Mr. Johnson:—My daughter Mary was attacked with lagaammakory Rheumatiam in the winter of 1863, which continued to the spring of sixty-four. Her hands and limbs were very much swelled, and the pain at times was very severe. She beckins so helpleas that it took four to turn her in bed. I had medical aid for five or six weeks, but received very ittle if any benefit. I got a bottle of your Rheumatic Compound, and before it swas all used she was able to come down stairs. I got a second bottle, she used it, and I am happy to say she is now as well as she was before she took the rheumatism and able to attend to her work the same as formerly. I attribute her recovery, under the blessing of God, to your Rheumatic Compound.

treatment of our prisoners confined in Libby and other prisons in the South, may now be considered as definitely settled through no less a person than ex-rebel Senstor Foote. It appears that Mr. Foots was a member of the committee in the Senate to examine into the treatment of the prisoners, and the reports of their harsh usage and starvation. His story as told by his own relatives shows a deeper intention that has been generally supposed, and fast-ens upon Jeff Davis and his Cabinet a crime both startling and appalling in its detail. Mr. Foote, it is said, states that the inrebel lines, for the very simple reason that starving our prisoners, a deed which no one, however loyal, would have dared makes the most stoical person shudder to to act under them. The dissolution of the rebel armies threw cose upon North Carolina as well as other rebet States, thousands of disorderly characters who reamed through the gounty, plandering from friends and foes indis-griminately, and causing a raign of terror, and anarchy. This condition of things has been to a great extent terminated by the judicious distribution at various points through the State of detachments of national troops.

A dispatch to the Tribune from Baleigh, dated the 12th, says!

The number of Johnson's army which were paroled at Greensboro, has been swelled by the addition of a large portion of Wieeler's command and others, received by Major Walent, at Charlotte, North Carline, and now amounts to 36,961. Among

A Tribune's Washington dispatch says:
The President's forthcoming amnesty proclamation is already in type, and the proof sheets have been under consideration for several days by the cabinet, and it is understood that it will proffer the oath of allegiance to all who have seved in the rebel armies up to a certain grade, and ebel armies up to a certain grade, and when accepted, to constitute a full ex-change and pardon. It is also, stated that the full acope and limitation of Generals Grant and Sherman's terms of amnesty are will be tried and if convicted punished.
