MT. CARMEL.

The Literary Society of the Mt. Carmel Graded Schools, held their regular meeting Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This meeting closed the regular session of the Mt. Carmel schools.

The teachers, Mrs. Nannie Harkness and Miss Carrie McCelvey have done good work. Miss McCelvey has been elected for another year, but Mrs. Harkness declined re-election, much to the regret of her Mt. Carmel friends. We hate so much to see her and Miss Sara leave Mt. Carmel. They have been with us two years and endeared themselves to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun Harris and interesting children are spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrah.

Mr. M. L. Marchant of Greenville, S. C., is spending the week-end with Mrs. Marchant at the home of her parents.

Miss Ethel Wells has returned to her home in Mt. Carmel. She has been teaching in Clarendon county.

Mt. Carmel was saddened and grieved Friday afternoon when Mr. S. D. Wells received a telegram announcing the death of his brother, Mr. John L. Wells, which occurred Friday morning in Savannah.

Mt. Carmel claimed Mr. Wells, although he has made his home in Savannah for a couple of years.

Mr. Wells was a good man, and a friend of everybody.

Always bright and cheerful in manner, kind and loving in disposition, his friends were always glad to see him. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Jodie Brown, and four sons, Messrs Perrin, Sam, Thomas and Gerald Wells, and four daughters, Misses Lula and Mamie Wells, Mrs. Alma Henderson and Mrs. Ruby Belk, two brothers, Messrs S. D. Wells and Joe Wells, and one sister, Mrs. Lucretia Paschal.

The sorrowing family have the sympathy of the entire community.

FAIRFIELD.

Some of the farmers are busy replanting cotton.

The Fairfield school closed last Thursday.

Mr. Chess Talbert, who lived near Troy, died last Wednesday afternoon after a week's suffering with pneumonia. Mr. Talbert had many friends as he was kind to everybody. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his death, also a brother, Mr. T. A. Talbert of Troy and a sister, Mrs. Charley Franklin and a dear mother, and a host of friends and relatives. He was buried in the Troy cemetery Thursday at twelve o'clock.

Walter Martin is in Greenwood visiting his mother, Mrs. Vaughn.

Abbeville Chautauqua.

On the front page of this issue we publish the program for the Chautauqua, which will open in Abbeville on June 28, 29, and 30. This is a most attractive program and assures every one who comes to Abbeville for the occasion a most delightful time. Every entertainment offered will be an intellectual treat and tickets should be secured as soon as possible. Abbeville's first Chautauqua was held last year and proved a most pleasant affair. This year the attractions will be much better and a larger and more enthusiastic crowd should be present.

Dr. D. W. Daniel is one of the opening day attractions and aside from the fact that he is one of the most accomplished lecturers of the present day in the South, there are many reasons why he should be given a warm welcome here. He has been a professor at Clemson College for many years and is admired and beloved by the many graduates of the college over the county. He is a brother of Rev. J. L. Daniel, who is now the pastor of the Methodist church here. He is also a brother of Rev. J. Walter Daniel, who was in Abbeville some years ago, preaching four years to the Methodists here. Dr. Daniel visited in Abbeville many years ago when he was a young man and made a marked impression on many of the young ladies of the town who will now send their families out to gain wisdom from his words during the Chautauqua. Last, but not least, he is a member of the S. A. E. Fraternity, which makes him a favorite with such honorable and ancient institutions of the old town as Col. W. W. Bradley and the editor of this paper.

Another attraction which will appeal to both old and young is Durno, the magician. This man has been in Abbeville before and his entertainment is excellent indeed. It is worth seeing as many times as a person has the opportunity. We can recommend the Durno entertainment to everyone.

A Chautauqua is an excellent thing for a town and we bespeak for the 1916 attractions the patronage of every man, woman and child in the county.

Fatal Crossing Accident.

The killed were, Mrs. W. D. Hardesty, of Orlando, Fla., and an eighteen months old child, Mrs. J. W. Peppers of Statham and George Littlefield of Jefferson, Ga. The injured are, Hosea and Hubert Littlefield, of Jefferson, Ga.

Train No. 5 is the fast southbound Seaboard train running between Washington and Birmingham. It left Abbeville Monday in charge of engineer Joseph A.
