

He Didn't Know French.

The gentleman from the West pulled himself up to the hotel table, tucked his napkin under his chin, picked up the bill of fare and began to study it intently. Everything was in restaurant French, and he didn't like it. "Here, waiter," he said sternly, "there's nothing on this I want."

"Ain't there nothin' else you would like for dinner, sir?" inquired the waiter politely. "Have you got any sine qua non?" The waiter gasped. "No, sir," he replied. "Got any bon mots?" "No, sir." "Got any semper idem?" "No, sir; we haven't." "Got any jeu de sprits?" "No, sir; not a one." "Got any tempus fugit?" "I reckon not, sir." "Got any soiree dansants?" "No, sir." "The waiter was edging off. "Got any sine die?" "We haven't, sir." "Got any epluribus unum?" "The waiter's face showed some signs of intelligence. "Seems like I heard ob dat, sir," and he rushed out to the kitchen only to return empty handed.

"We ain't got none, sir," he said, in a tone of disappointment. "Got any mal de mer?" "No, sir." "The waiter was going to pieces fast. The gentleman from the West was as serene as a May morning. "Got any vice versa?" he inquired again.

The waiter could only shake his head. "No?" Well may you've got some bacon and cabbage and a coru dodger?" "Deed we has, sir," exclaimed the waiter in a tone of the utmost relief, and he fairly flew out to the kitchen. —Detroit Free Press.

I AM USING A 12 inch and 18 inch AUGER of superior make. Doesn't let dirt or quicksand run out like some old time inferior augers, thus insuring a good head of water in quicksand in much less time. My plan of putting in pipe is the only one that keeps quicksand from filling up the well, but if our auger even once to my way, we will remedy even a failure my guarantee would amount to something, for I would go and remedy same, or return the money.

The 12 inch Auger has given splendid satisfaction, especially for stock, tenant houses and small farms, as it much less cost. If you want a good head of water and a certain well, address J. H. SOUTH, Greenwood, S. C., Nov. 9, 1892.
