The girls of the sixth and ninth grades made a remarkable record on attendance the per cent being 99 in each grade.

AN EXCELLENT APPOINTMENT

Governor Manning has appointed Dr. G. A. Neuffer on the board of visitors for the State Hospital for the Insane. The others on the board are Rev. J. D. Cain, of Greers, and Thos. L. Conner of Eutawville. The State Hospital for the Insane has been much in the public eye lately and many marked changes have been made in the administration of affairs there since the beginning of the present year.

Governor Manning has made an excellent selection, one which will be pleasing to the people of Abbeville and the many friends of Dr. Neuffer all over the State. The doctor was elected President of the State Medical Association which is the highest office in the gift of the Doctors. Aside from this he has held many positions of public trust in the different fraternal organizations in the state.

He is being congratulated on all sides at this deserved compliment.

OUR MANY BLESSINGS.

(A Thanksgiving Piece.)

By Edna Bradley, 9th Grade.

We're thankful for our mother,
Dad, sister and all that,
We're thankful for our brother,
Who is a college "rat."

We're thankful for our house,
A garden and auto-bile,
And at Christmas time the boys,
Will be thankful for a wheel.

We're thankful for our servants,
A cook and working man,
And 'course its really natural
To make them do all they can

We're thankful for our friends,
Who we could not do without,
They are the greatest things in life
Without a single doubt.

We're thankful for our school,
That teaches everything,
And are thankful even more,
When it is out in Spring.

We're thankful when on New Year's day,
And all the bills come round,
That we've bought all our winter clothes,
And dad's name is good and sound.

We're thankful for our neighbors,
Who're just as good as gold,
And some of the things we borrow,
Never shall be told.

We're thankful for the boys,
Who hang around the town,
But for those nice young gents,
The movies would close down.

We're thankful the "one gallon law"
Was passed in our land,
For now instead, our mother makes
Grape wine to "beat the band."

And now to get an ending,
For this Thankful song,
I'll just say we're thankful
For whatever comes along.

W. E. JOHNSON

has been receiving the congratulations of her friends and co-workers this week upon having rounded out fifty years in the service.

Miss McCully entered the government service on November 3, 1865, from Columbia, S. C., when she was but 16 years old. She received her appointment from President Andrew Johnson, who was a friend of her grandmother. She was the first southern woman to be appointed to the treasury department. At the time of her appointment she was one of but twenty-two women clerks in the department.

All of Miss McCully's people were sympathizers with the cause of the Confederacy. Her father, an invalid, did not go to the war, but her brother, Nathaniel McCully, enlisted when he was but 16 years old and died a year later from exposure. Her grandfather, Nathaniel Harden, was an officer in the United States navy, and she still cherishes his certificate of enlistment, dated April 27, 1816, and signed by President James Madison.

When Columbia was burned by Sherman's troops, the McCully home went up in flames. The next day Miss McCully's grandmother died from the shock and grief. The misfortunes of the McCully family touched President Johnson's heart, and the appointment of Miss McCully to a $900 position in the accounts division of the treasury followed. She has been there ever since, and now holds an important post that pays $1,600. She is rated as one of the most efficient employees of the department.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

COUNTY OF ABBEVILLE.

The expenditures for the first quarter, ending March 31st, 1915, are as follows:

Roads and Bridges	$4,284.31
Chain Gang	4,763.87
Poor House	1,145.55
Magistrates and Cntsables	650.69
Sheriff	751.65
Jail	293.11
Lunacy	143.75
Public Offices	586.49
Coroners and Post Mortems	119.00
Public Officers	1,586.94
Printing and Stationery	443.93
Incidentals	41.67
Interest	2,250.00
Court expenses	1,414.50

Total $18,475.46

There is a note outstanding for $4060.95 with the Aetna Life Insurance Company, bearing interest at the rate of 7 per cent—this will be paid April 14th, 1916. There is another note outstanding for $15,200.00 with the Equitable Life Assurance Company, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent—this is due in three installments of $6000 (interest and principal), April 6th, 1916-1917-1918. There is in the hands of Treasurer the sum of $16,524.54 of money borrowed for current expenses, besides fines and licenses that have been paid in this year.

It is well to state here that our expenses for the first quarter are almost as much as they are for the balance of the year, as bridge material, lumber cement and other supplies are bought then for the whole year, most of it, so there is not much to pay after this except running expenses.

W. A. STEVENSON,
County Supervisor.
