DISTURBANCE IN WASHINGTON, PA .be people of Washington held a fair last ek, at which there was a good deal patriotic feeling manifested. We learn om the Pittsburgh Gazette that on Thursly evening the copperheads exhibited a sposition to introduce the "Donnabrook" store, and succeeded in getting up sevsal fights. John Woods, a man who ocog the street, near the Mansion House, outed "hurrah for Curtin." An Engaman, on the opposite side, shouted for allandigham. Woods crossed over and sted who hallooed for Vallandigham .be Englishman answered "I did." Woods made a pass at him, but missed him. Atthis instant Woods was approached from chind, by a man named Matthew Linn, who dealt him a murderous blow on the back of the head with a stone or handybilly. A lady who saw the cowardly assolt, thinks a stone was used. Woods by insensible for an hour and a half, and very dangerously injured. Linn is a otorious copperhead, and it is alleged that he had a dislike for Woods on account of previous difficulties of a political character. On the same evening a Union man named Adams was severely kicked and beaten by party of copperheads. A colored man named Al. Bryan was set upon by twocopperheads named Brady and Mountz, who knocked him down and abused him considerably. Bryan is an athletic man and able to hold his own against any one individual, beace it became necessary for these valiant fellows to "double team" him. The snakes are exceedingly venomous over in Washington, and will be until the 13th of October, when their fangs will be drawn.

THE different Fire Companies of the city were out on parade on Saturday. The display was a very fine one. The companies turned out more fully than we tmember to have seen on any previous parade for a long time. The engines and reels looked to be in splendid condition and were beautifully decorated with wreaths of evergreens and flowers, interspersed with appropriate mottoes.

The whole affair was very creditable and looks as if the fire department of our city was once more on its proper footing.

The rebels find no difficulty in getting through the lines, visiting their omes and returning when they please.

Last week Captain Parker of the 118th militia arrested a man named Cal. Arnett of Indian creek and brought him through here on his way to Clarksburg. Arnett professes that he came through intending to give himseli up and become a loyal citisen, but he lied about so many things that we have no confidence in any professions that he made. We learn that a man named Fisher of the same neighborhood has since been arrested and is now in jail in. Morgantown. BROKE JAIL .- On Thursday about 2 o'clock in the forencon Reason K. Fowler and John Yost confined, the former for stealing a horse and the latter for robbing the cars at Glover's Gap, broke jail and made their escape out the Clarksburg pike. They effected their escape by loosening the iron bolt which passes through the wall and to which the lock of the door is attached. The bolt was fastened on the inside of the cell by a bur which they unscrewed, and pushing the bolt out, door was open. We wonder, that such easy facilities, they did not get out

New CITY DIRECTORY .- The work of canvassing for this invaluable work is progressing rapidly, and our citizens should pear in mind that this is not to be a work like those heretofore published.

It will contain everything that is requisite for a good directory, and contains a Post Office directory which alone is worth the price asked for the whole work. It is consulted daily by every class of citizens, which makes it one of the best mediums for permanent advertisements, which could not be circulated in a better way, for the same amount of money. It will be well to remember that it will be furnished to subscribers only.

WE are requested to direct the attention of paroled prisoners to the necessity of reporting to the nearest military commander, to be forwarded to Parole Camp. Chattanooga.
On the morning of the 18th, a portion of the expected reinforcements, consisting of two brigades of the reserve corps, respectively commanded by Cols. A. C. Cook and Mitchell, made their appearance near Chat-tanooga, and were immediately ordered to make a reconnoissance toward Ringgold, that quarter. They came upon the advance of Longstreet's corp, pushed it back for some distance, took a number of prisoners from it, and fully established the an-ticipated concentration of the enemy in front of our left.

All day Friday the cavalry covering our front skirmished with different bodies of the enemy.

Friday night the divisions of Branna and Baird, together with Johnson's of McCook's corps, moved from the rear to the left of Crittenden's corps; they were in their new positions at daybreak. The other two divisions of McCook's corps, Davis' and Sheridan's, were to move into the position abandoned by Thomas' corps, but had not time to assume it fully before he commencement of the action.

