They Still Lend.
Messrs. McMill & Tolly have made several shipments in the furniture business in the past few days. Today they are sending goods to Walhalla. It is not altogether their energy and "git up and git," but the very low prices which they give. The purchaser made his expenses by going to them, and it will pay you to do likewise.

Welcome Back.
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kirsey returned to the home of Mr. Kirsey's mother, Mrs. Martin, on Monday evening. Mrs. Kirsey has many friends in Abbeville who are always glad to welcome her and her beloved husband to her old home.

Quick Trip.
Mr. H. R. Turner came up from Ninety-Six one day last week in his buggy. He left home at six o'clock in the morning, and by seven o'clock he had transacted his business, and was ready for the road again.

Jewelry at Cost.
I have a beautiful line of Watches, Jewelry and Silverware that I will sell at cost, at Speed's Drug Store. F. C. DuBois.

Nice Ware House.
Messrs. W. Joel Smith & Sons have just finished a splendid new brick warehouse in rear of their store.

Dr. O. P. Hawthorn was in town last Monday.

HOT SUPPER.

For the Benefit of the Methodist Church.
The ladies of the Methodist congregation will give a hot supper and will next Friday night to help pay for repairs on the church building.
The people generally, are invited to attend. Admission free. Let all come and enjoy a pleasant evening.

DUE WEST DOTS.

Preachers and Teachers—Pretty Pupils and Manly Scholars—Visitors.
Due West, S. C., Oct. 15th, 1894.
Our schools are still receiving new students. Mrs. Jane Young is visiting friends in Newberry. She will be absent about three weeks. Dr. J. J. McCain attended a meeting of State Board of Education in Columbia last week. Mrs. W. J. Bonner is at Peizer for a few days. She is with the family of Mr. J. B. Bonner.
Miss Maggie Lowry is in town for a short time. She is on her way from Virginia, where she spent the summer most pleasantly. She will spend the winter at her home in Louisville, Ga.
Miss Sallie Sutton, of Atlanta, Ga., is with her sister, Mrs. D. G. Caldwell. She will remain for some time.
The students of Erskine have organized an "Athletic Club." They propose to have some fun and healthful exercise, along with the good work they propose doing in the classroom. Football is the popular game just now.
There is to be a program made out for the evening of Thanksgiving Day.
The first lecture in course to the Theological students was delivered last Thursday night by the President of the Seminary, Dr. W. L. Freshly. It was an excellent one and much appreciated by the co-regulation as well as by the students.
Dr. W. M. Grier came home sick, from Mountain, Laconia, Co., last Saturday. He has a bilious attack and his friends hope to see him out again in a few days. He has an appointment in Louisville, Ga., for next Sabbath and will fill it if he improves and is able to go.
Miss Moore, from Bartow, Fla., entered the Female College last week.
Miss Cook, of Verdery, is at the Kennedy House. She is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. P. Kennedy.
Mr. J. K. Huest, of Anderson, is in Due West for a few days.
Mrs. Stewart, of Bartow, Fla., who came to our town a few weeks since, making health, has been very sick at Prof. P. L. Grier since last week. Mr. Stewart was dispatched for and arrived Friday evening. She is an excellent lady and she and her husband have the sympathy of our people.
A series of meetings at the A. R. P. church closed last Sabbath in a most interesting manner. The service each time with the exception of one sermon by Rev. D. G. Phillips Jr. The audience at each service was good and enjoyed the excellent sermons and we trust that much good was done. There were seven accessions to the church.

FEA VINES AND CRAB GRASS.

Baseball and Constitution—Personal Paragraphs—Lively Times.
Lowndesville, S. C., Oct. 15, 1894.
Mrs. E. W. Brown, of Anderson, spent several days in town last week.
Mrs. John F. Harper, of Middleton, Ga., was in town a few days last week on business.
Miss Emma Chinkescales left Thursday for Macon, Ga., where she will attend school.
Miss Maude Loux spent several days in town last week visiting friends and relatives.
The Lowndesville correspondent of the Anderson Intelligencer says: "We have a handsome addition to our local realm in the person of a young, gallant and interesting Mr. Tompkins. In some respects a novice, in others a veteran, he is well liked by the town and talks to girls by the hour. Weighly well welcome Mr. Tompkins and hope to have him meet the young ladies by the hour here in our city. He dances well but prefers to do it on the ice."
C. Chas. T. Baker one of our dashing young boys, was shaking hands with his many friends in Augusta a few days ago.
Mr. Thos. D. Conly was in Abbeville a few days ago on business.
Miss Ida Bowman one of our charming young girls spent several days in Abbeville last week.
Prof. J. C. Harper has just returned from several days' stay in Abbeville.
Corn is being gathered and hauled, some of it is reported in very fine condition being hard and dry. Some of the late sowing in this section was somewhat injured by the storm. Some large quantities of pea vine and crab grass hay has been gathered in the past two weeks but a large quantity of it remains out, the high winds made some of it very difficult to cut.
Carolina wants a new constitution. She has certainly undergone enough to prefer any ordinary constitution.
Baseball must now give place to football and broken fingers, gl'a' arms will be overshadowed by broken legs and blackheads. Records are being broken so fast these days that there will soon not be a whole record left in sporting circles. Jim Crow.
