A tickling cough, from any cause, is quick-ly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop sells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a long-bulling mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It cures the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no coloring, nothing harsh need to injure or sicken. Simply a restorative plant extract, thins out the mucus, soothes the inflamed spots, and restores the normal action of the lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Always demand Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. C. A. Milford.

FERGUSON-STROTHER.

A Pretty Home Wedding.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Annie Ferguson and Mr. Sydney Strother, which occurred last Thursday morning, December 29th, at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Maggie Brooks. The ceremony being performed by Rev. E. C. Pennel in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends.

The house never looked lovelier nor more attractive than on this occasion. The decorations were not only beautiful but most artistic.

In the parlor where the marriage vows were said was tastefully decorated in white and green. A large wedding bell was suspended from the arch. In the dining room the color scheme of red and green was distinctly carried out. Promptly at 12 o'clock, the appointed hour, Mrs. S. R. Prentiss took her place at the piano and to the strains of Mendelssohn's hour, Mrs. S. R. Prentiss took her place at the piano and to the strains of Mendelssohn's hour, Mrs. S. R. Prentiss took her place at the piano and to the strains of Mendelssohn's hour.

The presents were useful and beautiful.

The groom is one of the rising young business men of Abbeville, Ga. The bride has many warm friends here who wish for her many years of happiness in her adopted home.

LOWNDESVILLE.

Thursday, Dec. 29th, at 4:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. B. C. Kay, the mother of the bride to be, was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Richard Henry Mosley and Miss Elizabeth Caldwell Kay, Rev. O. M. Abbey officiating. The front hall and stair steps leading from the parlor, the spacious back hall and dining room, by woman's tasteful touch, had been made very pleasing to the eyes of the beauties by the aid of evergreens and they retired to the next morning.

When these plates were removed others were brought in with cake and white and pink whipped cream. When these were plied the bride and groom stood, upon each, their pieces until all, about 150, partook of the splendid dinner, which the hostess had prepared for the occasion. In the evening a crowd of invited guests went to the depot where by and back goodbyes to the departing couple, who in a big shower of fire, boarded the 5:30 p. m. down train for a trip of some length.

Thus ended the marriage festivities of a young couple in which our people are particularly interested. Mr. Mosley is the second son of Dr. J. B. Mosley and well known and favored by the community. He is a young man, has shown fine business capacity, having been since the Lowndesville bank was established, its popular and efficient cashier. He has the confidence of the entire community.

Miss Kay is the third daughter of Mrs. B. C. Kay, whose home is the popular stopping place of nearly all of the traveling men who come here. Miss Kay is pretty, intelligent, and of a sweet winning disposition and numbers her friends by her acquaintance. The bride couple receive many handsome and appropriate presents, which will be to them reminders, in the days to come of the love and esteem of many who sincerely hope that the ideal, pleasant, happy day of their marriage will be typical of their wedded life.