without forewarning the approaching con-flict, but shortly before 11 o'clock the storm that had been been brewing all morning on the rebel side burst forth in the expected direction. At that time a long mass of rebel infantry was seen advancing upon Brannan's divisions on the extreme left. It first came upon the second brigade, Col. Croxton commanding, and soon forced it back, despite its determined resistance. The two other brigades of the division at once came to its assistance and succeeded in checking the progress of the rebels, driving them back, but their column in turn being strongly reinforced they advanced again with vells. So powerful was the assault that they pushed Brannan back to and beyond his position on the line, and thus uncovered the left of Baird's division. Making prompt use of their advantage they changed their course to the left and speed ily enveloped Scribner's and King's brigades, the latter regulars. They were almost surrounded, but managed to disen-tangle themselves after a fearful loss. The rebel masses next came upon John so'n division and rolled it upon Reynolds', which also became speedily involved in the struggle. The resistance of these divi-sions and the sweeping fire of some batstruggle. The resistance of these divisions and the sweeping fire of some batteries posted under the personal supervision of General Rosecrans arrested at last their advance. The divisions of Brannan their advance. The divisions of Brannan was to go by that route will thus be so their advance. The divisions of Brannan and Baird having been rallied, General Thomas ordered a general advance of the right, and soon the tide of the battle, was decidedly turned in our favor. With cheers our line advanced, halting only at times to shatter the enemy with muskerry. Several times the latter's retreating line stopped and vainly tried to retain their ground, but they were driven from position to po-sition, and by 4 o'clock all the ground was nearly recovered.

Several batteries belonging to Generals Baird's and Brannan's division, whose horses had been killed and the supports swept away, were re-taken and several hundred prisoners captured.

The enemy left all their dead and nearly all their wounded on the field. There were at least 500 of the former,

At the time the struggle was turning in our favor Bragg's army proper did not consist of the corps of Polk and Hill. Hardee's moved to a most determined and well executed attack upon Palmer and Van Well executed attack upon Fainer and van Cleve's divisions in the centre. Its object was obviously to relieve the defeated rebel right. Palmer and Yan Cleve soon found themselves over-powered and their divisions breaking and their complete rout imminent, when Davis' division came to their support on Van Cleve's right.

Timely reinforcements at first had the effect of checking the enemy and restoring our line; but the rebel attack was speedily renewed with greater numbers and out centre was again compelled to yield.— Davis was forced to the right and Van lleve to the left and the enemy advanced through the opening made is our line, threatening to take the centre and right by their flanks as they had done on the

At this critical juncture Sheridan's division appeared and was at once thrown upon the enemy. It stood its ground gallantly for awhile, but soon became exposed to a destructive flank fire and was compelled to to fall back. Fortunately the divisions of Gens. Wood

NEW YORK, September 26 .- According to a correspondence of the Tribune previ-ous to the battle, McCook's corps reached Alpine, 28 miles north-west of he 10th. Thomas' corps encountered the enemy in force in the valley between Mission and Pigeon mountains on the 11th, and fell back to Mission ridge on the 12th. On Thomas' report Rosecrans ordered McCook to fall back to the main force which he accomplished on the 19th. Deserters on the 16th and 17th reported

It is currently said here and such, in fact, is the purport of information received from various sources, that the reinforcenents sent off to help Bragg against Rosecrans, have left Richmond almost defense-less. There is but a handful of troops left there for the security of the rebel capital.

The late battle of Chattanooga would have had a different result if the orders of the Government had been more punctually obeyed. Government was aware of the design of the rebels in reinforcing Bragg, namely to overwhelm our army by superior numbers, and sent a message to Gen. Burnside in a peremptory manner, ordering him to reinforce Rosecrans immediately. Two days afterwards a telsgraph message was received here from Burnside to the effect that he had taken Jonesboro, and should now proceed to the assistance of Rosecrans. At the last ad-vices the main body of the troops under Burnside were at Athens. His advance was at Cleaveland. The Government is not satisfied with this proceeding of Burnside, and it is yet to be seen what neces sity there was for his neglect to obey the order given him in such express terms. Four hundred deserters from the Army of the Potomac were sent to the front

About 2,000 Union exchanged prisoners arrived from Richmond at Annapolis on The delegation here from Missouri is said to be unanimously in favor of Geo. Butler for the successor to Geo. Schoffeld. They express the determination to remain till the latter is removed and Butler or some other acceptible commander is sp-pointed. They are preparing for an inter-interview with the President. Good News from Rosecrans. Washington, September 26,-The Re-publican says the Government has received glorious news from Resecrans, but the de tails cannot be stated. The rebel army from the latest telegrams, has not, it appears molested Rosecrans in his present position. There is in Washington a great spirit of cheerfulness regarding further nilitary movements. Another Steamer Burned-Camo, September 27.—The steamer Chouteau with a cargo of Government freight, grounded and took fire yesterday five miles below Columbus. She was sut-tled and although the fire was not entirely extinguished, it was thought the cargo could be saved. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

PHILADELPHIA, September 27 .- The re port in the New York Saturday evening and Sunday morning papers, that the Gov ernment had taken poissesion of the Balti-more and Obio Railroad, it has been as-certained from the best sources is incor-rect. The Government has availed itself to some extent of the large facilities of the road for Government purposes, but without interfering with the running of the regular through trains for either passesgers or Expedition Against Mobile. New York.
