ABBEVILLE, S. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1902.

ESTABLISHED 1844

WEST END.

Happenings and Incidents of a Week About the City.

Abbeville, Oct. 21, 1902.

Mr. J. J. Johnson of Lowndesville was in the city last Wednesday on business.

Miss Eliza Thomson left Saturday for Orangeburg where she goes to take charge of a school near the city. Miss Thomson has taught successfully for a number of years and the school is fortunate to secure her services.

Rev. Mr. Daniel, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lowndesville, was in the city last Wednesday. Mr. Daniel is a brother of Dr. J. W. Daniel, former pastor of the Methodist church here.

Dr. W. E. Link of Wilmington spent Friday and Saturday in the city the guest of his son Mr. Robert B. Link.

Miss Lilla Vissaska left Thursday for her home in Georgetown.

Miss Belle Vissaska.

Mr. W. Joel Smith spent several days in Atlanta last week.

Mrs. W. Dea Barksdale returned Thursday from Greenwood, where she had been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. J. K. Durr.

Miss Florence Tompkins spent Thursday and Friday in Moultrie, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. G. W. Speer.

Mrs. John Lomax of Lattimer was in the city Saturday to attend the circus.

Miss Louise Bailey arrived in the city Friday from Saida, N. C., and will spend some time here with her brother, Mr. R. E. Gilliam.

Miss Elizabeth and Miss Sarah Norwood of Dresden were in the city Saturday.

Mrs. E. B. Calhoun of Atlanta was in the city the guest of Mrs. James H. Pettin for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Cunningham of Moultrie were in the city Saturday for a few hours.

Mr. W. A. Tompkins left Tuesday for Columbia where he goes to attend the Synod of the Presbyterian Church, held in the First Presbyterian church of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Allen of Warrenton were the guests of Mrs. Harvey Wilson Sunday.

Mrs. Samuel A. Barksdale arrived in the city Friday from Atlanta and will be the guest of Mrs. Philip Rosenberg for a few days.

Miss Laura Baskin and Miss Anna Cunningham of Moultrie were in town Saturday stopping.

Rev. Mr. Rhodes of the Theological Seminary at Columbia filled the pulpit of the Presbyterian church very acceptably Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor.

Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Smart of St. Louis, Mo., have been in the city for the past week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Allen. Dr. Smart has been sent to the First Methodist church at Richmond, Va., and is spending a while in the city with the relatives of Mr. Smart. Dr. Smart is an able preacher and the people of Abbeville had the privilege of hearing him Sunday evening at the Methodist church.

Mrs. W. D. Barksdale spent Sunday in Greenwood with her mother Mrs. J. K. Durr, who has been very unwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wardlaw who have been living in Abbeville a few months have moved to Georgetown. Mr. Wardlaw has had a position here with the Seaboard Air Line.

Miss Florida and Miss Willie Calhoun came to Abbeville from Washington, D. C., where they have been spending some time with friends. The Misses Calhoun will spend the week here with Mrs. James H. Pettin before returning to their home in Atlanta.

Mrs. W. D. Wilson and Misses Mary and Katherine Link have returned from their stay in Atlanta.

Rev. J. F. McKinnon and Mr. A. E. Lesley left Tuesday for Columbia where they will attend the meeting of Synod.

Miss Neil Kammeler of Orangeburg is in the city the guest of her friend Miss Parker for a few days.

Mrs. Thomas D. Cooley and her interesting children, of Lowndesville, are expected in the city for the Fair. They will be the guests of Miss Kate Robertson.

Miss Helen and Miss Agnes Grier, two of Dixie's most attractive young ladies were in the city Saturday.

Miss Craig and Miss Wylie Craig have returned to their home in Mobile, Ala., after spending some time in the city.

The Presbyterians worshipped with the Methodist people Sunday evening.

Echoes Along Route No. 2.

Mr. R. E. Tolbert went to Charleston last Tuesday.

Mr. T. L. Robertson, of Abbeville was out on business in our community last week.

Mr. Charles Calhoun accompanied Mr. L. B. Blount on his round last Wednesday.

Miss Addie Wilson had a pleasant social gathering at her home last Wednesday evening.

The many friends of Miss Marie Cromer were pleased to see her in the city last week. We missed her during the six weeks she was ill with fever and now we welcome her back to our community.

Mr. C. E. Fleming came home from Greenwood Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. B. Lomax returned home Monday from Williamson where she went to see her sister, Miss Helen Pratt.

The county scraper is now putting the Dixie West and Greenwood roads in good condition.

Miss Barbara Lomax, Miss Stella McCord and Mrs. J. A. McCord were in Abbeville Monday stopping.

Two Frenchmen, Captain Lambert and his son, passed over the lower part of Route No. 2 Sunday afternoon. They were unable to speak English on a paper they carried which we learned that they were soldiers who were wrecked on the coast of the state of Georgia last May. They were on their way to their home in Montreal, Canada, and as they lost all their property in the wreck, they are dependent on the charity of the people to aid them in getting home.

Mr. James Swanson took his little son, James to Atlanta last week to have his eyes treated.

Mr. J. R. Lomax lost a good horse a few days ago. The horse was injured by some stray shot from the guns of bird hunters and it died from the effects.

Jim Waerton, colored, had a fine milch cow to fall in a gully and break her neck one day last week.

Mr. W. C. Klugh, an insurance agent from Greenwood, was in our neighborhood last Friday.

Mrs. Martha Bots had a bit of beef to lodge in her throat last week and it has caused her much trouble and suffering. Drs. Neuffer and Lambrecht were summoned, but were unable at first to dislodge it. After about twenty hours they succeeded in relieving her.

Misses Annie May and Isabella Hinton of Salak, will visit Miss Florence Tompkins this week. They will take in the Fair at Abbeville.

Mr. A. C. Bowie will have Mr. J. D. Cog's plantation in charge next year.

Last Thursday we saw ourselves at a modern corn shucking at the hospitable home of Mr. J. A. McIlwain, who is not only one of Abbeville County's best men, but one of her practical and up-to-date farmers who lives at home. A splendid dinner was served much enjoyed by the invited guests, about 20 in number. From 30 to 300 bushels of corn were shucked, all made on the farm by himself and sons.

B. J. MARTIN.

A Good Rebel in War, and a Good Citizen in Peace.

Mr. E. Jasper Martin of Donalds was in town last Monday. He is perhaps the youngest Johnnie Reb to be found in all this part of Uncle Sam's domain. In his youth he was known by that patriotic which prompts a man to take up arms for his country, and a true soldier than Jasper Martin never fought for Dixie or went to battle for Southern Rights. Mr. Martin, as soldier or as citizen, furnishes a worthy example of true manhood. In war he prayed to an overruling Providence, and in peace he looks reverently to the same omnipotent source for the blessing that comes to him. He has succeeded well in life. He has a portion of this world's goods, but in his family is to be found his chiefest blessing. They are an honor to him, and he is an honor to them.

Fine Breed of Cattle.

Mr. T. J. Haskin of Lowndesville came down yesterday, and will exhibit his Red Faced Bull at the County Fair. It is one of the finest animals in the country. Red Faced cows are distinguished for their great size and for their excellent milking qualities. "Perfection" is three years old, and weighs 1,122 pounds.
