Born, July 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Hodges, a daughter.

Crowds have been taking in the 4th. Part took Saturday and part Monday, and everybody seemed to be having a time.

A crowd of us went fishing on the 4th over on the river. The Junior Order got up a crowd and they certainly did catch the fish. There was a crowd went on the train out to the river and others went in automobiles. There was Mr. Will Blanchet's family, Mr. Paul Blanchet's family, Mr. Gus Blanchet and Mrs. McCullar, Mr. Jim Blum and family, Mr. Charley Wilson and family, Mr. Jim Cox and little daughter Ida, Mr. C. B. Walker and family, Miss Luna Grant, Mrs. Will Bowie and Will Allen, Ernest and Robert Gray were the crowd that went on the train. We got to the river about sun up and we went to strolling around and the men went into the river. The other crowd got there about 9 o'clock, and they began to send in the fish and about half past 2 o'clock we had about 75 pounds of fish fried, some of them weighing from four and five to about thirteen pounds, and the cloths were spread on the ground and was covered with everything that was good to eat besides the fish, and everybody ate and seemed to enjoy themselves, but a big cloud was rising and we had to hurry, as Mr. Green and Mr. Mars said they would carry us to Watts in the automobiles, so we could have a shelter, which we thought was nice in them, as we had to wait on the 10 o'clock train that night, and we got there and did take in that little town of Watts from 4 o'clock until 10 that night. The young folks danced and played and certainly enjoyed themselves. Mr. Charley Wilson said there wasn't but one thing he hated and that was he got his silk hat wet and he was afraid it was ruined, but we hated nothing for we were out for a big time and we certainly had that. Miss Maud and Miss Marie Blanchet, Ernest and Robert Gray, Will Allen Bowie, and Miss Luna Grant said they went to have a big time and to eat the fish. They had it and the peaches, also, and if the mill stops wait and see if we don't go again.

Mrs. James is very sick at this writing.

Mrs. W. B. Going speaks of visiting homefolks in the country next week.

Mr. Will Lewis is slowly improving, as he is taking a treatment from a doctor in Georgia for pellagra. We hope he will succeed in curing him.
