ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored.
This Distressing Affection—which renders Life and victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improver habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure or

THESE are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and bimbe, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular rower, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLT.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forbodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

THOUSARDS of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at achool, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when saleep, and if not

MARRIAGE,
Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happihess. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes olighted with our own

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of alkame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptome of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dinness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shinbones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, until death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sonding him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence in travelor returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that Deadly Poison, Mercury, rain the constitution and make the residue of life misorable.
