COMMENCEMENT AT DUE WEST

The graduating exercises at Due West began with the Seminary. Messrs. R. T. Kerr, W. P. Grier, M. B. Gibson, W. Willis, R. L. McKown and O. Y. Davis are the young men who were graduated. It is understood that all of these young men have immediate work before them.

The next graduation exercises came Monday night when the Euphonian and Philomathean Literary Societies gave sheepskins to members of the graduating class. At these exercises there was a joint debate for a cup. This cup was offered by Hon. J. Q. Darlington, of Washington, D. C. It is twelve inches high and six inches across the bowl and beautifully chased. The Euphonian Society won the cup, which they will hold until this time next year, when it will be fought for again by the societies.

The Euphonian Literary Society awarded to Mr. O. C. Kitchen, Jr., the medal for the best debate; to Mr. M. B. Hannah the medal for best original speech; to Mr. H. B. Blakely a medal for best essay; and to Mr. C. T. Stewart a medal for best declamation.

In the Philomathean Society Mr. S. A. Tinkler was awarded the medal for best original speech; Mr. C. A. Flemming for best debate; Mr. W. C. Pressley of Sophomore class for best essay, and Mr. R. L. Davis of Freshman class for best declamation. Mr. Ralph Ellis of the primary department was awarded a medal for general excellence.

On Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock the colleges convened in Auditorium Hall to witness the graduating exercises of the Senior class of Erskine College. The exercises were opened with prayer, after which Mr. J. Coleman Agnew spoke on the "True Mission of the South," in which he showed a keen insight into the South and its relations to other people.

Mr. Mason L. Cashion had for his subject "Chivalry has not Departed," and proved it.

Miss Jean Harris read an interesting paper on "The High Priest of Horticulture" in which Mr. Burbank, the plant wizard, came in for many encomiums of praise.

Mr. Joseph L. Grier spoke a well written speech on "The True Aristocrat."

Miss Mary Kennedy read a thesis on "Are the Jews an Inferior Race?" showing that she had made much research in studying the subject.

The Rise of Democracy and its call to Church" was presented by Mr. Wm. J. Henry.

The last speaker of the class, Mr. S. L. Roddy had for his subject "The field for the scholar."

Dr. Moffatt, president of the college, delivered the diplomas to the class.

The anniversary address was made by Hon. W. F. Stevenson, of Cheraw, S. C. To one hearing Mr. Stevenson for the first time the fact that he is a power in the house is explained. He is a forceful speaker, not an orator. He impresses by what he has to say rather than in the way he says it. At the same time he is a very agreeable speaker.

The graduating class this year is as follows:

- J. C. Agnew,
- J. L. Alexander,
- Theron J. Allen,
- Miss Maud Bigham,
- J. H. Boyce,
- M. L. Cashion,
- R. A. Gettys,
- J. L. Grier,
- Miss Jean Harris,
- William J. Henry,
- W. John Henry,
- S. C. Ketchin,
- Miss Mary Kennedy,
- W. T. Oats,
- S. L. Roddy,
- Miss Leona Squires,
- H. R. Wiseman,
- Miss Lois Young.

CERTIFICATES.
W. H. Quinn,
S. A. Tinkler.

Music was furnished for the occasion by the Magill Band. The younger member of which is about ten years old. The music was A No. 1, and enjoyed by all in attendance on the exercises.

The graduating exercises of the College for Women were held, as usual, on Wednesday. The following is a program:

PROGRAM.

Chorus, "La Primavera"—(Moderato)—The Treble Clef Club.

Invocation.

Two Hungarian Dances—(Brahms)—Miss Agnes Devlin.

Essay, "The Tragedy of the Ten Talent Men"—Miss Ruth Todd.

Aria, "Oh Mio Fernando"—(La Favorita)—Donizetti—Mrs. E. E. Randolph.

Alumni Essay—Miss Jennie Plaxco, Class of 1906.

