A HAPPY MARRIAGE.

The marriage of Miss Ada McMillan and Mr. Otto Bristow was solemnized at the Methodist church last Wednesday, October 20th, 1915, at twelve o'clock, in the presence of a host of interested friends.

The church had been elaborately decorated with ferns and palms and garlands of Southern smilax. The chancel rail was covered in white and the bridal couple took their stand between two white pedestals on which were beautiful vases of white carnations.

Miss Mary Quarles Link presided at the organ and a beautiful and elaborate musical program delighted the waiting audience. Miss Fannie Stark, who is always pleasing to an Abbeville audience, sang "All For You," and "Until," after which Mr. James S. Cochran sang "Perfect Love." Music was continued throughout the ceremony, ending in a triumphant march for the departing couple.

The bridal party entered in the following manner: Mr. H. H. Greene and Mr. Arthur Blackwell of Darlington, P. B. Speed, Jr., and W. L. McMillan, G. A. Neuffer, Jr., and Hazel Bristow, of Darlington. Miss Esther Graydon as maid of honor, entered alone. She was beautifully dressed in a dress of brown broadcloth, trimmed with fur and canary colored lace, and carried a huge bouquet of flowers. The groom was escorted by his brother, Dr. Walter Bristow, and the bride came in on the arm of her father, Mr. J. L. McMillan.

Miss McMillan wore a handsome suit of brown trimmed in fur, with hat, gloves and shoes to match. She carried a bouquet of Lillies of the Valley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Louis J. Bristow and Rev. S. O. Cantey, the ring ceremony being used.

After the ceremony the young couple left for Darlington, where they visited the parents and relatives of the groom.

Mrs. Bristow is a general favorite with the people in Abbeville. She is a graduate of the Columbia College and is an accomplished musician. For several years she has played the Methodist church organ, and has endeared herself to the whole congregation.

Mr. Bristow is assistant cashier of the Farmers Bank and has showed himself to be worthy of the confidence and respect of the business people of our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Bristow received many handsome wedding gifts, an especially handsome one coming from the Methodist church and one from the Baptist Sunday school, of which organization, Mr. Bristow is the secretary and treasurer.

Their many friends wish them a long life and much happiness.

DESERVING A CARNEGIE MEDAL

Last week resolutions of appreciation of the work done by Mrs. M. C. Owens on the Plaza were passed by the city council and caused much favorable comment among the people who have admired the beautiful flowers. One party of ladies and gentlemen were discussing the resolutions one day last week when one of the ladies made the remark that no one knew how much hard work and how much of her own money Mrs. Owens has put on the place, which called forth the remark from Mayor Gambrell that no one knew how often Mrs. Owens had come down just after daylight and had put the night police to work setting out plants. They all with one accord agreed, that under such circumstances, Mrs. Owens really deserved a Carnegie Hero medal.

THE BOOK CLUB.

Despite the inclement weather last Wednesday the meeting of the book club, at the home of Mrs. J. S. Stark was well attended and the meeting greatly enjoyed. The features of the meeting was the reading of two poems by Mrs. J. F. Miller, written by the Librarian of the Thornwell Orphanage, who was the guest of the club last summer. The club is subscribing for the Bookman which is proving pleasant and instructive. Salads, sandwiches, and tea were served at the close of the meeting.

There will be an excellent turkey dinner, oysters, fried and stewed, and a candy booth. Come in and get your dinner, it will be good and be served in a hurry.

FOOT BALL GAME.

The Abbeville High School football team defeated the Due West high school team last Saturday afternoon by a score of 6 to 0. The teams were very evenly matched and both sides played unusually well, but the Abbeville boys played the more consistent, winning on straight football. So close was the game that it would be exceedingly hard to pick a star on either side, except for the punting of Thornton for Abbeville, which was exceptionally good.

NOT PAINT

With linseed oil at 50c to $1, what sort of oil do you think they use in "paint" at $1.50 and $1.25?

That stuff is counterfeit paint. You can cheat yourself; you can't cheat Time and Weather.

Paint is a rubbery coat over wood and iron to keep-out water.

Counterfeit paint may look like it; counterfeit money looks like money.

What are all counterfeits for? They are all alike.
