Wednesday, Nov. 20, 1912

It is now the open season for game in South Carolina.

Columbia is already getting puffed up over the prospect of becoming the winter capital.

It is time to get to work for the organization of Boys' Corn Clubs and Girls' Tomato Clubs.

According to the election returns there were but four Bull Moose votes in Abbeville county.

With the approach of Thanksgiving the fate of the turkey seems settled beyond a doubt.

A little touch of whitewash here and there would make Abbeville more attractive for the Baptist convention.

Andy Carnegie thinks the Republican party will "rise strengthened from her fall," which shows that Andy is some optimist.

California wants President Wilson to appoint a woman in his cabinet, which goes to show that California believes the cabinet should have no secrets.

Our good friend, The Anderson Daily Mail, informs us that balloonists and not airship men "jump." Well, as it is not safe to fall out, better drop it.

January 1, 1913, is the date for the inauguration of the Parcel Post system. Local merchants can reap the benefit of the new law by systematic advertising.

The split-log drag is a good thing with which to become acquainted. With the winter rains due before long, this would be a good time to introduce it.

BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Less than two weeks remain until the meeting of the Baptist State Convention at Abbeville. To entertain such a body is a privilege not to be lightly esteemed, and we are sure that Abbeville will realize that it is incumbent upon the community to put its best foot foremost and maintain the reputation for genuine hospitality which it has always enjoyed.

The convention will be composed of many of South Carolina's foremost men—leaders in Christian work, in education, in finance, in industry, in government, and in all good work that makes for the general welfare. Representing, as they do, a large part of the Christian people of the State, the reception accorded them by Abbeville should be commensurate with the high character and the noble purposes of those who attend the convention.

While it is true that the town, as a whole is well kept, it may not be amiss to urge upon all citizens the importance of a general clean up of their premises and the removal of any unsightly objects, the retouching of fences with paint or whitewash brush—in other words, the donning of the city's Sunday best in honor of the occasion.

Surely no one will fail to assist the committee by refusing to entertain as many delegates as circumstances will permit. The committee should meet with a ready response in their endeavor to provide homes for the members of the convention.

"THE SOLDIER-BISHOP—ELLISON CAPERS."

From the pen of Rev. Walter B. Capers, comes to us a life of the writer's distinguished father, the late Bishop Capers, which has afforded much pleasure. The book contains a record of the good bishop's achievements in war and in peace, interpolated with many letters bearing upon the striking facts in his eventful career. The style is clear and the subject-matter is interesting to thousands of Carolinians who revere the memory of Bishop Capers. There lived among the older generation of South Carolinians no man whose noble traits and splendid achievements in all lines of human endeavor excited more reverence in the breasts of those of the younger men than Ellison Capers. The story of his life, as told by his son, should prove a help to all young men who aim to make their lives worth while. Soldier, patriot, statesman, Christian minister, leader of his people in sunshine and in shadow, Bishop Capers has left a legacy of noble deeds to inspire us to nobler and better achievements.

"The Soldier-Bishop—Ellison Capers," should be in every home.

THE EVOLUTION OF THE HOSPITAL.

The modern hospital is a sanitary work-shop. Until a few years ago, it was a place where sick people could be kept until they recovered. Today, it is a work-shop where they are made well.

A few years ago the adequately equipped hospital was a clean house with clean floors, clean walls, a clean bed, indifferently trained nurses and a doctor whose sole means of diagnosis were his ear, his eye and his touch at the bedside of the patient. To-day the modern hospital has a laboratory of pathology to aid the surgeon or physician in his diagnosis, a laboratory of bacteriology, a department of physical therapeutics for various sorts of exercise, a department of dietetics in which patients may be fed by the doctor's prescription and their food measured in exact terms; an operating department, aseptic, with all which that term implies; a milk laboratory for infant-feeding, and a vast list of machinery such as blood-pressure apparatus, instruments for measuring and microscopes and instruments for counting the blood-cells, x-ray outfits, apparatus for introducing normal salines and other fluids into the blood, and so on down the list almost ad infinitum.

Yet this change is more one of degree than of kind. In 1863, Florence Nightingale published a book on the hospital of that day. Her plans down to the minutest detail show the hospital unit almost precisely as it is to-day—the ward flanked by the service-room, the bath, the toilet, the slop-sink room, the convalescents' dining-room, the linen room, the surgical dressing-room, the supply-rooms and the medicine-closets.

To-day, says Dr. W. B. Russ, in a recent issue of The Journal of the American Medical Association, our units are the same, but our construction is steel and concrete; we have no carpets and dust-catchers; our furniture is of white enamel. We have forsaken the old-time heat registers with their dust and soot; we have steam radiators that give nothing into the sick-room; we have screens on our windows to deny admission to the fly and the mosquito and other insects that may carry the organisms of disease. We know that sunlight is one of God's ways of curing disease and that fresh air is one of the greatest physicians in the world, so that we build our modern hospitals with windows facing to the sun, with air-space measured in terms of cubic feet for the sick.

SENATE SAFELY DEMOCRATIC

Success in Oregon Assures Control of Upper House For the First Time in 18 Years

Washington, Nov. 11.—The positive announcement of the success of Harry Kane, the Democratic candidate for the senate in Oregon, assured democratic control of the upper house of congress, and places both branches of the national legislature and the presidency in their hands for the first time in 18 years. The addition of Oregon to the Democratic list gives that party 49 senators or a majority of two.

In addition to the election of successors to Democratic senators now sitting Democrats will displace Republican senators from Oregon, New Jersey, Kansas, Colorado, Montana, Delaware and Nevada, and will fill the vacancy in Colorado with a man of their choosing.