Aria, "Here Ye Israel"—(Elijah)—Mendelssohn—Miss Mary Boyce.

Anniversary Address—Joseph Moore McConnell, Ph. D., Davidson College, N. C.

Aria, "With Verdure Clad"—(Creation)—Haydn—Miss Helen Galloway.

Conferring of Degrees by the President of the College.

Quartette—Hallelujah Chorus—(Messiah)—Handel—Misses Agnes Devlin, Willie Draftin, Mary Phillips and Rachel Boyce.

Those appearing in musical solos were awarded diplomas in their departments.

Dr. Joseph Moore McConnell of Davidson College, N. C., spoke on the relation of college life to life work, showing how closely the two are related and showing how one's life work is affected by his college life. College life raises ideals and empowers the individual to reach toward the ideal. He insisted that the days of dependence and idleness on the part of women had passed, that they had work to accomplish, which their college life would materially help them in accomplishing.

Dr. R. L. Robinson, president of the college, presented to the seniors and graduates their diplomas and certificates. In a tender and touching manner he expressed for himself and his faculty their appreciation of those going out from the college and congratulated them that they had been permitted to obtain a college education. He reminded them also of the high ideals which they should always hold before them in their homes and as they go about their work. Those receiving diplomas are as follows:

Bachelor of Art—Misses Louise Agnew, Marguerite Agnew, Julia Bond, Janie Blakely, Anna Derrick, Cornelia Dye, Lucille Faulkner, Sara Gary, Eugenia Hentz, Julia Kennedy, Katherine Klugh, Eugenia Lipscomb, Ruby McIlwain, Estelle McDill, Mary McKee, Elizabeth Noel, Fannie Mae Stevenson, Ruth Todd.

Certificates were awarded to Misses Annie Belle Jordan, Lucille Martin, Alice McClintock, Alice Montgomery, Kattie Lee Reid, Marguerite Smith, Mammie Williamson.

Certificates from department of expression were awarded to Misses Helen Galloway and Margaret Smith.

Certificates for voice from department of music to Mrs. E. E. Randolph and Misses Helen Galloway and Mary Boyce.

Diploma was awarded Miss Agnes Devlin from department of instrumental music.

At the close of the morning program Dr. J. S. Moffatt, president of Erskine College, announced that the board of trustees of Erskine College at a meeting Tuesday evening had conferred honorary degree of D. D. upon Prof. G. G. Parkinason of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary and Rev. R. L. Robinson, president of the Woman's College of Due West.

The final exercises of the commencement were held Wednesday evening and the program consisted of numbers from the piano and voice departments of music and readings from expression department. A contest was also held in oratory for gold medal.

WILL T. B. FELDER BE ARRESTED HERE

Governor Blease Has Ordered His Arrest.

MAY PASS THROUGH ABBEVILLE.

Sheriff Lyon Has No Instructions, But Will Make Arrest if Opportunity Presents.

Will Thos. B. Felder, of Atlanta, attorney for the former dispensary winding-up commission, be arrested in South Carolina, on his way to the National Democratic Convention, to which he is delegate?

Governor Blease says he has issued instructions to the sheriffs of Greenville and Spartanburg counties to arrest Felder should he pass through their territory. Sheriff Lyon, of Abbeville, has received no direct instructions from the governor, but says that if the opportunity presents itself he will make the arrest should the Georgia lawyer select the Seaboard route via Abbeville for his journey to Baltimore.

It will be remembered that an indictment was sworn out in this state against Felder, but the governor of Georgia, upon the recommendation of the Bar Association of Atlanta, refused to honor the requisition for his return to this state. The grand jury of Newberry county failed to bring in a true bill in the case against Felder at a session last fall.

Felder gave out an interview in Atlanta last week, upon his return from Chicago, in which he says that he will attend the Baltimore Convention and that he will go with the Georgia delegation.

The result will be watched with interest.

MEETING NOT HELD.

