

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. J. A. Woodhurst is in Laurens visiting friends.

Mr. Gus McGee, of Birmingham, Ala., was in the city Sunday.

Mr. Brice Mills of Columbia, spent the week-end here.

Mr. F. J. Milam was a business visitor from Greenwood Monday. He was accompanied by little Miss Ernestine Tarkington.

Miss Lillian Swetenberg is spending a few days at Peaks.

Mr. J. S. Gilmer of Knoxville, Tenn., spent several days last week with his sister, Mrs. John Smith, near the city.

Miss Mary Hill Harris leaves on Thursday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Henry Hagerman in Greenville.

Mr. Henry Cason, of Anderson, spent Sunday here.

Mrs. L. D. Witt of Greenville, is here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. W. A. Jamieson, at the Hotel.

W. Frank Pearson, an old Due West boy, now a traveling salesman out of Greenville, was here yesterday.

Andy Milford, the honey man, was here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Greene, and Miss Mary Hemphill Greene go to Due West today to attend the Moffatt-Donnald wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peek, of Commerce, Ga., spent Sunday in town with Mrs. Peek's home folks.

Mrs. F. M. Welsh and children, of Monroe, N. C., are in the city on a visit to Mr. W. D. Barksdale.

John E. Winn, of near Due West, was here yesterday.

Hon. Frank T. Watkins, of Anderson, was in the city last Friday holding a reference in the case of Keller vs. Wilson, having been appointed as special referee at the recent term of the court. Mr. Watkins is one of the lawyers of standing at the Anderson Bar.

John U. Wardlaw, of Bellevue, a McCormick county man, was here Monday shaking hands with his friends, and looking after business matters. He looked as if he would like to come back home to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson G. Peebles and Miss Zachary went to McCormick last Saturday to see the big county seat.

Mrs. Foster McLane and Miss Ruth McLane went out in the country today to attend the marriage of Mrs. McLane's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bradley and their family of interesting children, have returned from a pleasant trip to Greenville, where they were the guests of Marshal and Mrs. C. J. Lyon. While in the city they went on to Caesar's Head, making the whole trip in their Kritten.

Mrs. L. W. Perrin is in the city and will spend some time with Mrs. T. Gordon White. Her friends are glad to see her. She comes from York, where she has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Alston.

Mrs. Frank Evans is in the city for a visit of several weeks to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George White.

Miss Sallie White left Tuesday for Charlottesville, Va., where she will attend the summer school of the University of Virginia. She will be away six weeks.

Mr. Herbert Allen, the genial manager of the Oil Mill at this place, made a business trip to Greenville last week, being away for several days.

Messrs C. J. Britt of McCormick, and Earle Watson of Anderson, were in the city Tuesday.

Mr. S. J. Hester and Chas. H. Taylor of Calhoun Falls, were business visitors in the city Monday.

Mr. Paul Link spent several days last week at Wrightsville Beach.

Calhoun Haskell came home Sunday and spent the day with his home folks. He is doing well in Greenville, which is pleasing news to his friends at this end of the line.

Messrs W. D. Wilson, S. J. Link, T. G. and W. H. White spent Sunday in Laurens. They went over to see Mr. H. W. Edlen, who is in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Speed and Messrs H. O. and William Speed spent Sunday in Hartwell, Ga.

Miss Sara Perrin left Monday for Newberry, where she will visit with friends.

Miss Lillie Clark leaves in a few days for Augusta, Ga., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Clark. From Augusta she will go to Hickory and Hendersonville, N. C., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

Miss Kathleen Wilkes, of Laurens, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. A. Jamieson, at the Eureka Hotel.

Mrs. Fred Cason and Mims Cason, have returned from Columbia, where they have been visiting.

Miss Edna Sherer is at home after visiting in Mountville.

Mr. W. C. Edmunds, of Lockhart Junction, spent Sunday in the city.

Messrs John R. Lomax and Lowry Wilson attended the dance in Greenwood last Friday night.

Mrs. H. H. Hill and Miss Howard Hill will leave Thursday for Baltimore and Washington, where they will spend some time.

Miss Mary Hill Harris is at home after a pleasant visit to Miss Helen Graham in Columbia.

Mrs. A. S. Gage, of Columbia, with her sister and nephew, Mrs. Fred Cason, and Mims Cason, of Abbeville, are spending the week-end in Charleston.—Society News, Charleston Post.

MRS. WILSON TO ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Joe Wilson has invited her friends to a Bridge Party to be given at her home on South Main street Thursday morning. A happy time is anticipated.

MISS BRISTOW HONOREE.

Miss Katherine Bristow was the honoree at a delightful dance Friday evening, given by Misses Mary Graydon and Mary Hill Harris at Miss Harris' home. Music was furnished by the Victrola and during the evening refreshing cream and cake was served. The following dancers enjoyed the evening:

Misses Katherine Bristow, Caroline Reese, Margaret Cothran, Engenia Coleman, Edna Bradley, Kate Haskell, Ruth Howie, Vic Howie, Elizabeth Faulkner, Elizabeth Jones, Madge McLeskey, Mary Milford, Katherine Link, Messrs. Allen Haskell, Andrew Hill, Frank Gary, Charlie Calvert, Amos Morse, Max Smith, Weber Wilson, William Hughes, William Speed, Owen Speed, Albert Lesley, Alpheus Lesley, Frank Lesley, Billy Bradley, Frank Thornton, Mart Cheatham and Carrol Swetenberg.

