GARY-POPE WEDDING BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

Two of the State's Prominent Families United by Marriage.

There was solemnized Tuesday afternoon, October 15, 1912, in Trinity Episcopal church one of the prettiest and most largely attended marriages ever witnessed in Abbeville. The high contracting parties were Miss Marie Gary, eldest daughter of Chief Justice and Mrs. Eugene B. Gary, and Dr. Thomas H. Pope, of Newberry, son of the late Dr. Sampson Pope, and nephew of the late Chief Justice Y. J. Pope, of the State Supreme Court, and a grandson, on his mother's side, of Chief Justice O'Neill, of hallowed memory.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Cornish, rector of Trinity church.

The bride, becomingly attired in white charmeuse satin, trimmed in real lace, and carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, was accompanied to the altar by her father, Chief Justice Gary. Here she was met by the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Rutherford Fair, of Newberry, and the solemn vows were spoken which united these loving hearts.

Miss Lorena Beacham presided at the organ, and charmingly rendered the wedding march.

The church was beautifully decorated with pot plants, palms and evergreens, and brilliantly illuminated, the altar being illumined with rows of wax tapers.

The maid of honor was Miss Blanche Gary, a charming sister of the bride, who was becomingly attired in pink charmeuse and duchess lace, and carried pink roses.

The other attendants were: Miss Flevna Seal in beaded robe over white satin and carrying white roses, with Mr. John C. Goggins of Newberry.

Miss Caroline Gary, white crepe de chine over messaline, carrying white roses, with Dr. Joseph Earle of Newberry.

Miss Sarah Pope, of Newberry, in white lace, over white charmeuse, carrying white roses, with Mr. Albert Henry of Abbeville.

Miss Maud McClung, white lace over white satin, carrying white roses, with Prof. Thos. D. Eason of Charleston.

Miss Willie Calhoun of Atlanta, Ga., robe of real lace over white satin, carrying white roses, with Mr. H. G. Smith of Abbeville.

Miss Eliza Gary, in white chiffon over white messaline, carrying white roses, with Mr. W. E. Johnson of Abbeville.

Miss Marie Gary was one of the most popular of Abbeville's younger set, and was beloved by a host of friends throughout South Carolina, many of whom were present at her marriage.

The groom is a popular young physician and enjoys the esteem of all who know him.

This marriage unites two of South Carolina's most distinguished families, and the numerous and costly remembrances received by the popular young couple bore evidence that they themselves are held in the same high esteem which their forebears have enjoyed. Never in the history of Abbeville have more numerous and elegant testimonials of esteem been bestowed upon a young couple.

The bridal party left on the 6:35 train on the Southern, for their future home, in Newberry county, carrying with them the best wishes of many friends, who accompanied them to the depot.

This cool snap makes you think of fire, does it not? We can supply you with Coal Beds, Fire Tongs and Shovel, Heaters, Grates, in fact, everything except the Coal, to make you comfortable. The Dargan-King Co.

A HORSE IS NOT A MACHINE!

A horse cannot give continuous service. It tires easily and sometimes must have rest in the middle of the day.

BUT THE "HUPMOBILE" IS DIFFERENT

Always in condition and fresh at the end of the run. It never tires and will take you anywhere, no matter what the distance. Sand and hills make no difference, nor do muddy roads for that matter.

The perfect simplicity of the working parts means fewer repairs, less attention—eliminates the heavy expense bills. A truly economical and efficient car built for the purpose of giving uninterrupted service at low cost of upkeep.

THE DEEPER YOU GO INTO DETAIL THE GREATER WILL GROW YOUR REGARD

The inside, not the outward appearance of a car, establishes its true value. For this reason, we ask you not to let your first favorable impression end with your admiration for the graceful design, the low strong lines, the comfortable upholstery of the long-stroke Hupp "32." We prefer that you go deeper into the car and examine its motor transmission and axle construction.

WHAT MAKES PULLING POWER?

- First—The relation of piston stroke to cylinder bore.
- Second—The design of the motor.
- Third—The efficiency of the carburetor.
- Fourth—The simplicity of the chassis construction.
- Fifth—The degree to which friction is reduced.
- Sixth—The weight of the car.

LET US SHOW YOU

How these essentials have been accomplished in the Hupp "32."

First—The stroke is neither too long nor too short but in ratio to the bore is as 1.7 is to 1.

Second—The cylinders of the motor are cast en bloc; the valves at the side are protected from dust and dirt. Three liberal crank shaft bearings are provided to preclude the possibility of undue strain.

Third—The carburetion is absolutely automatic, insuring correct mixture at all speeds and under all loads without adjustment.

Fourth—The chassis is clean of every complication: the motor, clutch and transmission are a compact weight-saving unit, permanently aligned and dispensing with a shaft and universal joint between clutch and transmission.

Fifth—Friction is reduced to the limit by the finest ball and roller bearings; there is but one universal joint between transmission and full-floating rear axle, giving a practically straight line drive and the least possible lost motion in the transmission of power.

Sixth—The weight of the car is from two to three hundred pounds under that of most cars of equal size and grade.

Each of these points is of unusual advantage; collectively they enable the motor to give its maximum power and set the Hupp "32" apart and above cars of its size and price.