On account of the excessive rain, rendering the roads practically impassable for autos, the County Medical Association failed to hold its regular monthly meeting last week. The session was to have been held at McCormick, and the doctors of the upper portion of the county had looked forward to their entertainment by the brethren of McCormick with a good deal of pleasure. The meeting will probably be held at McCormick in July.

MARRIED IN FLORIDA.

Miss Annie Norris Nelson and Mr. William A. Athon were married in Jacksonville, Fla., on June 7th, the ceremony being solemnized by Rev. J. T. Boone, of the Christian church. Miss Nelson is a native of Abbeville county, being a niece of Messrs. James and Henry Gilliam, of the Lebanon section. She has many friends in the county. Mr. Athon is a prosperous business man of Jacksonville.

WOULD TAKE A PAGE.

Supervisor Stevenson is a candidate for re-election. It would require a page to tell what he has done for the improvement of the roads of the county since he has been in office, and he has faithfully discharged all the duties of the office of County Supervisor.—McCormick Messenger.

Council Meeting Postponed.

On account of the absence of Mayor Gambrell, who was in attendance upon a meeting of the State Board of Health in Columbia, the regular monthly meeting of City Council was not held last night. The council will meet to-night instead.

ROSENBERG-LEVI WEDDING BRILLIANT

Many Friends Gathered to Extend Congratulations.

HOME WAS SCENE OF BRILLIANCE.

Many Valuable Presents Bestowed—Couple Will Enjoy Extended Tour.

The marriage of Miss Irene Rosenberg to Mr. Louis Levi was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Rosenberg home and was followed by a reception. The Rosenberg home ideally arranged for a large affair of this kind, was beautifully decorated throughout. The entire lower floor was thrown together and made lovely with southern smilax and tall graceful palms. In the front parlor, where the marriage ceremony was performed, only white flowers were used, lilies, roses and carnations, a profusion of them banking the mantle and lending their beauty elsewhere in the room. In front of the mantle placed on marble pedestals were brass jardiniere filled with maiden hair ferns. Here the marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. David Klein, of Sumter. The bride party entered the parlor from the back hall.

To the soft, sweet strains of the wedding march played by Miss Lilla Visanska of Georgetown, the bridal party entered. First came the little flower girl, Miss Annette Visanska, of Atlanta, wearing a dainty lingen dress over pink and carried a golden basket filled with sweet peas that were strewn in front of the bride party. Next came the groom with his brother, Mr. Abe Levi, of Sumter. Miss Octavia Schwerin, of Sumter, Maid of Honor, came next wearing a lovely creation of pink crepe de chine, elaborately trimmed in embroidered chiffon, and carrying an armful of full-blown Killarney roses. The bride, who entered with her father, made a pretty picture in her exquisite gown of white charmeuse with court train, richly combined with rose point lace, the misty veil was caught with graceful spray of orange blossoms and the bridal bouquet was of bride's roses and lilies of the valley arranged in shower effect.

During the reception, the bride party was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Rosenberg, beautifully gowned in Chantilly lace over black satin, with silver trimmings. Miss Rosalie Loeb, of Atlanta, who was in the receiving party, wore a lovely pink charmeuse with a tunic of pink chiffon fringed in crystals. The piazza was canvassed in and made unusually attractive with palms, blooming plants and garlands of electric lights; at one end was placed the large punch bowl, on a daisy banked table. This was presided over by Miss Jessie Speed, Miss Ione Smith, Miss Eliza Gary and Miss Fannie Harris. The guests were met in the hall by Miss Margaret Latimer and Dr. and Mrs. Sam Visanska and Miss Belle Visanska assisting. In the dining room, the table in the center was set under the handsome crystal electric light from which airy streamers of white and pink tulle were drawn down to the four corners and held in place by clusters of pink and white carnations and long fronds of asparagus fern. A lace center piece over pink covered the table. Dozens of carnations beautifully arranged in a tall cut glass vase formed the floral center piece and the candles on the table were held in silver sticks. The white in heart-shapes with bride's and fruit cake. Receiving in this room during the evening were Mrs. P. B. Speed, Miss Mary L. Robertson and Miss Sara Lee. Miss Helen White gave each guest a little gold and white double heart, a dainty souvenir of this happy occasion. The guests were served by Miss Antoinette Thomson, Miss Mary Bradley and Miss Charlotte Brown.