SOUTH CAROLINA WESLEY BIBLE CLASS FEDERATION

The Fourth Annual Meeting of the South Carolina Bible Class Federation of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be held in Sumter July 3, 4 and 5. Last year the meeting was held in Spartanburg and nearly 2,000 were in attendance. This year plans have been laid to make the meeting in Sumter reach the high water mark in every respect. The railroads have granted exceedingly low rates and taken in all the trip will be one of nominal cost. Representatives from classes here will attend.

THE GRAND PRIZE GIRLS

Miss Belle Nance, of Due West, and Miss Eunice Ferguson, of Antreville, went over to Rock Hill Monday, where they will take the two weeks' course in the demonstration and canning club work. These young ladies made the highest general average on their tomato crop last year and the trip to Winthrop is the grand prize given them. Their expenses are paid and they expect to have a pleasant and profitable trip.

A NEW CHURCH.

The people in Greenwood, that is the Seceders, are asking the people of Abbeville and others to contribute to a fund for building a new church there. If there is any place we know of which needs plenty of churches, it is Greenwood. We have always contended that the missionaries from Mexico should be called home and sent there. We are somewhat surprised, however, that the city authorities of that prosperous community would allow outsiders to come in and build a church for them. We thought from hearing Dr. T. J. Crymes talk that Greenwood did everything herself and everybody.

MRS. BRISTOW'S PARTY.

Mrs. Otto Bristow was hostess Monday afternoon to a large number of her friends in honor of Miss Katherine Bristow, of Darlington, who has been her house guest for several days. The party was given at the home of Mrs. J. L. McMillan on Magazine street.

The cool rooms thrown en suite were unusually attractive on this warm afternoon, vases of cut flowers adding a touch of beauty. Three tables of Rook and four of Auction Bridge were played, and delicious Nunnally's cream and cake were served at the close of the games.

Those enjoying the afternoon together, were: Misses Louise McDill, Sara Haskell, Lavinia and Eugenia Coleman, Mary Smith, Mary Quarles Link, Katherine Link, Fannie DuPre, Edna Bradley, Mary Hill Harris, Mary Graydon, Antoinette Thompson, Annie Hill, Annie Roche, Caroline Reese, Elizabeth Faulkner, Janie Lou Richey, Dorothy Miller, Mary Klugh, Mary DuPre, Mesdames Ben Cochran, A. L. Harvin, J. M. Morgan, J. R. Nickles, J. T. McCaw, and A. S. Thomas. Miss Polly Prentiss, of Greenville, was an attractive out-of-town guest.

STOKES-TIMMONS WEDDING, ABBEVILLE

A marriage of interest, which was solemnized Saturday night at 9 o'clock was that of Miss Olive Timmons to Eulys Stokes of Abbeville. The wedding ceremony took place at the manse. Rev. Geo. A. Blackburn officiated. The marriage was very quiet, only the families and a few immediate friends being present. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Frank Griffin and Mrs. H. K. Morris of Hendersonville, N. C., and the groom by Mr. Frank Griffin and Mr. Ralph Mayfield. The only guest's present were Miss Eslene Leaphart and the father of the bride, Mr. F. F. Timmons. The wedding was quite a surprise to their many friends. They will make their home in Columbia.—Columbia Record.

A LOST BREASTPIN.

A breastpin of white and black ivory set with pearls, was lost at the home of Mrs. Wm. P. Greene at the meeting of the Civic Club two weeks ago. If the owner will send for it, it will be gladly returned.

A COMING PARTY.

Mrs. W. W. Bradley has issued invitations to a party for Wednesday night at her home on Greenville street, which she gives in compliment to her son, young Billy Bradley, who has just returned home after a successful year in Clemson, and to Miss Edna Bradley.

DEATH OF MRS. R. D. ANDERSON

The people of Abbeville were shocked and genuinely sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Bessie Bruce Anderson, at her home in Clio, after a short illness. She was taken to North Carolina Monday and buried by the side of her husband, who died three years ago. She is survived by three small children, a girl about eight years old and two little boys.

Mrs. Anderson was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bruce, and spent all of her youth and young maidenhood in Abbeville. She went to school on Magazine Hill and the friends of those days hear with regret of her death.

The brothers and sisters who survive, are Miss Marion Bruce of Columbia, Miss Kate Bruce of Clio, Mr. Robert Bruce, of Augusta, Charlie Bruce, of Greenville, and John and Dixie Bruce.

THE OPEN AIR SERVICE.

The open air service held by the Presbyterian last Sunday night, was the first of the season, and the first thing of the kind ever held in Abbeville. The service proved most attractive and a large crowd was present.

Messrs Henry Moseley and Thos. D. Cooley were here from townsville yesterday on business.

HADDON-WILSON CO.

Are Well Equipped For June Business

WIDE STRIPED SKIRTINGS

All the new materials for tub Skirts. This is our second shipment and they are selling fast.

WHITE GOODS FOR JUNE SALE.

36 in. White and figured Voiles, 20 to 50c.

36 in. White and Cream Seed Voiles, 10 to 25c.

50 pieces 27 in. Figured Organdies, a wide range of floral designs, only 10c.

GOSSARD CORSETS.

A high grade front lacing Corsets usually sold by agents. We can furnish you with any grade or style.

HADDON-WILSON CO.

BUGGIES

I have just received a car load of the old reliable Summers Buggies. I have sold these buggies for the past 20 years, and there are hundreds of satisfied customers who have been using them who will tell you what they are.

If you want the best, get a Summers Buggy.

W. A. CALVERT