PEOPLE MUST ADOPT WARRATION MEASURE

Two Wheatless Days Necessary to Conserve Flour for Army

CAROLINIANS HEAR CALL OF PRESIDENT

Columbians to Observe Another Heatless Monday—One Meatless Day and One Porkless Day.
Wheatless and Meatless Meals
Every Day—Is Patriotic Duty.

WAR PROGRAM.

Monday—Heatless, wheatless.
Tuesday—Meatless.
Wednesday—Wheatless.
Saturday—Porkless.
One wheatless and one meatless meal each day in the week.
"Food Will Win the War; Don't Waste It."

Acting under the request of President Wilson and Herbert Hoover the nearly 2,000,000 citizens of South Carolina began yesterday to observe the war program as outlined by the proclamation of the chief executive.

The program is made necessary because of the conditions resulting from the war. The restricted use of flour is necessary because America must provide for her associates in the war until the new wheat crop comes in.

It is necessary for the American people to reduce the consumption of flour by about 35 per cent. The food administration in South Carolina is waging a vigorous campaign to prevent the hoarding of flour.
The food dealers must cut down their sales to city and rural consumers. Not more than one-fourth barrel of flour should be sold to city consumers. The maximum amount to country consumers is one-half barrel. No consumer will be allowed to purchase or have on hand more than a 30 days' supply.

The new rules of the food administration providing for two wheat-less days a week, one wheatless meal a day, one meatless day a week, one porkless meal a day, one porkless meal a week, went into effect Sunday night at midnight.

The United States food administration has notified all hotels and cafes that the rules must be observed. Special appeal has been issued to every one of the 400,000 households of the State to observe the rule. The food administration realizes that the rules can only be strictly enforced by the wholehearted cooperation of the housewife.

There is every indication that heatless Monday will be observed in the State. The various concerns in Columbia will be closed. The theaters opened yesterday but will close today.

Another cold wave is predicted by the weather bureau, which will practically eliminate the results to be obtained by observing the heatless day as prescribed by the United States food administration.

NO FURLOUGHS TO FARMERS.

The Clerk of Local Board for Abbeville County has received a letter from Capt. R. E. Carwile, Officer in charge, in Columbia, S. C., that in his opinion, no furloughs would be granted farmers who have commenced crops in order to finish said crops. This refers to men classified in Class 1, and they will have to report for duty when their order number is reached.

Neuffer-Anderson Bill Passes Sec- ond Reading in House Without Opposition.

Columbia, Jan. 25.—Without opposition or a record vote the Neuffer Anderson bill, providing for airtight prohibition, passed second reading in the House of Representatives tonight. Very little notice was taken of the measure, those members who oppose prohibition seemingly taking the position that it would be a hopeless task to make a fight. All indications point to the passage of the bill on third reading.

The bill provides that no intoxicants can be transported into, or from one point to another in this State. The measure also provides for the manufacture of not more than five gallons of wines from fruits, berries or grapes for one's immediate family or for sacramental purposes. Wines or liquors now on hand in a person's home for personal use are not to be affected, under

GERMAN GENERALS THREATEN TO QUIT

Hindenburg and Lu- dendorff Are Talking of Retiring

BIG POLITICAL ROW EXPECTED Voicing Dissatisfaction of Country, Berlin Paper Even Goes So Far as to Criticise Emperor.

London, Jan. 27.—What news has been permitted to pass the German censor indicates that a political hornet's nest has again been stirred up in Germany. A dispatch from Zurich to the Exchange Telegraph Company quotes the Berlin correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung as saying that the Pan-Germans are "kicking up a tremendous row" and declaring that Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General von Ludendorff, dissatisfied with Chancellor Hertling's speech before the main committee of the reichstag, are again talking of retiring.

Emperor William, himself, has not been spared. The Deutsche Tages-Zeitung styling him the "present representative" of the house of Hoh-enollern, probably desiring to show by a parallel between the emperor and the crown prince that the an-nexionists cherish the latter as the savior of Germany at the last moment from "sinking in the abyss dug by four men—Dr. von Kuehlmann (German foreign secretary), Count von Hertling (imperial chancellor), Count Czernin (Austro-Hungarian foreign minister) and Count von Roedern (German secretary of the treasury)."

The newspaper adds that King Ludwig of Bavaria already has made representation to the emperor regarding the political situation which has arisen.

FORCED TO EXPLAIN IN SECOND SPEECH

Von Kuehlmann Again Talks of Russian Peace.