During the evening delightful music was furnished by Miss Lorena Beach, Miss Fannie Starke and Miss Maude McClung. In the library the wedding presents were displayed. A large and handsome collection, including much magnificent silver.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi left during the evening for their wedding trip North, expecting to spend several weeks at Atlantic City. The bride traveled in a smart suit of blue whipcord with gold colored hat, with blue plumes. A hand embroidered blue waist, shoes and gloves of matching shade completed the charming costume.

DIRECTORS OF COUNTY FAIR WILL MEET.

Will Formulate Plans for Fall Show.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON AT 5 O'CLOCK.

A Full Attendance Desired—Theatre Attractions Have Been Secured.

The directors of the County Fair Association will hold a meeting in the office of Dr. C. C. Gambrell Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, for the purpose of formulating plans to make this year by far one of the best in the history of the association. It is urged that every member be present at this, the first meeting of the year, as much of the success of the fall show will depend upon the action of the meeting.

The dates for the holding of the Fair are October 16, 17, 18. Manager Cheatham of the Abbeville theatre has taken up with the booking houses the matter of attractions for the above dates and has succeeded in securing two of the very best attractions on the road. On the 16th and 17th patrons of the theatre will have the pleasure of witnessing Geo. M. Cohan's ever delightful comedy, "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," while on the 18th "Mutt and Jeff," Bud Fisher's creation, will appear. Both of these shows are good drawing cards and should add materially to the enjoyment of the occasion.

The following are the directors of the Fair Association:
J. S. Stark,
Sol. H. Rosenberg,
W. T. Magill,
W. A. Stevenson,
Jas. A. Hill,
W. H. McFall,
W. S. Cothran,
J. Allen Smith,
W. A. Calvert,
Dr. C. C. Gambrell,
J. B. Loyal.

WHO WILL BE THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE?

National Convention Meets June 18.

EXECUTIVE CONVENTION IN SESSION

Taft Seems To Have the Best of It With Regard to Contests.

On June 18th the Republican National Convention will meet at Chicago for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice president and formulating a platform.

The question of the presidential nomination has so far overshadowed everything else. The national executive committee has been in session now for several days, engaged in hearing contests from various parts of the country. Upon the action of this committee may depend the outcome of the nomination. So far the committee has decided all contests in favor of the Taft delegates, bearing out the claim of the Roosevelt supporters that the "steam roller," which Roosevelt used so effectively to crush the opposition to Taft four years ago, will still be on the job, to run ruthlessly over its creator.

So far as instructed uncontested delegates go, Mr. Roosevelt seems to have the best of it.

The Associated Press reports give the following summary of the situation: Instructed for Taft (uncontested) 201. Added by national committee: Last week: Alabama 16, Arkansas 16, Florida 12, Georgia 28. Today: Indiana 12. Total Taft uncontested 285.

Instructed for Roosevelt (uncontested) 411. Instructed for LaFollette (no contest) 36. Uninstructed and uncontested 116. Contests still pending 179.

Total number of delegates 1,078. Necessary for nomination 540. The committee today also postponed until Wednesday the contest over the six delegates at large from Arizona and the two delegates from the Fourth district of California.

Mr. Ralph Sytan Wins Medal.

Mr. Ralph Sytan of this city a student of Wofford won the medal offered the Freshmen for best declamation.

AUTO EXPERTS ON TOUR OF INSPECTION

Mr. W. A. Buck Comes to Abbeville.

HEAD OF MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT.