CHILD DROWNED IN TUB

Little Boy Victim of Distressing Accident in Columbia

Columbia, November 5.—While visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Sharp, who lives near the Rose Hill Green House, about one mile below Columbia, Mrs. Sharp missed her little 15-months old son, Otto. Upon search being instituted he was found tonight in the back yard lying head downward in a tub drowned. It is supposed the little boy was playing in the yard and toppled over into the tub.

This tribute to an advertisement in this paper comes to us from Spartanburg, S. C. Mr. T. G. Reilly of that town writes: "A few days ago I stepped off the train down at Union and another traveling man whom I had never seen before walked along with me to the hotel. He asked me what I was selling and as usual, I said LUZIANNE COFFEE. He says: 'Well, well, I am glad to know you. I have been using Luzianne for nine years. I live in Atlanta, and a few months ago moved to another part of the city. The Grocer I began trading with in this new part of town did not sell Luzianne. He sent us a high priced, bulk roasted coffee that he found in his store. My wife called my attention to the fact that our coffee bill had run up three times as heavy as when we used Luzianne. I told him to buy Luzianne, or lose a coffee customer. He bought it on my warning and to-day is selling Luzianne regularly.' (Adv.)

PORTO RICO'S NEW WONDER

From far away Porto Rico come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barceloneta, writes "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles there is nothing better. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by P. B. Speed and McMurray Drug Co.

FARMERS' UNION

To Officers and Members of the Farmers' Union: I have always been in favor of mischiefs. The kind that the farmer now needs most is the man, just one man, with the missionary spirit in each county, who will study the problems of the farmer and bring to their solution the same zeal and fervor of the man or woman who travels to distant lands to convert the heathen.

The farmer is the greatest, the most priceless asset of America. His problems are the problems of the nation. They cannot be settled by lecturers or enthusiasts in convention halls, however kind-intentioned or devoted these gentlemen may be. They must be solved by the man who lives with the farmer, who sees him in gladness and sorrow, who can show him how to avoid the pitfalls of the demagogue, and also of his own weakness and, here and there, his suspicion and his credulity. Do you think there is one man in your county who will put up with your cussedness, as well as your nobility—for you are a strange mixture of both; do you think there is one man in your county who will develop the courage to tell you the truth, not once but all the time; who will stick to you, even when you show signs of abandoning him? That is the sort of spirit needed to aid the farmers of America wherever located.

The work may not pay much in dollars and cents. But the man who lives with the farmer, who has his reward in the consciousness that he is serving generations yet unborn. Charles S. Barrett. Union City, Ga. Nov. 12, 1912.

WE OFFER FOR SALE THE FOLLOWING REAL ESTATE

100 Acres known as the Hackabee place in Lowndesville township, near Campbell school house. Can give you a bargain in this place.

48 Acres in Lowndesville Township joining lands of Will Burris and others, 3 room dwelling house and other out-houses. A nice farm for a bargain.

110 Acres in Warrenton. On this tract there is a good four room dwelling, within half mile of school house and church. In one of the most thickly settled communities in Abbeville County.

31 Acres of land on poor house road, between city and poor house, within one-third mile of city limits. This tract can be bought on easy terms.

1 Tract on Public Road leading from L. R. Wilson to E. L. Bell's about 135 acres of fine level land, good buildings, good pasture and a good 3 horse farm in cultivation. One of the best places in the county. Price $37.50 an acre.

100 Acres of land within one and one-half mile of Abbeville, at the very low price of $20.00 per acre.

1 Tract of Land, 148 acres on the public road near J. J. Botts. Good 3 room house, price $18 an acre.

1 Tract of 100 Acres on Little River. Good house, good two horse farm in cultivation, adjoining lands of R. A. Crawford, Bowman, Ferguson and L. R. Wilson. Price $22 an acre.

About 100 Acres adjoining the above tract, very little in cultivation but plenty of fine wood timber and good pasture. Price $13.50 an acre.

68 Acres of land one and one half mile from Court House, on Abbeville to Mt. Carmel road, on this tract there is a splendid six room dwelling, large new barn, all land is in cultivation. This would make an ideal country home, giving a person all advantages of both town and country. A portion of this tract lies within City limits. Can be bought for one third cash, balance on long terms.

109 Acres in edge of the Nation where all land is high, land ranging in price from $25 to $50 per acre. This tract can be bought for $25 per acre. This would be a fine investment for some good farmer.

This is another fine proposition; 107 acres of land 2 1/2 miles South West from Mt. Carmel at the dirt cheap price of $10.00 per acre. Will possibly pay 15 per cent on money renting it.

Another good one of 207 acres four miles from Mt. Carmel, adjoining the Cable lands. The Cable lands are held for something like $25 per acre. We can sell you this 207 acres for $10 per acre.

Bank Stock, Cotton Mill Stock and any other kind of stock cannot be compared to investment in real estate judiciously bought. A man could close his eyes and purchase any of the above tracts and make good money both as a renting proposition and the increased value which is going on day by day.

57 1-2 Acres of land near M. B. Clinkscales' X roads, at $27.50 per acre. While we do not know anything of the land this price sounds cheap for land around Due West.

This world has no more land new than day it was created, but minute by minute, day by day, thousands are being born into the world. Land is getting higher and higher year by year. If you are wise you will buy a piece of dirt. Our best business men are the largest land owners. They know it, the best investment above all others.

If you have real estate to SELL place it with us. We have fifty inquiries for land where you have none, but keep this in mind that the day of miracles is past and we cannot get two prices for your land, but we can get what it is worth, and do not claim that we can get more.
