A Delightful Reception.

Mrs. C. L. Cochran gave a delightful reception last night at her home on Chestnut street, complimentary to her pretty visitors, Miss Mary Oslin and Miss Duella Oslin, of Washington, Ga.

The house was prettily decorated in pot plants and cut flowers, the piazza was festooned with electric lights and from the hours of nine till eleven the whole place presented a bright and animated appearance, charming to the young people who were invited to this pleasant affair.

In the receiving line were the two honorees, Miss Leola Hannon and Miss Bessie Allen, while assisting in entertaining were Misses Caroline Reese, Amelia Anderson, Carrie Cochran and Janie Lou Richey.

In the dining room block ice cream and cake were served to the guests by Misses Eugenia Coleman, Susie Mabry and Ruth Howie, while on the porch the punch bowl, presided over by Miss Ada McMillan and Mr. Otto Bristow, was an attractive and popular place.

This was one of the largest and pleasantest receptions of the season and Mrs. Cochran's guests have to thank her for a charming evening.

The Civic Club.

The meeting of the Civic Club held last Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. M. T. Coleman was a success in every way. This was the last meeting of the club for the summer and the afternoon was devoted to an excellent musical program, arranged by Miss Ada McMillan, the chairman of the Musical department. The program consisted of instrumental selections by Miss McMillan and Mrs. Johnson, a solo each by Miss Margaret Evans, Mrs. McMillan and Mr. Cantey, all of whom are always enjoyed, a delightful recitation by Miss Esther Graydon, an instrumental selection by Miss Lavinia Coleman and a Southern Medley by Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Hill, Miss McMillan and Mrs. McMillan. The music was greatly enjoyed and round after round of applause was given each performer.

The art exhibit loaned by the State Federation was displayed in one of the rooms and received much favorable comment. The pictures were excellent and some were of familiar scenes around Charleston and Washington.

Delightful cream and cake was served to the club and the invited guests by the hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. McMillan and Mrs. Coleman.

Paint Now

If you ought to have painted last year and waited, how much do you think you made? You'll buy an extra gallon this year. There's $5 or $6 for paint and labor. You think you won't, but you will; you can't stretch paint. It is always so: the longer you wait, the more paint and wages. Besides what paint is for. What is it for? DEVOE
P. B. Speed sells it.