Represents Manufacturers of Everitt Car—Abbeville Motor Car Co. His Headquarters.

Mr. W. A. Buck, head of the mechanical department of the Metzger Manufacturing Company, makers of the Everitt car, is in Abbeville and is making his headquarters at the garage of the Abbeville Motor Car Co., the agents of the Everitt car for this territory.

Mr. Buck is an expert mechanical engineer, thoroughly familiar with every detail of automobile construction. His services are furnished free to owners of Everitt cars. While here Mr. Buck will take pleasure in inspecting any car manufactured by his firm and remedying anything that may prove troublesome to the owner. This service is unusual and is one that should be appreciated by owners.

The Abbeville Motor Car Company is still doing a splendid business. Three cars were sold last week by this concern, which is rapidly taking front rank among the auto agencies of the state.

The cars sold were as follows: To Mr. R. M. Haddon, of Abbeville, an Everitt "36," to Dr. J. E. Edwards, of Spartanburg, a Maxwell; to Mr. A. J. Howell, of Columbia, a 6-cylinder, 48 horsepower Everitt roadster.

STORAGE PLANT IS ERECTED BY ICE CO

Reserve Supply of 100 Tons Will Be Maintained.

MAINTAINS TEMPERATURE OF 13

Cork Lined Structure Built To Insure Supply of Ice.

In order that the people of Abbeville may be assured of a steady supply of ice during the hot weather, the Abbeville Ice, Laundry and Fuel Company has erected a storage plant, with a capacity of 100 tons of ice.

The structure is cork-insulated throughout and a uniform temperature of 13 degrees is maintained. The building was erected under the supervision of Mr. H. H. Greene, superintendent of the company's plant, at a cost of $1,450 complete. The lowest bid for the work of installing the cork insulation alone was $1,200, but Mr. Greene purchased the cork and completed the entire job for just $250 more than that amount.

The erection of this storage plant will insure the people of Abbeville that in case of a mishap to the machinery of the ice plant, the reserve supply of 100 tons will satisfy the demands of the trade until repairs can be made.

The company is to be congratulated upon this progressive step.

CONVICTS ESCAPE FROM CHAINGANG.

Five convicts, Lem Savage, Horton Fuller, John Madden, Charlie Wright, and John Teague, escaped from their camp, Friday night, near Due West. The convicts were in charge of Mr. John Wardlaw. Lem Savage and Horton Fuller have since surrendered, and the sheriff and rural policemen are hunting for the others.

All the convicts were chained together and the chain fastened to a stake which was driven into the ground. The stake was pulled up, and the convicts carried off two axes with them with which they cut the chains loose. There is no night guard on duty and Mr. Wardlaw, in charge of the gang, was sleeping near by and knew nothing of the escape until daylight.

The convicts had been gone too long for the dogs to track them, and they could not be used to any advantage.

Sheriff Lyon is sending photographs of the escaped negroes to sheriffs and other officers and it is believed they will be captured.

Scholarships.

The South Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs offers the following scholarships:

- 1 Winthrop Scholarship, valued at $104.00 and free tuition.
- 1 Confederate Home Scholarship, valued at $100.00.
- 1 Lander College Scholarship, valued at $40.00.

All applicants must be 16 years old and be unable to secure an education without this reduction in expense. Applications for these scholarships must be made before June 25th. Examinations will be held at the County Court House Friday, July 5th, at 9 a. m.

For application blanks and further information, address:

Mrs. Frank B. Gary, Chairman of Education, S. C. Federation of Women's Clubs Abbeville, S. C.

FEELDER WILL NOT PASS THROUGH STATE

Special To The Daily Piedmont

Atlanta, June 5.—While the friends of Thomas B. Felder do not believe he has ever violated any criminal statute in South Carolina, neither do they propose to let the governor of that adjoining state get his hands on Felder if they can help it. They figure that it would be a bitter pill for Mr. Felder and a triumph for Cole Blease if he could succeed merely in jailing Felder over night. Therefore they are going to advise and try to persuade Mr. Felder not to go through South Carolina at all on his way to the Baltimore convention but to travel around by Chattanooga and Cincinnati.

