Wright, another gentleman of the Moceasin persuasion, who at the particular moment happened to be at home, for a wonder, as most of the Moceasin chaps are "dott" when called upon.—Cant. Simpson very politely requested Mr.

WHERLING, Dec. 4, 1861.

Editors of the Intelligencer:

In your issue of Dec. 3d, I noticed a communication from Wm. G. Pierson, exhonerating himself from all blame of willing and malicious murder in the case of Brake, Araold and others!

Now I happen to know something about this man Pierson, being born and reared in the same neighborhood, and consequently have a right to know as much of his principles as any one in Lewis or Braxton counties. Mr. Pierson has always been a loyal and good cilizen ever aince my recollection; and since the breaking our of this war he has dentified himself with the Union party, and has never been known to war he has identified himself with the Inion party, and has never been known to plight his faith to any other decirine.

Mr. Pierson has done more for Braxton county than any other may in it or adjoining localities. He came on with the first Federal army under Gol. Tyler, and used all his influence in behalf of the people of Braxton, flewig, Nicholas and Juner counties.

Beating, hewis, recouse and other consists.

He was one amongst the first to validate the Federal cause in his neighborhood, and maintained his principles sucrounded on all sides by overwhelming dumbers of enemies to their country, and in so doing he received a sucre wound of which he is scarcely well yet. Butter these considerations, and in vew of this array of facts it think the matter should be properly investigated and thoroughly sitted before proceeding to extremities, or passing premature opinions desogatory to the standing and character of an estimable citizen.

If the facts in the case prove different from my views. I have dothing to say, proor con on the subject. My previous knowledge of the gentleman in question which this notice.

Patham's "Rebellion Record."

During the trial in the United States Circuit Court, which terminated resterday, in the conviction of William Smith for prince, as one of the crew of the Left Dans, a great deal of documentary evidence, to show the reality of Seossion, was offered in evidence by coursel for the defence avowedly taken from Frank Bonce's "Rebellion Record," and received by Judges Grier and Cadwalader, who presided. This is a remarkable compliment to the work in question—but not higher than it merils from the fullness and fairness of its varied information respecting the origin and profrom the full uses and fattness of its varied information respecting the origin and progress of the Rebellion. It is the first time, in legal and literary history, that a book not yet completed has been so stamped with authenticity as to be admitted as evidence in a Court of Lune, and on a trail for acceptal offence. The work is one which, in the daily discharge of our duties, we constantly refer to, with full reliance upon its containing a judicious collection of news, as it occurs, of documentary narratives, and of poetry, rumors, incidents, and anaecdates of the sarr. From the leading journals is care. of documentary narratives, and of poetry, rumors, incidents, and aneedoes of the war. From the leading journals is carefully called a great deal of information, on both sides. Of this work the first volume is completed, forming a thick 8rc, with an original introduction on the causes of the atroggle, and the great issues before the country, by Edward Byerett, a copious index, eleven portraits on steel, a man and wirings diagrams. This volume includes the time from December, 1880, to last June. In Mr. Outlie interesting biography of the late Theodore Winthrop, he recorded that true patriot and man of genius, "Eapecisfly he wished that some competent person would keep a careful record of events as they passed; for ise are making our history, he said, hand over land."—What he desired is now being done by Frank Moore, editor of this "Rebellion Record." Thanks to his industry in collecting and judgment interesting from all reliable sources, here he is putting saids the best materials for the future historian.