WILL HOLD UP BOLSHEVIKI German Foreign Secretary Com- ments on Alleged Conduct of Petrograd Government.

Amsterdam, Jan. 27.—The German foreign secretary, Dr. von Kuehlmann, made a second speech before the reichstag main committee on Saturday, replying to speakers in the debate which followed his first explanation on Friday of the negotiations at Brest-Litovsk. Incidentally, he expressed confidence that the status of the "great free German state" would appeal to border peoples and he dealt strongly with the "Bolsheviki policy of ruling by force as opposed to their professions."

The secretary continued: "I warmly greet the statements of Dr.
David (Socialist leader of the reichstag) that a representative body of Lithuania has really been honorably set up and that the representative of the Lithuanian people of all classes can strive toward the realization of possibilities. It has been suggested that we should wait until the end of the war before making extension to other existing representative bodies. We work under difficult circumstances in the country in question. The war still continues."

Military Necessities.

"We will, if peace is reached with Russia, do what can be done in conjunction with the military necessities with a view to bringing about this extension during the war."

"Her Trotzky twice declared in open discussion that our government has no basis other than force. The Bolsheviki maintain themselves by brutal force; their arguments are cannon."

"Differences of opinion are settled by their getting rid of their opponents in a radical and satisfactory manner. The Bolsheviki preach beautifully but practice otherwise."

"They have solemnly recognized the Finnish republic. They have disputed the right of that republic to receive diplomatic representatives but when it came to the act of sending representatives there they created the greatest difficulties."

The secretary concluded by declaring that the German government earnestly desired a wise and honorable peace.

self and family home-made wines at his own home nor the keeping and possession at his own home for personal use only wines and liquors now on hand.

"Sec. 2. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be subject to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment for not less than three months or both, in the discretion of the court."

"Sec. 3. In any prosecution under this act for unlawful shipping or transportation of alcoholic liquors, the offence shall be held to be committed in any county of the State through which or into which said alcoholic liquors have been carried or transported or to which they may have been conveyed or delivered."

W. J. Cormack.

According to reports a famine is large and distressing proportions is is creeping over Europe.

Riots in Berlin were reported on last Thursday. The people were demanding peace.

O. L. CANN DEAD.

Mr. O. L. Cann died Saturday morning at six o'clock at the age of 72 years. He had gone to live with his youngest son, Willie Cann, who has recently moved to the Hunt place. Several days ago he suffered a second stroke of paralysis from which he did not recover. All was done that his relatives and kind neighbors could do but his time had come. He was a member of the Methodist Church, having joined at Bell's Church and on coming to Abbeville he identified himself with the members of Grace Methodist.
His body was brought to the home of his son, Mr. Kenney Cann, Saturday afternoon and the funeral services were held there Sunday at 12:30, conducted by Rev. G. W.
Swope. The interment was at Melrose cemetery.

Mr. Cann is survived by two brothers, Mr. Jimmie Cann of near old Pendleton, and Mr. Tommie Cann of near Lowndesville. Eight children also survive him, his wife and one daughter have preceded him to the grave. Those surviving are, Mrs.
A. H. Barnett, Mrs. M. A. Simpson, and Miss Willie Cann of Atlanta, and Messrs J. O. Cann, Lester Cann Kinney Cann, Sam Cann, of/Lowndesville, and Willie Cann of near Abbeville.

The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the community.

Intensive Attack Look- ed for by Land Forces and Submarines

HOPE FOR VICTORY TO HEARTEN PEOPLE

Thought That Germany Plans to Seek Lines of Commerce Between America and France and Destroy Men and Supplies En Route to Europe.

That the Teutonic allies in their expected offensive on the Western battle front are not to be satisfied merely with infantry operations, but will employ their submarine in the most intensive manner they have yet adopted to aid them is an announcement that has just been made by Secretary Baker.

While the armies of the enemy, reinforced to a great extent by men withdrawn from the Russian front, are attacking on land, underwater boats, refitted and generally prepared, are to seek the lanes of commerce, especially those between the United States and France, there to attempt to ravish commerce and to cut off, if possible, men of the American army and food and ammunition supplies that are being hastened by the United States.

Attack on Long Front.

Since the debacle on the Russian front the fact has been well established that the high command of the German army proposed at an early date as was practicable a general military attack against the entire front from the North Sea to the Adriatic, in the hope of gaining victories at various points through the bending back of the entente's line which would give new heart to the people at home.

Doubtless, however, the American, British, French and Italian navies will not be taken unawares by the submarine menace which recently has fallen off in a great degree.