It is believed that Mr. Felder will accept their advice, as he has been avoiding passing through South Carolina ever since Blease first issued the warrants against him. Mr. Felder is now in Chicago.

You can get pure Linsseed oil if you will go to Speed's drug store.

MRS. CHALMERS DIES AT HOME OF SON.

Passing of a Mother In Israel.

WAS IN HER 74th YEAR.

Well Known and Beloved Lady Leaves Many Friends.

Mrs. Christina Chalmers, known to her hundreds of friends as "Chris," died on last Saturday night, June 8, at 9 o'clock in her seventy-ninth year.

Mrs. Chalmers had been a sufferer from rheumatism for some years, a patient sufferer. About a week before her death she fell and had to be lifted to her room. She never recovered. On Saturday night she complained of not being able to get her breath and asked to be raised. As her son, Mr. Jas. Chalmers lifted her so as to enable her to breathe more freely she expired.

Mrs. Chalmers was a daughter of Johnson and Lucretia Ramey and the widow of Jas. D. Chalmers, who died in 1894, and by whose side she was laid to rest in Long Cane Cemetery. She was the mother of four children: James, Alex, Alyette, and Celia, all of whom are dead except Mr. James Chalmers. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Trowbridge, of Anderson.

Everybody knew Mrs. Chalmers. She possessed the happy faculty of making friends of all whom she met. She was easy to approach, of a great sympathetic heart that knew how to sympathize and excused that knowledge.

Old and young knew her—knew her for her kindness of heart and pleasant disposition. In addition to these happy traits of character, Mrs. Chalmers was an intellectual woman. She was possessed of a splendid mind, well trained. On the threshing floor of life no one could tell the wheat from the tares better than she could. She was never put in error by superficiality, nor did pretence ever cause her to err in judgement.

Her life in the home of her son was a benediction. A mother, with all the immeasurable, illimitable meaning of the word, interested always in every welfare of the family, jealous and zealous for all that was ennobling and improving to the community. Always for the right, and always against the wrong.

She was cheerful, even when in personal distress, she minimized her own woes and sympathized with those of other people.

Applying the test to Mrs. Chalmers' life we find that her community is the better for her having lived—the highest encomium that can be paid to any of us. We are the better because she lived.

The funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church by the pastor, assisted by Rev. H. W. Pratt of the Presbyterian Church.

Interment was made in the family plot in Upper Long Cane cemetery. A great profusion of beautiful flowers covered the mound. One lovely wreath came from the Pearson House of Anderson, where Mrs. Chalmers frequently visited. It was marked "From the Pearson House Boarders who knew and loved her."

Relatives who came from a distance to the funeral were: Mrs. Nelle Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Trowbridge, Mr. J. R. Trowbridge, all of Anderson, S. C. Mr. Cicero Hughes and daughter, Mrs. M. W. Collett, of Salisbury, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Ramey Hughes, of Wallhalla, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Hughes, of Batesburg, S. C. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hughes, of Greenville, S. C.

KILLS FOE AND SELF.

Old Grudge Has Doubly Fatal Ending in Maryland.

Hagerston, Md., June 6.—Charles W. Adams of Sharpsburg, superintendent of the national cemetery of Antietam battlefield, was shot and killed by Chas. W. Benner, a resident of Sharpsburg. Benner then committed suicide. The cause of the shooting is said to have been an old grudge.

TILLMAN ADDED $300,000

Washington, June 6.—At a meeting of the senate committee on naval affairs, Senator Tillman secured the agreement of the committee to an amendment to the United States naval appropriation bill, adding $300,000 for the purpose of affording wharf room and berthing at the Charleston Navy Yard for the torpedo fleet.
